For Presidential Electors: O. JACOBS, of Jackson.

SATURDAY MORNING, July 25, 1868.

Grants initials, H. U. S. G., have now a very peculiar significance.

Democrats have been howling for three years because the Southern States were not allowed representation.

The nomination of the aristocratic Seymour—"the bloated bondholder,"

Horatio Seymour presided over the convention that nominated McClellan,

The Copperhead papers of this State have hoisted the name of a "bloated aristocrat"

The Albany Democrat flatters itself that Frank P. Blair is an object of hatred to radicals.

At the Democratic barbecue, at Salem, a Copperhead glutton named Snow,

Resolution number three of the Copperhead platform goes in for the payment of the bondholders according to the strict terms of the contract.

The latest specimen of the double distilled quintessence of impudence is the declaration of the Democratic bondholder's convention in New York,

The Democracy cannot yet perceive how badly they were sold at the "Chase" Convention.

On Tuesday last, the Congressional Committee on elections reported favorable on the credentials of the members elect from the State of Alabama.

Flexibility of the Democratic Gullet.

Quite a change seems to have come over the spirit of the Democratic press in this State. A few weeks since the Democratic papers of Oregon were running entirely on principle.

Demands for the repudiation of the public debt were not infrequent, and any man who had not inherited his Democracy by suction,

But in no manner is the flexibility of the Democratic gullet better shown, than by the ease with which they swallow a "Federal Butcher,"

It is a wonderful, but to many Democrats who still cling to principle, a humiliating spectacle, to see the "white man's party" swallow the blackest and earliest Abolitionist of the State of Missouri.

There is but one thing we wish to add, and that is: that the Democracy whose thoughts have been so lately distended for so large a dose,

TROUBLE IN CHINA.—The whites on Coyote Creek held a meeting last week and resolved, that if the money stolen from Leven's safe,

PROSPECTING.—A large party have started from Yreka to accompany Capt. McGregor's scouting party,

ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday last, Richard Ish, while attempting to clear the feeder of his threshing machine,

WARM PLACE.—At Rock Point, on Tuesday, at 6 o'clock p. m., the thermometer stood at 93 degrees.

More Light.

The following communication from one of the most respectable tax-payers in the county, explains itself. We have expressed our belief that the County Hospital building was a suitable one and yet no reason to recede from that position.

But, if there has been any inhuman neglect of the sick poor, it is easy for the commissioners to procure proof of the fact, and in such case their duty is plain.

Under no circumstances whatever, should the poor, who have been thrown in sickness on the charity of the county, be neglected; and if it can be proved that they have been, their care should never again be confided to the person who has been guilty of it,

EDITOR SENTINEL:—I notice of late, great puffing, concerning the County Hospital.

I have been a citizen of Jacksonville for many years, and a pretty close observer of things in general.

But the rebel paper at Albany confesses that it doesn't know much about Frank P. Blair, but is satisfied that he is sound, because his name was presented at the Convention by "Preston, of Kentucky, formerly a Confederate officer,"

CAN DO IT.—The Sacramento Record, alluding to the fact that the Examiner does not hoist the name of Blair for Vice President, says: "The Examiner can eat crow, and up will go the name of Blair."

General Blair was a member of the Thirty-eighth Congress, and introduced a resolution for the expulsion of John B. Clark, a Missouri Democrat.

Seymour vetoed the bill passed by the New York Legislature, authorizing soldiers to vote. What man who served in the army can cast a vote for him?—Appeal.

The Democracy here, fired a salute for Seymour and Blair. It consisted of one fire cracker, and it probably expressed the whole amount of their enthusiasm.

The "White Man's party" must have been in a desperate state, indeed, when they elected an original negro worshiper as one of their standard-bearers.

HOT AS—THE DICKENS.—During the whole of the week the weather has been excessively warm, the thermometer ranging from 95 to 100 in the shade.

WE acknowledge the reception of a complimentary ticket, to attend the California State Fair from I. N. Hoag, Secretary, for which he has our thanks.

PERSONAL.—J. Waldo Thompson, the gentlemanly Superintendent of the Yreka Telegraph Office, is in town to-day.

NEW SIDEWALK.—Messrs. Fisher Bro., have laid down a brick sidewalk in front of their store.

The New Conflict.

From the sounding shores Atlantic, to where Pacific waves, Hear the call of battle sounding over the fields of war-made graves.

Not to wield the saber daily, now spring patriots to the right, Not to carry the colors firmly standing forth for truth and right.

Not to strike amid the flames and clouds of battle lowering, Nor spreading death across the plain, with tramping squadrons scouring;

Not to light where fire of death light up the battle plain, And crimson currents rapid flow from hoops of mangled slain.

But to wield the sword of truth—reason's battle blade, And scour the fields of argument on sanguinary raid— Support with burning words that cause for which so many bleed,

And covered Southern hills and dales with patriots' dead, Some who met on Southern fields, our boys beneath the stars, And defiant metalled forth their hosts beneath the stars and bars;

And those who sympathized with them in what they strove to do, Have suffered now in a different field to try our strength anew.

They'll place high, at the nation's head, and thus their treason crown, And scour the fields of argument on sanguinary raid— Support with burning words that cause for which so many bleed,

Some who met on Southern fields, our boys beneath the stars, And defiant metalled forth their hosts beneath the stars and bars;

And those who sympathized with them in what they strove to do, Have suffered now in a different field to try our strength anew.

FOR BETTER OR FOR WORSE.—Mr. Seymour, the strategist, when perceiving that the nomination was to fall upon him (as he intended it should from the organization of the Convention) must have felt like some made-up old lady,

HOP CULTURE.—There are 145 acres of hops in Ukiah Valley, and it is calculated there that the yield, at two years old, will be 800 lbs. to the acre,

The rebel paper at Albany confesses that it doesn't know much about Frank P. Blair, but is satisfied that he is sound, because his name was presented at the Convention by "Preston, of Kentucky, formerly a Confederate officer,"

State Items.

The Esquimaux says that considerable number of people are moving from Douglas county to Coos Bay. The house of John Kelly, situated about two miles from Roseburg, was burned on the evening of the 14th inst.

Two men named Beaty and Brown, skedaddled unceremoniously from Eugene City last week, leaving sundry debts behind them.

The Eugene Journal reports that work is to be recommenced on the military road leading across the Cascade mountains, in a short time.

Excursions to the mountains and the coast are now the "order of the day" among the Willamette valley people. The papers report large numbers going.

A telegram from Corvallis states that the Buena Vista (Polk county) flouring and saw mills were entirely destroyed by fire on Sunday morning. Particulars not known.

Rev. T. M. Martin of the Baptist Church was ordained as a minister last Sunday, at Eugene. Mr. Martin is to be pastor of the Baptist Church at that place, and will be settled there permanently.

Last week, says the Roseburg paper, a party of our townsmen started to the Bohemia District. They went prepared to build and work an arastra, and thoroughly develop and test some of the richest leads.

From the "minutes of the twentieth anniversary of the Wallamet Baptist Association, lately published, we learn that the total membership of the Church in the valley is 315. The number of churches are eight, and the number of ordained ministers are seven.

A DEMOCRATIC IDEA OF SEYMOUR.—The California Express says: The political position of Mr. S. during the war, was a peculiar one, and his actions, while Governor, showed— if there could be such a thing—that he was a sort of peace and war Democrat, at the same time; a combination of opposite extremes.

ANY business is more respectable than what is termed loafing. A young man had better sell potatoes by the pailful than hang around public resorts, muddering time and his own reputation.
