

Popped Into the Wrong Bed.

A late Cincinnati paper tells the following story.

Last week an interesting event occurred at one of the hotels in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. A young lady from a neighboring town went to the city for the purpose of meeting her betrothed, getting married and going to the West to settle there. She was accompanied by her brother, who was to act as groomsman, and her lover's sister who was to be bridesmaid. The intended husband not arriving in time the young ladies arranged it that they should occupy the same bed, in a room adjoining that of the bride's brother. Having traveled all the night before, the bride and her brother being tired out, retired at an early hour with instructions to their companion, whom they left reading in the ladies' parlor, not to make a noise when she came to bed, as they did not want to be awakened out of their sleep. The young lady getting interested in her book, set up to a late hour. At last, getting drowsy, she slipped off as noiselessly as possible to her room, and quietly retired, as she supposed, to the bed occupied by her intended sister-in-law, and nestling close up along side under the blankets, was soon sound asleep. Happening to waken before her companion she put her arms around, as she supposed, the bride's neck, commenced kissing her and calling her sweet sister and other endearing names peculiar to the softer sex. In a moment her kisses were paid back with interest, and she found two stalwart arms encircling her fair form, and instead of the bride's she was in the bride's brother's arms. She had mistaken the room. Here was a dilemma, and not knowing how to explain she commenced sobbing as if her heart would break, which awakened the bride, who came to the rescue. The young man however refused to let her go, saying that fortunate accident had given him a prize and he was determined not to lose it, and on one condition only would he release the young lady from his grasp, and that was that she would put her arms around his neck and kiss him and promise to become his wife at the same time his sister became the wife of her brother. He said that he had long loved her and intended to ask her that day for her hand, and thanks to an accident, he had now a much better opportunity than he could ever hope for again. The young lady seeing no alternative finally surrendered, threw her arms around the man's neck, and sealed the bargain with a kiss, when the young man covered up his head, and she retired to his sister's room a promised bride. She enjoyed secrecy upon the brother and sister, but the thing was too good to keep. Immediately after they got dressed the groom arrived, and after getting breakfast, dispatched the landlord for a minister, who soon came and made the indissoluble knot. As soon as the minister got through the groomsman and bridesmaid astonished the company by taking the places of their brother and sister, and requested the minister to repeat the performance, which he did in less time than it takes to tell it. "What's the meaning of all this?" asked groom No. 1, who seemed to be agreeably surprised by the scene just enacted. His new made wife, now smiling all over, related to the whole company the incident of the past night. Groom No. 2 said it was all right; he did not care how many stories sister told; that he was the happiest man alive, and if his wife had shed tears that morning, they were the last she shed, unless tears of joy, if he could prevent it; and she looked up at her husband, said she would never cry again when he put his arms around her, for now he was her own darling husband. The afternoon train, instead of one, carried two happy couples to homes in the West, where we hope that year after year they will by couplets be blest.

"I see you are in black; are you in mourning for a friend?" was propounded by one friend to another, in the street, the other day. "No, I am mourning for my sin." "I never heard you lost any," was the instant and keen reply.

An Arkansas editor has been presented with a new hat, whereupon he says: "A grateful humor commenced swirling through our veins, like a young dog with an old shoe."

MANHOOD.—IN THE YOUNG and rising generation, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye, and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the everchanging scenes of the city, the powers of the body too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inward upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, for Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pains in the Neck and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another. These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendent of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomington Asylum, this mild result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Insane Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sullen and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures was Despair Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled." Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry or the removal of the consequences: HELMHOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU. There is no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and this is the testimony of those who have used or prescribed it.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere. Prepared at H. T. HELMHOLD'S Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, New York.

RECOMENDATIONS.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Jan. 28, 1868.

Mr. H. T. HELMHOLD: Dear Sir: Your communication requesting our terms for advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a Drug Store my mind was changed on the character of your Buchu. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Inclosed please find our rates of advertising. Yours, &c.

T. H. STENHOUSE, Editor and Proprietor of Daily and Semi-Weekly Telegraph.

N. Y. S. VOL. INSTITUTE, Corner of 5th Ave. & 76th St. Central Park.

(A Home and School for the Sons of Deceased Soldiers.)

Dr. H. T. HELMHOLD: Two bottles only of the package of your valuable Buchu presented to the Institute have been used by the children, and with perfect success. In the case of our little Lieutenant A. J., his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily morning anathemas of the chambermaid who has charge of his bedding. I feel that a knowledge of the result of our use of your Buchu with the children under our charge may save many a Superintendent and Matron of Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of annoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from weakness than from habit, may be spared punishment, that is (not knowing it as a weakness instead of a bad habit) most unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping others may be alike benefited.

I am respectfully yours, COL. YOUNG, General Supt. and Director. June 16, 1866.

FRENCH MEDICAL OFFICE.

DR. JULIAN PENNAULT, Doctor of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris, Graduate of the University Queen's College, and Physician of the St. John Baptist Society of San Francisco.

DR. PENNAULT has the pleasure to inform patients and others seeking confidential medical advice, that he can be consulted daily at his office, Armory Hall Building, Northeast corner Montgomery and Sacramento streets, San Francisco. Rooms No. 9, 10, 11, first floor, up stairs, entrance on either Montgomery or Sacramento streets.

DR. PENNAULT'S studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the results of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanent failure of the reproductive organs of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruit tasted long afterward; patients, laboring under this complaint, will complain of one or more of the following symptoms: Nocturnal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Urethra on going to stool or making water, the Intellectual Faculties are Weakened, Loss of Memory ensues, Ideas are Obscured, and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even to reading, writing, or society of friends, etc. The patient will probably complain of Dizziness, Vertigo, and that the Sight and Hearing are Weakened and sleep disturbed by dreams, melancholy, sighing, palpitations, faintings, coughs and slow fever; while some have external rheumatic pain, and numbness of the body. Some of the most common symptoms are pimples in the face, and itching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease should apply immediately to DR. PENNAULT either in person or by letter, and he will guarantee a cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotence in six to eight weeks.

Patients suffering from venereal disease in any stage, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Buboes, Ulcers, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., will be treated successfully. All Syphilitic and Mercurial Taints entirely removed from the system.

DR. PENNAULT'S diplomas are in his office where patients can see for themselves that they are under the care of a regular educated practitioner. The best references given if required.

Patients suffering under chronic disease, can call and examine for themselves. We limit investigation; claim not to know everything, but to cure everybody, but we do claim that in all cases taken under treatment we fulfill our promise. We particularly request those who have tried this boasted doctor, and that other tried physician, till worn out and discouraged to call upon us.

Low charges and quick cures. Ladies suffering from any complaint incident to their sex, can consult the doctor with the assurance of relief.

FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS. DR. PENNAULT is the only agent in California for DR. HORN'S Female Monthly Pills. Their success has established their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other remedy for suppression and irregularity, and other obstructions in females. On receipt of five dollars, one fifth will be sent by mail or express to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to DR. PENNAULT, corner of Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 57, P. O., San Francisco, stating the case minutely as possible, general habits of living, occupation, etc., etc. May 2d, 1868. m2-ly.

PACIFIC BUSINESS COLLEGE,

MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE, POST STREET, Between Montgomery & Kearny, SAN FRANCISCO.

The importance of a thorough and practical business training for those who contemplate entering the mercantile profession, is too well known to require much comment. Without such knowledge, the young merchant will become involved in many embarrassments which might otherwise be avoided. The youthful aspirant will find himself surrounded by insuperable difficulties, both in seeking a situation, and in the discharge of its duties after employment is obtained. To have received instruction at a mercantile college, endorsed by the leading merchants of the city, is more effective in winning the favor and confidence of a business firm, than all the letters of introduction which friends can give. The PACIFIC BUSINESS COLLEGE maintains a reputation for thoroughness and systematic training, far surpassing that of any other similar institution on the Pacific coast. Most of the leading mercantile firms of this city have employed graduates from this College, and bear testimony to the practical efficiency of the course here prescribed. The system of actual practice embraces all the varied operations of real business. A LADIES' DEPARTMENT has recently been added to this popular institution. This spirit of enterprise cannot fail to draw forth the well-wishes of the public.
