Religious Motices.

EPISCOPAL SERVICES .- Rev. Thomas Selwood will perform the services of the Episcopal Church here on Sunday Aug. 15th, at the Court House. It is expected that he will also preach at Ashland during his stay.

Services to morrow at the Catholic Church by Rev. Father Blanchet, at the usual hour.

ANOTHER MURDER - Yesterday Afern oon a man named John Adney was shot by James Brown, about four miles south of here, under the following ciscumstances. It seems that Adney was chopping wood in the hills near Brown's ranch and the latter was jealous of him. Yesterday after dinner he told his wife that he would kill Adney, taking down his rifle as he spoke. She paid no attention to him thinking that he had no ammunition, but soon after, he returned, stating that he had killed Adney and was about to leave. The stores, warranted durable and perfect. woman immediately give the alarm, but the wounded man had been cared for by Mr. Ritter, the deed having been committed within a few hundred yards of his place. Adney stated that Brown was lying in the brush and he did not sce him till the shot was fired. The hall entered just above the left hip, pasing through the body and one arm, eausing, it is supposed, a mortal wound. Sheriff Reames and Deputy Owen immediately started in pursuit of the SUNDAY SCHOOL LIBRARY .- The Sunday School in this place is much in need of an additition to its library. A slight donation is very desirable and it strikes us that if we would all save the dellar that some of the travelling shows cost us and apply it to the library we would be doing an act that would delight the children and keep our Mini ge at home.

FOURRAL TAX. - Assistant Assessor Whittelsey is in town looking up delinquent tax payers. He says he is adding largely to the tax list, and those liable to pay Federal tax may expect presecution on fadure to conform to the law From the way he starts on, Mr. W. is going to make an efficient and energetic officer.

SOMETHING STRATGE .-- It looks fun ny to see people patronizing every travelling show that comes along, whose impecunious condition is well known. They can always find a dollar for such a purpose but if asked to return a small loan or pay a little store bill they are sure to be broke -ain't it strange ?

THE ECLIPSE.-This extraordinary performance by the sun and moon came off on Saturday as per programme. It was a grand success and the number of people looking "through a glass darkly" was many.

NEW PAPER.-A new paper (weekly) called the Portland Letter Sheet and Oregon News Hudget has made its appearance. It its life is as long as its name it will do well.

This office is under great obligations to Mr. J. A. Satterfield for a more than liberal supply of watermellons. They were the finest ever raised in the
