Religious Motices.

Father Blanchet will hold divine services at the Catholic Church to-morrow at the usual hour.

CAMP MEETING .- A Camp Meeting will be held at Heber's Grove, to comnence Friday, August the 27th. All re invited to attend. There will be boarding tent on the ground.

More Fire. - On monday last some hiscreant set fire to the timber on Humbug Creek, a tributary of Applegate, and in a very few hours it had swept to the head of the creek, destroylog sil the grass in an excellent range. Several hundred cattle were wintered there last winter and it is a shame that reckless individual, should wantonly destroy pasturage and escape without panishment.

THE ASHLAND FACTOY. - We are glad to see that the Woolen Mills, under the able management of Capt. McCall and Mr. John Daley is a suc-Ashland. It people would consuit their own interest they would consume their own interest they would consume the other woolen goods, and thus keep 24.48882LS as other woolen goods, and thus keep their money in circulation at home.

SUPERME COURT.-Mr. Dowell and Mr. C. W. Kahler will leave for Salem on Friday next to attend to busines. in the Supreme Court which meets on the 6th of September. The cases from this county are J. B. Pool vs. Wm. Buffem executor of J. R. Pool; Suit to set aside will. P. F. McManus vs. Owen and Papan; suit in equity to quiet title. They will probably be absent about two weeks.

NEWS FROM LINK RIVER. - The new bridge of George Nurses' is completed and ready for travel. He has also opened a good stock of merchandise at that point which he offers at the lowest rates. His bridge is at the most convenient point to accomodate the Goose carb bille! Lake and Big valley travel and wil be well patronized.

ROAD STRVEYED -County Surveyor Howard has just completed the Survey of the road from this place to the line of Josephine county. He makes the distance to Herling's 3 miles; to Logtown 5 miles; to Ray's 81 miles: A GOOD BOOK FOR AGENTS! to Benedict's 14 miles, and the whole distance from here to the line 19 miles and 36 rods.

MANY YELLOW JACKETS. - These in sects are a perfect pest here, this Summer. We noticed an apple tree in Mr. Cardwell's orchard a tew days ago that had been entirely stripped of its fruit by them and it is impossible to dry plums or peaches, as they are eaten up as fast as put out.

MISHAP. - On Monday evening a "son of Mars" was driving out with a young lady and when near the Eagle Mills a general spilling took place. The buggy was damaged considerably but no bones were broken.

EPISCOPAL .- Mr. Selwood and his la dy started home to Oregon City on Monday. He preached two very effective and beautiful sermons on Sunday last and we have no doubt but his permanent ministration here would have a very beneficial effect.

Cincus.-Dont forget that on next Saturday (4th Sept.) the biggest Circus that ever came here, will be along. They advertise new and wonderful attractions.

PERSONAL -- Mr. E. B. Watson is at present enjoying the sea breeze at Empire City, and having a good time gen-
