

Democratic Meeting at Ashland.

ASHLAND, April 18th, 1868. The faithful and untrifled met at this place on Saturday last, for the purpose of "renewing their unwavering allegiance to the 'time-honored' principles of Democracy."

It had been previously announced that the "leader's" candidate for Sheriff would be present on the occasion, and enlighten the "bed-rocks" as to their duties in the coming county canvass. The candidate, however, failed to come to time, but sent the "young Attorney" to attend his interests.

There was also another candidate present—a conservative gentleman from Eden precinct—who hopes to come in as a compromise between the present contending parties.

Some time was spent in caucusing, button-holing, and "renewing of allegiance to the 'time-honored principles'" over "Baum's best," when the crowd repaired to the School House and organized their club.

The gentleman from Eden was called on for a speech. He said he had not come to make a speech,—was not prepared,—but would say what he had to say very quickly.

"Our country," said he, "is fast going to decay; our commerce is falling off; our financial condition getting worse and worse—in fact, going to the dogs as fast as time can move, and the Radicals are responsible for it all."

"A Radical Congress," said he, "are now trying Andrew Johnson for treason,—yes, for treason,—and that for simply wanting to try the constitutionality of the Tenure of Office Bill,—wishing to bring it before the Courts. Only that and nothing more."

The "young Attorney" was then called on, when he mounted the stand and glibly said "his piece." He took a rather broader field than the gentleman from Eden, and talked quite boldly of constitutional law, taxation of government bonds, negro suffrage, &c., and wound up "his piece" according to the "time-honored principles," by saying: "If a President was elected through the instrumentality of negro votes, he was in favor of resisting it,—yes, resisting it to the bitter end!"

An invitation was then extended to any one of the Union party to reply. Mr. S., a pedagogue of unassuming manner and modest pretensions, being loudly called on, took the stand. He briefly reviewed the propositions of the "young Attorney," and warning to the subject as he progressed, with apt illustration and amusing anecdote, scattered their sophistries, and brought down the house in thunders of applause.

The "young Attorney" looked blue. They had evidently caught a "Tartar." It was a scene not on the bills. Loud calls were made for different ones to reply, but none seemed anxious for the conflict.

Finally the irrepressible Capt. S. arose and replied in his usual chaotic and pure style (?). In the course of his remarks, as regards the President, he said: "He is none of our kettle of fish—not our bull puppy. He had often said if A. Johnson had his just deserts, he would have been hung long ago." (The gentleman from Eden winced under this, and remarked softly: "D—n fool has no policy.")

After some skirmishing on both sides, the Club adjourned. The Chairman was heard to remark, while a select party of them were renewing their allegiance to the "time-honored principles": "The d—d Blacks rather flax-ed us; we must come better prepared next time. Thought they were cowed like they are in Jacksonville, and wouldn't attempt to speak; but that d—d schoolmaster has got no more sense than to pitch right in."

I am inclined to think that the "compromise candidate" from Eden has got some hold on this community; but no more now.

LOCAL POLITICS.—Our Democratic brethren have held their precinct meetings throughout the county, and the proceedings seem to have given great dissatisfaction. The "bed-rocks" openly charge the "independents" with fraud and the latter wing accuse the "bed-rocks" of bribery and corruption. The "bed-rocks" got cleaned out badly and are not in a very good humor, which is quite natural. Things look very harmonious (over the left), and it is a pretty kettle of Democratic fish anyway it is fixed up. They hold their County Convention to-day, and a lively time is anticipated.

ROSBURG ENIGMA.—This sterling little Union paper has entered on its second volume, and appears to be prospering. The first number contains an interesting article on railroads. We hope it may live to hear the clatter of the cars through the valley where it is published.

QUARTZ MINING AND MILLING.—The Occidental Quartz Mill has been running the past week, and we understand, that as soon as the "clean up" from the run just made is completed the mill will be set in motion again. The amount of quartz crushed last week, was 94 tons, from the Timber Gulch Ledge, owned by Messrs. W. A. Johnson and Louis Ballou. The mill is driven by a thirty horse power engine. The crushing and reducing machinery consists of two high mortar batteries, five stamps each, two Rettinger boxes, two Hungerford's improved concentrators and one seven foot amalgamating tub, arranged similar to an arrastra. The machinery, it will be remembered, was put up two years since, but it has been left in excellent condition, works to a charm and reflects great credit upon its manufacturers, Messrs. Howland, Angel & King, of San Francisco. The saving process of the mill is near about perfect, and thus far gives satisfaction. The Rettinger boxes are a new thing in American mining, the ones in the Occidental mill being the only ones that are known to be in use on the American continent. A milling company in Grass Valley Cal., talked at one time of adopting them, but we have never heard whether they did or not. The quartz crushed at the run just made, paid 10 dollars per ton. The lead from which the rock is quarried is about a half mile from the mill and at this rate will pay well for working.

SLUIC ROBBERY.—Messrs. Wilson & Davis, mining on Applegate, have had their ground sluice robbed of five or six hundred dollars. This comes particularly hard on the parties at this time, as they had just been to great expense to get a hydraulic erected and their claim open for working.

MAY FESTIVAL.—The Jacksonville Shooting Club will be on their grounds at the Byby Grove, on the 1st of May, with games and amusements for the young folks, similar to last year.

RELIGIOUS.—To-morrow, at 10 1/2 o'clock, Rev. Father Blanchet will hold divine services in the Catholic Church.

COME.

We have Restorers for the Hair, Much better than your dye; We've preparations for the Ear, And lotions for the Eye. Thus giving old maids and crusty bachelors an opportunity of fixing up for the matrimonial market.

We're Drugs and Books; we're Oils and Paints, And trinkets of all kinds; We've Nostrums good for all complaints, And sell to suit the times. Thus giving old and young an opportunity for speculation.

And will thus give the City Drug Store fellows a fine opportunity to display their extensive stock of NEW GOODS to much better advantage than they could possibly do on paper. The Celebrated Horse, CAPT. SLIGART

WILL STAND AT THE LIVERY STABLE of Corn-tuck & Casley, in Jacksonville, on Tuesday's and Wednesday's, and at the ranch of the subscriber, near Ashland Mills, Jackson County, Oregon, on Friday's and Saturday's, the training season, commencing April 7th, and ending July 1st 1868. I purchased Capt. Sligart, in Licking County, Ohio, and brought him out via Panama, in the Spring of '66. He is a beautiful, dark dapple bay; has weighed 1,440 pounds, and trotted his mile in 2 m and 42 sec; has never been trained to any great extent; is near perfect in his proportions, of the finest style—in muscular power is remarkably well developed; is a horse of first class action, and was, by the best horse men, acknowledged to be the most perfect formed horse in Ohio, for speed as a trotter and size.

His sire was a large, beautiful "Sir Thomas Horse," a sire a well bred turf horse, known as Woodward's "Sir Thomas;" he by Diamond, Jr., and he by Imported Diamond. His dam was a well bred "Farmer's Delight," and in the county has ever stood unequalled as a Roadster and mare for general purposes.

CAPT. SLIGART is a half brother of Capt. Fisher, now owned in California. No stallion of his size has equaled his time as a trotter. He is also a half brother to Moll-Brook, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who has shown a gait that stands unrivaled in the annals of trotting time; also a half brother to the celebrated Lady Lightfoot, of Chicago, Polly White of San Francisco, and Wild Bill, of Buffalo. I learn that another half brother called Capt. Fairfield, was awarded the First Premium at the State Fair in Ohio, and was spoken of in their report as the best horse for general use. (See report now in my possession.)

Hence it is plain to be seen, that he is of a family of the best stock of horses for speed and size in Central Ohio. His colts, when grown, are large, well formed, with good action and fine style, and bring the highest price for the Eastern market.

TERMS—$25 the season, in U. S. coin. P. O. address, Ashland Mills, Ogn. W. C. MYER, Ashland Mills, March 27th, '68. mar27-td
