

Republican National Platform adopted at Chicago, May 21st, 1868.

1st. We congratulate the country on the successful success of the Reconstruction Policy of Congress as evidenced by the adoption in a majority of the States lately in rebellion of Constitutional amendments...

2d. The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men in the South, was demanded by every consideration of public safety, gratuity and justice and must be maintained...

3d. It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as the national faith will permit.

4th. The national debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period, and it is our duty to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can be honestly done.

5th. That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit, and to interest that we not pay and must continue to pay so long as redemption, partial or total, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.

6th. The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy. The expenditures which have been so shamefully abused and fostered by Andrew Johnson, shall be reformed.

7th. We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln, and regret the accession of Andrew Johnson to the Presidential Chair, who has not shown respect to the people who elected him and the cause he was pledged to support...

8th. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers that, when a man is once a subject he is always so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United States as a relic of feudal times not authorized by the law of nations and at war with our national honor and independence...

9th. Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war, there were none more faithful for special honor than the brave soldiers and seamen who endured hardships of camp and march and sacrificed their lives in the service of their country...

10th. The Convention declares its sympathy with all oppressed people who are struggling for their rights.

11th. Foreign immigration in the past has added so much to the wealth and increased resources of this nation, the admission of all nations that it should be fostered by a liberal and just policy.

12th. That the Convention declares its sympathy with all oppressed people who are struggling for their rights.

13th. The following additional resolutions were offered by Mr. Thompson, and adopted: Resolved, That the affirmations of this Convention shall not work dissolution of the same, but shall remain as organized, subject to be called together at any time or place that the Republican Executive Committee shall designate.

14th. Resolved, We highly commend in a spirit of magnanimity and fraternal affection all men who have served in the rebellion and who are now frankly and honestly cooperating with us in restoring peace to the country and in the reconstruction of the Southern States on a basis of universal justice and equal rights...

15th. Resolved, That we recognize the great principles laid down in the Declaration of Independence as the true foundation of Republican Government, and we will stand with all our might and power in making these principles the law of the land...

16th. Resolved, That we recognize the great principles laid down in the Declaration of Independence as the true foundation of Republican Government...

MANHOOD.—IN THE YOUNG.

and rising generation, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye, and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the—vacant scenes of the city, the powers of the body too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercises, thoughts are turned inward upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and waiting the check with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the patient's heart bleeds in anxiety, and lingers the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BEER, for Weakness arising from excess or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Watery Eyes, Dimness of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Face, Dryness of the Skin, Pain in the Back, Headaches of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more deleterious to such patients than Solitude and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves, no Respect of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another. These symptoms, if allowed to go on—when the Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatigue, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Boomingham Asylum, this said result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age. When we say that these diseases are not frequently followed by these dire diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Lunatic Asylum, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sallow and quite discolored—either Mirth or Grief over vaults it, should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With words measure was to repair. Loyalty and their great becaused." Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer you in valuable gift of chemistry or the removal of the consequences. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BEER, TRATED FINEST EXTRACT OF BEER. There is no long like it. It is an anchor of hope to the urgent and patient, and this is the testimony of those who have used or prescribed it. Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere Prepared at H. T. HELMBOLD'S Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 204 Broadway, New York.

RECOMMENDATIONS. GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. Jan. 28, 1868.

Mr. H. T. HELMBOLD: Dear Sir: Your communication requesting our terms for advertising was duly received, but from a misapprehension I had formed against advertising in your paper, it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a Drug Store my mind was changed on the character of your Beer. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. I enclose please find our rates of advertising. Yours, &c. T. B. H. STENHOUSE, Editor and Proprietor of Daily and Semi-Weekly Telegraph.

N. Y. S. VOL. INSTRUCTOR, Corner of 5th Ave. & 76th St. Central Park. (A Home and School for the Sons of Deceased Soldiers.)

Dr. H. T. HELMBOLD: Two bottles only of the package of your valuable Beer presented to the Institute have been used by the children, and with perfect success. In the case of our little Lieutenant A. J., his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily morning anathemas of the chambermaid who has charge of his bedding. I feel that a knowledge of the result of our use of your Beer with the children under our charge may save many a Superintendent and Matron of Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of annoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from weakness than from habit, may be spared punishment, that is (not knowing it as a weakness instead of a bad habit) most unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping others may be alike benefited. I am respectfully yours, COL. YOUNG, General Sup't, and Director. June 16, 1866.

L. LACOUR & CO. PACIFIC BUSINESS COLLEGE, MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE, POST STREET, Between Montgomery & Keary, SAN FRANCISCO.

The importance of a thorough and practical business training for those who contemplate entering the mercantile profession, is too well known to require much comment. Without such knowledge, the young merchant will be sure to be involved in many embarrassments which might otherwise be avoided. The youth who is not well instructed in the principles of business, will find himself surrounded by intricate difficulties, both in seeking a situation, and in the discharge of his duties after employment is obtained. To have received instruction at a mercantile college, endorsed by the leading merchants of the city, is more effective in winning the favor and confidence of a business firm, than all the letters of introduction which could be given. The youth who is not well instructed in the principles of business, will find himself surrounded by intricate difficulties, both in seeking a situation, and in the discharge of his duties after employment is obtained. To have received instruction at a mercantile college, endorsed by the leading merchants of the city, is more effective in winning the favor and confidence of a business firm, than all the letters of introduction which could be given. The importance of a thorough and practical business training for those who contemplate entering the mercantile profession, is too well known to require much comment. Without such knowledge, the young merchant will be sure to be involved in many embarrassments which might otherwise be avoided.
