Serious Urser.-Yesterday evening Mr. Wesly Manning and Miss Sarah Belford were thrown from a buggy just opposite the Sister's Academy. The young lady was considerably in- 1867 igned about the head and face. The cause of the accident was the team becoming unmanageable in turning a coming unmanageable in turning a common turning a comm corner. The buggy was but little damaged, as the horses fortunately broke loose before dragging it.

Who can Beat it?-On the warmest day of the week, our triend Farren, of the "El Dorado" stepped into this office and drew-a pitcher of delicious Sherry Cobbler on the printers. The latter immediately drew the cobbler, and pronounced the donor the best fellow in town. If any one can beat him mixing a good drink, we beat him mixing a good drink, we would like to know it.

Look Out For Him.—On several evenings during the past week, a scalliwag has been prowling round town apparently with no good object. He visits houses where there are unprotected females, and tries to force open doors or windows. The gentleman is "spotted," and if not careful will be spotted with a charge of buck shot—something he is badly in need of.

Don't Shoot.—The public are informed that Millar's his arm on Cali.

Don't Shoot.—The public are informed that Millar's his arm on Cali.

formed that Miller's big gun on California Street won't shoot, but he has some in his shop that will out-shoot anything in the State. Mr. Miller needs no recommendation as a gunsmith, and his friends can find him located at the old shop of Henry Judge, next the U. S. Hotel.

MARKIED.-Our old friend, August Brentano, for several years a resident of Jacksonville, sends us his wedding card from Evansville, Indiana, under date of July 15th. He married young lady of that city named Mahla Kahn. August please accept our congratulations, and may your married life be as pleasant as you could desire.

SADDLERY &c .- Mr. John Miller, who recently purchased the stock and business of Henry Judge, is doing business at Mr. Judge's old stand. He has secured the services of a workman equal to any on the coast, and will do any work in the saddle or harness line at the very lowest rates. Call and see SEWING MACHINES,-Mr. Funck, the Sewing Machines.—Mr. Funck, the Agent of the Grover & Baker Machine, has just received an invoice from below.

A Chance to Draw any of the above Prizes by purchasing a Scaled Ticket for 25 cts. Tickets describing each Prize are solled in Envelopes and thoroughly mixed. They are different styles of their splendid family sewing machines, and the Agent promises to convince buyers that they are the cheapest, best, and most they are the cheapest, best, and most will be immediately sent to any address, as re-durable machine ever offered to the quested, by express or return mail.

Att. In .- Seventy Snake Indians have come in to the Reservation at Klamath Lake. It is said that they comprise the whole of that tribe who have been so troublesome. It is hoped that such is the case, as it opens an immense country for peaceful settle-Sociable.-Sargent Danlap is the most popular man in town since his fruit commenced ripening. The boys and girls had another hop at his new house on Thursday evening-said to be the gavest of the season.

HEAVY GALE. -On Wednesday last the wind blew a gale in the neighborhood of Rock Point. Many trees were blown down, a barn of Mr. Birdseye's was unroofed and several fields of corn blown flat to the ground.

PERSONAL -Mr. J. B. White, of Rock Point, returned from San Francisco on Monday. Mr. J. Waldo Thompson, Telegraph Agent at Yreka, paid Jacksonville a visit during the
