REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For Representative,

JOSEPH G. WILSON,
of Wasco County,

For Presidential Electors,

W. D. HARE,
of Washington County.

A. B. MEACHAM, of Umatilla County.

J. F. GAZELY, of Douglas County.

County Politics.

Every two years this county is ablaze with political excitement. It so happens that there are several lucrative offices in it, and usually there are twenty or more aspirants for every office. This year the places in the Legislature—places that legitimately pay board and expenses only, are eagerly sought for. Two years ago the Democratic delegation from this County, returned in ill humor with each other over the unfair division of bribes that they charged each other with receiving, and the consequence is that a large number of Democrats have expected to become suddenly rich at the expense of the people of Jackson county. For two months or more, men have been hurrying over the county, backbiting each other, lying, practicing fraud and denouncing in unmeasured terms, every one that stood in their way. The terrible danger consequent on Republican ascendency in this county, has been the principal stock in trade of these political peddlers. Many of them, whose characters would be affected by slander about as much as the bars of Hell's furnace would by a lucifer match, have been particularly busy in denouncing Republicans as thieves and murderers, who were only waiting for an opportunity to commence the work of spoliation on Democrats. Their own motives and their own purposes have been thus disguised, and if they are successful, the next meeting of the Legislature will discover that the people of this county have not only been badly sold—but that the price has come out of their own pockets.

It is a question how long the people will submit to political humbuggery and political charlatans. Men who boast that they are free and independent American citizens, and who would resent any imputation on their manhood, allow themselves to be whipped like curs into the channel of party discipline, and, when, there become beasts of burden for the political beggars who only want an opportunity to dip their hands in the public pocket. The people themselves are the source of all power, and it is time that they asserted their independence. Let the people of this County remember how they were "sold out" by their members in the last Legislature, and reflect whether it would not be wiser to send honest men to represent them, who are not for sale, and who instead of filling their own pockets at the expense of our best interests, will work fearlessly for the general good.

The following is from the Yreka Journal, is just about the truth, and the nomination of a straight up Democrat, and the withdrawal of Greeley is the sure result of the Cincinnati convention.

The San Francisco Examiner. is in favor of a straight out Democratic nomination for President, and feels sanguine of the division in the Republican ranks being sufficent to enable the Democracy to win. The trouble is Greeley expects the Democratic support or else he draws out. If Democats do not rally to Greeley, of course Greeley's men will go for the Democracy, don't you Those Cincinnati soreheads will vote for a Democrat anyhow, in preference to Grant, so where's the difference whether Greeley or a Democrat runs. Besides the Democrats don't like to trust Greeley, because privately and instinctively he loves the Democracy about as well as the Devil does Holy Water.

The New York Times thinks that if Mr. Greely were not so forgetful of his past utterances, he might take warning from what he himself said of the invincibility of Gen. Grant during the Presidential canvass in 1868: We are led," remarked Mr Greely, "by him who first taught our armies to conquer in the West, and subsequently in the East, also. Richmond would not come to us until we sent Grant after it, and then it had to come. [Cheers.] He has never yet been defeated, and he never will be. He will be as great and successful on the field of politics as on that of arms.

The Republican Convention.

While disavowing any intention of being obtrusive, we hope the convention that is to meet here to-day will accept a few earnest suggestions in the proper spirit. A Legislative and County ticket is to be placed in nomination and while having no preference for any individual for a single place, we respectfully ask the convention to select without reference to locality or expediency. A bad man under the name of a Republican is the same as a bad man under the name of a Democrat, and every candidate should be able to stand the severest test with regard to qualification, and integrity. It seems especially important that the Legislative ticket should be composed of superior men. It is not sufficient that they are zealous Republicans, but they should be men identified with the interests of this county, who will represent the people honestly, and intelligently. They should be above suspicion, their hands closed against bribes and who will not re enact the shameful practices of the last memorable delegation from this county. There are such men in our party, who wear no man's collar, and cannot be made tools of, and we earnestly trust that only such men will be selected. It may be that the people of this county will perceive, before election, that there are matters to come before the next Legislature, of vastly greater importance to Jackson county, than the election of a Senator, and it is in the power of the Republican Convention to form a Legislative ticket that will command the confidence and respect of the people. If the ticket is defeated and the interests of the county sacrificed to the greed of a few political cormorants, then it will be the fault of the people, and not of the convention. We hope that delegates will reflect earnestly before acting, and make good and judicious selections for the whole ticket.

The Democratic Ticket.

The action of the Democratic Convention held here on Thursday, in presenting the ticket that it did is somewhat surprising, and yet it should not astonish anyone. One wing of that party, completely under the control of a few selfish and unscrupulous men, was in the majority, and its leaders cared very little who were on the County Ticket so that they had complete control of the Legislative nominations. It is needless to say that the ticket has given much dissatisfaction; indeed, it is openly scouted at and reveled by democrats. Without partisan prejudice or personal feeling we pronounce this ticket an outrage on the people of Jackson county, and the worst and the weakest ticket that has ever been placed in nomination since the first organization of the county, and whether it be elected or not we predict that it will receive a less number of votes than any democratic ticket has received here for many years. The fact cannot be disguised that some of the nominees are utterly unfit for the places they are called to fill, and there are very grave suspicions that some of the others are not any too scrupulous or honest for their places. An effort will be made, no doubt, to drive the democracy of this county into the support of this ticket on the plea of the absolute necessity of electing a United States Senator, but very many of the democracy seem to regard that result very dearly purchased by the sacrifice of the vital interests of this county. Many of the Conservative democrats regard the nomination of this shobby ticket as a joke, but it is certainly a very serious one. Republicans regret it as their opponents are largely in the majority, and they hoped that the best material among the democracy would have been taken to compose the ticket. Perhaps the joke has been carried too far, and it is quite possible that a majority of the citizens of Jackson county will refuse to wear the collar of the dominant clique, or place a ticket in power that is repugnant to their good sense and antagonistic to their interest.

ALARMED.—We learn that J. W. Nesmith has been dispatched by the Democracy, to follow Attorney General Williams through the State. This shows a state of alarm, as there is no speaker in Oregon so well calculated to convince the people of the shameless effrontery and damning infamy of the rotten organization, calling itself Democracy, as the honest and earnest Attorney General. It is a struggle between the people on one side and a few unscrupulous demagogues who cover their selfish motives with the mantle of Democracy, and may the people win.

MORE POPULATION.—We notice that Miss Lizzie, daughter of our Townsman E. C. Brooks, has arrived from the East. She is a musical proficient, and we believe intends engaging in music teaching. Welcome.

Violating the Constitution.

As our democratic friends are always preferring such unbounded administration for the Constitution, we propose to show in what manner they observe it. Article XIII, Section I of the Constitution of Oregon reads as follows:

"SEC. I. The govenor shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars. The secretary of state shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars. The treasurer of state shall receive an annual salary of eight hundred dollars. The judges of the supreme court shall each receive an annual salary of two thousand dollars. They shall receive no fees or perquisites whatever for the performance of any duties connected with their respective offices; and the compensation of offices, if not fixed by this constitution, shall be provided by law."

Here is a clear and unmistakable provision in the supreme law of this State, forbidding the Treasurer or Secretary of State from receiving "any fees or perquisites whatever," for the performance of any duties connected with their respective offices. Now comes the last legislature of Oregon and in the law regulating Foreign Insurance Companies and Express Companies enacts as follows:

"SEC. 6. The fees of the Secretary of State for carrying out such portions of this Act as pertain to the duties of his office shall be as follows:

For recording each certificate of deposit and issuing such certificate to depositors, twenty-five dollars;

For issuing license to life insurance agents or solicitors, annually, ten dollars;

For commission on the sale of stamps, as provided in section four of this Act, five per cent. of the amount so sold.

SEC. 10. A corporation or company offiering to file a certificate of deposit with the State Treasurer, shall pay such Treasurer a fee of ten dollars therefor."

We would like to know what warrant the last legislature, a body that will be ever noted for its jobbery, its corruption, its bribery, and general worthlesness, had to make any such enactments and legislate money from the people into the pockets of public servants, in plain violation of an emphatic declaration of the Constitution. These officers had been duly elected with a fair understanding what their compensation would be. They, in taking the fees allowed them by the Legislature are violating their oaths to obey and observe that constitution and doing just what it forbids. It is unlawful for them to pocket a fee of any kind, and is a species of legal robbery, questionable even in a moral sense. It may be plead that Republican officials have done the same thing, but the plea will not save those who are always protessing reverence for the supreme law. We would like to hear the veiws of the democratic press in this State with regard to this matter; every Democratic editor is a "constitutional lawyer," and of course they can all throw light on the subject.

Gagging Free Speech.

Since Attorney General Williams arrived in Oregon, the democratic press has set up a perfect howl of indignation. They aver that Mr. Williams is the servant of the People and has no right to absent himself from his official duties. Very well, gentlemen, what then is the Governor of this State doing? the very same thing, and yet we hear no word of condemnation from a single Democratic or even Republican paper. There is a difference however. Mr. Williams asks for no place, he is not working in his own behalf but in that of the people of this State; while it is well known and conceded that Mr. Grover is a senatorial aspirant and is neglecting his official duties in the advancement of his own personal interest. We yield the right of Gov. Grover to do this, and we claim the right of Attorney General Williams to do likewise. Mr. Williams is an honored and prominent citizen of Oregon, always faithful to his trust, and it is improbable that, while his official business is in competent keeping, the public interest will suffer. He has a right to come here. He has a right to speak here, and in pursuance of a feeling of deep interest in the welfare of Oregon and a sense of duty, has come for that purpose. We want no man gagged. We claim the right of free speech on matters of public interest, and our Democratic friends must have a bad cause indeed, if it will not bear fair and temperate criticism.

WITH THE OLD STANDARD

HARVESTING MACHINES

So popular with all California farmers, with all the Latest Improvements, and many ones for the Harvest of 72.

The Wood's Prize Mowers

and Wood's Improved Self-Rake Reapers,

These machines are indisputably

The best in the World

As a Harvester, the Wood's Improved Prize Mower is confessedly without an equal yet before the country. These machines have been improved since first introduced, until they are now almost entirely a new machine. They are made by Walter A. Wood (the largest manufacturer of Farming Machinery in the world),—a man who keeps "up with the times," and who now builds and sells over twenty-five thousand of the World's Prize Mowers annually. It led the world at the Paris Exposition, and has found no peer since.—

The World's Improved Prize Mower. is especially adapted to California. It has a folding (or jointed) bar with hand leaver, two wheels, spring seat, and is made almost entirely of malleable iron, hard wood and steel. It is heavy, strong and durable, and though compact and powerful, is of lighter draft than other machines of equal weight. It is every way just the Mower for California, as every farmer will say who has one. And its price ($110,) is from $25 to $40 less than is asked for an inferior machine. Farmers will you pay that difference? Investigate before you buy, and see if you are getting anything for that extra profit—for it is profit, as no Mower costs more to build than Wood's. Send for a phamphlet before buying.

"Buy the Best."

We offer also the

Headers, from 10 to 15 feet cut, improved by Walter A. Wood, having not only all the advantages of the old Illinois machine, but Wood's improvements, and also DOANE'S ADJUSTABLE REEL.
