

What are Our Farmers Doing to Meet Hard Times?

This is a pertinent enquiry, although it may be considered none of our business. On all sides we see long faces...

No Danger of Competition

A few days since, we heard a Democrat denouncing Chinamen, in unmeasured terms, for the reason, as he alleged, that they were crowding out working men...

SURGICAL OPERATION AT CANYONVILLE.—Mr. Whitteley, the obliging telegraph Agent at Canyonville, sends us the following: J. C. Cline, who a few years ago, taught school in Jackson and Josephine counties and has since been teaching here, has been afflicted for the past three months with tuberculosis of the ankle joint.

W. W. Chapman winds up an article Governor Woods' veto of the "Chinese bill" with the following important announcement:

W. W. will wake morning and question his dispute the fact that Oregon, or constitutionally used Miller has the South Carolina, as Postmaster at Columbia

A Constitutional Democrat Solving the Labor Problem.

The following is related by the correspondent of a Salem paper, who recently visited Portland:

"A worthy and influential citizen of Portland had a large stock of cord-wood lying in close proximity to his woodshed. Drovers and sundry persons who 'work for a living,' had their hungry eyes upon the 'job' of sawing and splitting said wood.

There, now, is a specimen of true Caucasian genius. That fellow has found the philosopher's stone and instead of commencing the Chinese his advantage, raised himself, at once, from the ignominious position of a competitor, to the dignity of a taskmaster.

IGNORANT.—A prominent farmer of this State, in a recent letter to us, uses the following language: "When I see such articles as have been lately published in the Herald, the Sentinel, and the Albany Democrat, designed to crush out every attempt to benefit the State and to elevate labor, I become thoroughly disgusted with politics."

Oregon Traders were greatly rejoiced, lately, by the appearance of a man who bought liberally of their goods and paid cash. Their joy was afterward turned into grief when it appeared that he had only purchased articles requiring U. S. Revenue stamps, but which were not provided with them.

The Oregonians were a little deceived. They thought the fellow a millionaire but found he was only a California sneek. He procured indictments, it is said; but his share of the penalty was only rotten eggs and omelette, of which there is plenty left.

ROBBERY AT OAKLAND.—About nine P. M. on the 19th inst. the Office of Wells, Fargo & Co. at Oakland was entered and $633.00 in coin taken from a drawer. The robber tried to break open the express box, which contained about $800.00, but the attempt was unsuccessful.

The Appointments for Oregon

In speaking of the senatorial recommendations for office in this State, the Oregonian remarks that all should be satisfied to know that good republicans are to be appointed. That is very true and when we are perfectly satisfied that none but good republicans are to be placed in positions of trust, we will cheerfully accept the word, good, not to express the fervor, or zeal of any individual member of our party; but in reference to the earnestness and honesty of his political principles.

THE WOMEN'S PARTY.—We have received the three first copies of the 'E-Dues' to a paper published in San Francisco, by and in the interest of Women. It does not advocate suffrage for women, nor does it claim the right of suffrage as a desirable privilege.

PORTLAND LIBRARY.—The report of Hon. M. P. Deady, President of this institution, shows it to be in a flourishing condition. It now contains about 2,500 volumes, comprising many valuable theological, scientific, political, historical, biographical, poetical and miscellaneous works together with a large number of Standard novels.

PERSONAL.—The many friends of Dr. E. S. Boden, late Post Surgeon at Fort Klamath, will be glad to learn that he is having a successful practice at Marysville, Cal. He has operated successfully for club, and double club foot, and is visiting physician at the Catholic school of Notre Dame.

MR. ABRAMS.—We learn that this gentleman, who was so unfortunate as to lose his leg by the upsetting of the 'Coke' north of Canyonville last August is now getting much better. His case has baffled the physicians completely so far, but it seems that Dr. Sharpless of Corvallis has succeeded in allaying the twitching in the stump of the leg by the use of chloroform and the patient is now improving rapidly.

It is proposed to remove at least three fourths of the Indian Agents and appointed Quakers. This is probably suggested by the eminent success of Wm. Penn with the red skins, but it is safe to say that the Indians are more vicious now than their ancestors were and likely to outwit the "peaceful people."

Board of Trustees

March 26th. The Board of Trustees met at 7 1/2 P. M. according to adjournment. Present, Alex. Martin, President, O. Jacobs, D. Linn and John Orth. Absent, Jas. R. Neil.

Ordinance, prescribing certain duties to the Treasurer, was passed. Ordinance, making it a penalty, for any person, to rent any building where by disinfected, and certified to by a physician.

Ordinance, further regulating and refining the duties of the Street Commissioner, ordering the roads outside of town, within his jurisdiction, to be put in good repair and forbidding for their work on the Street of the town without the order of the board.

Resolved, That the thanks of this board and the people of this town are due, and are hereby tendered to the Sanitary Committee for the able and satisfactory manner in which said Committee has discharged its many, onerous and arduous duties; and the resignation of the Sanitary Committee, was accepted.

Mr. Jacobs made application for L. T. Davis for title deed to his premises. The application was referred to the Finance Committee.

Board adjourned to April 5th.

The Appointment of Mr Jacobs

It is with pleasure that we announce the selection of our fellow towneman, Hon. O. Jacobs, for the distinguished position of Chief Justice of Washington Territory. There is a feeling of satisfaction, not only among Mr. Jacobs's friends, but among his political opponents for they know he is deserving of the place and will fill it worthily.

Tax GORE GAIN PLOW.—We mention, in our last issue, of the Gore Plow, which the inventor had in town on exhibition at that time. Our space will not admit a detailed description of this novel plow; we therefore content ourselves by giving a few of the more important points in its working.

MILITARY.—We find the following among the military orders published in the Sac. Union. The substitution of an Infantry for a Cavalry Company will seriously affect our grain market but if the Indians are subdued and there is no use for a Cavalry Company at that point, we have no right to complain.

WHITE PINKERS.—We noticed a party of travellers making their way Southward this week. They were travelling with mules and bonded to White Pine "to make their eternal fortunes."

A Majority of the Senators are opposed to the repeal of the "Tenure of Office Act" but are in favor of its modification. The bill to repeal it has been re-committed to the Judiciary Committee.

Senator Corbett on Chinese Suffrage

The fifteenth article of the constitutional amendment being under discussion on the 6th February, 1869, Mr. Corbett proposed an amendment, which is to add to the first section of the proposed article:

But Chinamen not born in the United States and Indians not taxed shall not be deemed or made citizens.

In the Course of his speech Mr. Corbett said: Sir, the giving of the right of suffrage to the colored people in the Southern States, who are a different race entirely from the Acajias who are now flocking to the shores of the Pacific, was right.

But now the question arises how far to the Chinese, they are a pagan nation. They worship their god "Jash," a god made of wood. We have the experience of the past ages of those nations who worshiped gods of gold, gods of wood, and gods of stone.

It may be prudent for us to consider at this time whether we shall establish in this country an Asiatic people who are pagans, who are not Christians. With the experience of the past few years on the Pacific coast we have found that this class of people are not beneficial to the advancement of this Christian civilization that lie at the foundation of our Government.

This question reaches beyond the common rights of man under a Christian nation such as was founded upon Plymouth Rock. It reaches the very foundation of our Christian institutions. Allow Chinese suffrage, and you may soon find established pagan institutions in our midst which may eventually suppress these Christian institutions which have so long been the pillar of our country.

Sir, during the eighteen years I have resided upon the Pacific coast, thousands of religion, Sabbath schools, common schools, and all those institutions which constituted the purity of a society and the good order of the State have been objects of solicitude and care, and I for one, must object to granting the right of suffrage to a class of people which embraces a nation composed of perhaps four or six hundred million persons who can come to our shores and supersede us in the establishment of institutions of their own which may be detrimental to us, and finally overthrow our cherished system.

As I said before, these nations that have worshiped heathen gods have been overthrown and superseded by Christian nations, and I think it is very fair to presume that the overriding providence of God may curse us in the same way, and that we may eventually be overthrown by that class of people who come to our Pacific shores if we do not guard the priceless legacy which has been intrusted to us.

Notice to Holders of County Orders. Persons holding the following described county orders are hereby notified to present the same for red orders. No 124, 11, 86 143, 61, 62 presented March 18th 1869. Change at the Klamath Agency.

We learn by telegraph that Mr. J. E. Gazley is to succeed Mr. Lindsay Applegate as Sub. Indian Agent at the Klamath Reservation. We presume the change is made in consideration of Mr. Gazley's services and in pursuance of the political rule known as "rotation in office." Certainly no person can impeach Mr. Applegate's honesty, his zeal and benevolence in behalf of the Indians. He will retire from the office without having plundered the treasury of a dollar and in his retirement the Indians will lose a friend in whom they had all confidence. They would have preferred to have Mr. Applegate remain; but if he wishes removed to make room, we know of no person more deserving of the position than Mr. Gazley and doubt doubt that he will make an efficient officer.
