GRAND ENTERTAINMENT.-On Monday night (26th inst.) the Daniels Troupe propose to give our citizens a splendid entertainment called "A Trip round the world." The performance consists of a sereis of panoramic views among which is one of Montgomery street in San Francisco, songs and comedy. Mrs. Daniels is said to be an actress of much merit and a charming vocalist, and the company come highly recommended by the California press. It will no doubt be a treat such as is not ofter enjoyed here.

MARRIED. -- Our old friend Mr. Abraham Tenbrook, has come from Goose Lake and carried off the finest prize in this county, in the shape of Mrs Phettiplace, of Sam's Valley. "And behold! those who walk in my way; the rightteous man and virtuous woman shall find rest in Abraham's bosom!" It is the universal opinion that both have prosperity be their portion.

ACCIDENT IN JOSEPHINE COUNTY .--We learn that on Monday last a miner at Waldo, named Patty, had his right leg badly broken by being entangled in the hoisting works of his mine. The injured limb was attended to by Dr. Greenman of this place, and at last accounts the sufferer was doing well.

COCKLE BURE. - Mr. Fehely, Street Commissioner, gives notice that this noxious weed must be removed from all premises forthwith. All persons on whose premises it may be found growing will find it the cheapest way to destroy it themselves.

FIRE IS THE MOUSTAINS .- A very large fire is now raging in the mountains west of Ashland, and also in the woods on Applegate Creek. It we do not have rain very soon much damage will be done.

Day Trues .- We hear that the long continued drought is drying up many wells in this valley so that they have to be despensed. We believe that the Morment with Esten Jewels.
