

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 10, 1866.

A Poetical Excuse.

"My dear, what makes you always fawn?"
The wife exclaimed, her temper gone,
"Is home so dull and dreary?"
"Not so, my love," he said, "not so;
"But man and wife are one, you know,
And when alone I'm weary!"

MADE A MISTAKE.—It will be remembered that some years ago a drove of camels were brought across the plains to Lower California, for the purpose of testing their usefulness and profit in the packing business on this Coast. They were afterwards sent to Nevada, and finally on an expedition to Montana. The owner loaded them with merchandise to Helena, arrived safely, discharged his freight and turned the camels out to browse in the thicket near by, when a Missouri hunter, who had been out with his gun, looking for game, espied the ungainly brutes; examining his priming carefully, he stealthily approached the herd, and when near enough, blazed away and brought one of the animals down. The owner, who was close by, seeing his animal fall rushed furiously up to the shooter and demanded to know what in hell he was doing. "Keep still, keep still," says Pike, "don't you see that gang of moose, there? I've killed one, and if you only dry up your infernal noise, I'll fix the whole d—d lot!" The owner fainted.—Oregon Avalanche.

SURVEYING PARTY.—Two parties of surveyors have left this place during the week on contracts east of the mountains. One party, Messrs. D. P. Thompson, B. J. Pengra, and John B. David, go to the John Day River country on a contract of $20,000. The other party, Messrs. H. F. Stratton and Wm. Pengra, are to survey the country lying between the Klamath Marsh and Goose Lake. The appropriation for this State for this year amounted to about $40,000, half of which will go to the first named party, and the remainder will be about equally divided between the last named party and J. H. McClung who has been in the field for some time. It has been expected that the lands on the McKenzie river would be surveyed this season, but it is not likely now that this will be done, as the appropriation will probably not be sufficient.—State Journal.

MANHOOD.—IN THE YOUNG

and rising generation, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid line, the lack-lustre eye, and emaciated form, the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body too much englobed to give rest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inward upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the check with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BEVUE, for Weakness arising from excess or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Langor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hat Head, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatality, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire. During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by these direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lyatic Asylum the most melancholy exhibition appears. The maintenance is actually sudden and quite different from the usual course of the disease.

What a fearful measure with Helmholt's Extract Bevues! Would we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to give a valuable gift of chemistry or the removal of the consequences: Helmholt's Healthy Cholesterol Fluid Extract or Bevues. These are no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and this is the testimony of those who have used or prescribed it.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

Jan. 28, 1868.

Me. H. T. HELMHOLD:

Dear Sir:

Your communication requesting our terms for advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a Drug Store my mind was changed on the character of your Bevues. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Included please find our rates of advertising.

Yours, &c.

Editor and Proprietor of Daily and Semi-Weekly Telegraph.

N. Y. S. VOL. INSTITUTE,

Central Park.

(A Home and School for the Sons of Deceased Soldiers.)

Dr. H. T. HELMHOLD:

Two bottles only of the package of your valuable Bevues presented to the Institute have been used by the children, and with perfect success. In the case of our little Lieutenant A. J., his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily morning anathemas of the chambermaid who has charge of his bedding. I feel that a knowledge of the result of our use of your Bevues with the children under our charge may save many a Superintendent and Matron of Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of annoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from weakness than from habit, may be spared punishment that is (not knowing it as a weakness) instead of a bad habit) most unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping yours may be alike benefited.

I am respectfully yours,

COL. YOUNG,

General Sup't. and Director.
