

For President in 1872, ULYSSES S. GRANT.

For Vice President, HENRY WILSON.

For Presidential Electors, W. D. HARE, of Washington County. A. B. MEACHAM, of Umatilla County. J. F. GAZELY, of Douglas County.

"I would sum up the policy of the Administration to be a thorough enforcement of every law; a faithful collection of every tax provided for; economy in the disbursement of the same; a prompt payment of every debt of nation; a reduction of taxes as rapidly as the requirements of the country will admit; reductions of taxation and tariff, to be so arranged as to afford the greatest relief to the greatest number; honest and fair dealings with all other people, to the end that war with all its blighting consequences may be avoided, but without surrendering any right or obligation due to us; a reform in the treatment of Indians, and in the whole civil service of the country; and finally in securing a pure, untrammelled ballot, where every man entitled to cast vote a may do so, just once, at each election without fear of molestation, or prosecution on account of his political faith, nativity, or color."—U. S. Grant.

Honest Democrats.

Out of the 724 delegates to the Baltimore Convention, there were but 38 that claimed any pretension to having honest convictions of the truthfulness of Democratic principles. All the rest scouted the idea, and voted for a radical Republican upon a Republican platform.

Out of all the Democratic journals in the country, there is about one in fifty that stick to what has been called Democratic principles. The others have gone over, and are fast going over to Greeley. Those that talked the loudest about the "old democratic principles of our party," are the first to desert them and jump over to old Chappaqua, the farmer.

This looks like a snake creeping out of his skin. This is secession within secession,—a wheel within a wheel,—Democrats receding from Democracy. Good for you, old Democratic Party; you sympathized with traitors, and now you are being paid back in your own coin. This treacherous action of the Democrats to their old party reminds us of the fate of the wealthy father, who taught his son to be so selfish and penurious that he swindled the old gentleman out of his rich estate, and rudely turned him out upon the cold charities of the world.

Janus-Faced.

The Chappaqua gardener is telling the people that he is a farmer. He is doing this upon the principle that it is policy to be all things unto all men. If he was in Rome he would be a Roman. You can't play that old man; if we want a farmer in the Presidential chair, we will put one of our first-class western farmers in that has a farm of some magnitude; we will not take a Chappaqua gardener. We don't want to feed on a patch of onions for the next four years.

Why don't you be honest about it and tell the people that you are nothing but a Chappaqua gardener, and a poor one at that, Horace, and not make yourself appear ridiculous by trying to blow a little garden into a farm.

The Reason Why.

The Eugene City Guard, in speaking of the Baltimore Convention, says: "If success was the object of the Convention, and we can account for its strange action on no other basis, why did they not make assurance doubly sure and nominate Grant?"

Because you could not get him from the Republicans. We knew you wanted him as bad as Jack did his supper, but didn't nominate him for the same reason that Jack didn't eat his supper. Greeley is good enough for beggars.

Efficient Mail Service.

A short time since it was reported that the Oregon and California Stage Company had offered to decrease the time between the termini of the Railroads to sixty hours, if the Postmaster General would increase the compensation sixty thousand dollars per annum. We presume the offer was accepted, as the company are carrying out their promise and conveying mails and passengers from Portland to San Francisco,—a distance of seven hundred miles,—in the unprecedented time of three and a half days. Expedition is everything to business men, and the additional compensation is trifling in comparison with the benefits derived from this very desirable and necessary change in time. We believe that the efficient service now being performed on this important route, is due to the energy of Col. Hooker, the Superintendent of the O. & C. Stage Co., and he seems determined to show the public that he intends to continue it, even at a heavy expense to the Company. The public are certainly under obligations to the Postmaster General for his prompt acceptance of the offer, and the increased travel shows that the new arrangement is appreciated by it.

The Anti-Grant Movement.

The most degraded element of the South, the scum of the North, the office seekers, the repudiators, the copperheads in the days of the rebellion, the disorganizers, the fault-finders, the moral jackals, who prey on graveyards and feed fat on slander, falsehood and corruption, are received with open arms into the bosom of the Greeley party, that has but one motto on its banners: "Anything to beat Grant." Begone ye pests and festering sores that ever lurk in the rear of civilization! You are but the virus that has been thrown off from the body politic. The honest millions have met the same crowd before, and will meet them again in November next with duplicated victory. The grand old party of freedom, whose banners are unstained, whose ranks are filled with honest patriots, whose triumphal march is the march of justice and civilization, will win a victory, under its trusted leader, over which the friends of freedom everywhere will rejoice.

Honest, but in the Dark.

The Eugene City Guard, and a few other Democratic papers, are deploring the action of the Baltimore Convention, and declare they will not give up their Democratic principles; while the majority of the Democratic journals are laughing at them for their honesty, and ridicule the idea of a Democrat harping about principle. The majority of the Democratic journals, by their action in indorsing Greeley with a Republican platform, most emphatically declare that all their cry about principles have been hypocritical and false.

This is a very frank confession by the Democracy, so far as actions are concerned; but it is a stinging insult to the few ignorant, honest Democrats who have thought that you were sincere in your democracy. Honor among knaves is played out in the Democratic party. You make each other believe that you are sincere in what you pretend, and then laugh at the victims for being duped.

CAN'T SWALLOW HIM.—The Chicago Times, an out-spoken Democratic paper of the first stamp, declares that Democrats may as well go the Grant party as the Greeley party. It declares that the Baltimore Convention was packed by "Liberal Republicans in the interest of Greeley," whose nomination is the disbandment of the Democratic party, leaving its members and its journals free to support whomsoever they please; and that persons holding Democratic principles are not under the slightest obligation to support the nominee.

I hold our Government bound by its duty of protecting our citizens in their fundamental rights, to pass and enforce laws for the extirpation of the execrable Ku Klux conspiracy; and if it has not the power to do it, then I say our government is no government but a sham. I, therefore, on every proper occasion, advocated and justified the Ku Klux act. I hold it especially desirable for the South; and if it does not prove strong enough to effect its purpose I hope it will be made stronger and stronger.—Horace Greeley.

A Word on "Military Despotism."

We commend the following table to those who believe in the silly twaddle retailed from the stump by Democratic liberals, that our government has become a military despotism, wherein the rights of citizens are trampled under foot. We are, to-day, the most benevolent, magnanimous, and charitable nation on the face of the earth. The American citizen, who behaves himself, enjoys, to the fullest extent, personal liberty. There is no invasion of his rights by the government. Our "liberal" friends confound liberty with license. Liberty is perfect freedom to do right. License is the unrestrained privilege to do wrong. No honest, law-abiding citizen complains of the rigors of the law. The complaint comes from the miserable cut-throats of the South, who think, under a free government, they should have the right to pillage, and burn, and murder to their heart's content. Not satisfied with their murderous attempt to destroy the Union, they repay the magnanimity of the government which kept their necks from the halter, by scourging and murdering the loyal men who stood true to the party that saved the Republic. Because the government reached forth its strong arm and protected these persecuted loyalists, punished a few of these outlaws, and stopped their work of butchery, they and their friends send up the howl of "military despotism." The present administration has been too lenient. It gave the States of the South a fair opportunity to protect their citizens. Instead of granting encouragement these brutal outrages, until it felt that longer forbearance would be a positive crime. The result of its intervention has had a good effect.

The Ku-Klux bands have been broken up, the poor whites and blacks breathe freer; they realize that freedom and citizenship mean something more than the right to be whipped or shot; a feeling of security has taken the place of the reign of terror, and the better classes of citizens, who honestly desire a return of peace and prosperity, feel some encouragement in their efforts to maintain law and order in their midst. To all who rebelled against the government, who incurred the penalty of death, but who have been pardoned by a generous administration who have been the recipient of a magnanimity, such as the world never before witnessed, we commend the exhibit. Let it be borne in mind that those who committed treason against French government were comparatively few in numbers, mostly confined to Paris:

Table with 3 columns: Crime, France, United States. Rows include Sentenced to death, Hard labor for life, Transportation, 1st degree, etc.

Comment is unnecessary. We leave the civilized world to judge of the "despotism" of our government under Republican rule.

VINDICATION OF GENERAL BUTLER.—The proceedings in the suit of Tilden against Butler, concerning the seizure of the Nassau, have been discontinued, and after an explicit statement by the counsel of the plaintiff that they were entirely satisfied Gen. Butler had acted solely in the interests of the Government, and for praiseworthy objects. They admitted, further, that they had been misled by their own witnesses, and declared it a mere act of justice that the proceedings should be discontinued. Gen. Butler thus comes out triumphantly, and deserves, as he will receive, the congratulations of his friends and of a public that believes in fair dealing.

Grant and his policy deserve the highest credit.—Horace Greeley.

There is one thing that can always be found—and that's fault.

General Grant has never been beaten and he never will be.—Horace Greeley.

MORE FAST TROTING.

"Joe Elliott" trots a mile at Mystic Park in 2:15 1-2. From the New York World of July 1st we copy this: Wonders will never cease. No sooner does "Goldsmith Maid" reduce the record from 2:17 1/2 to 2:17 and 2:16, than the lovers of fast horses are startled, as they were yesterday, by the following dispatch from Boston: Boston, June 29, 1872.

Robert Bonner, New York:—Bowen just drove "Joe Elliott" one mile in two minutes fifteen and one half seconds (2:15 1/2). First quarter, half, 1:07 1/2; Timers: Lucius C. Chase Albert Worcester, Lon Morris, and W. W. Comee. Lon Morris.

That "Joe Elliott" is a wonder no one doubts. When he was five years old he trotted in 2:19 1/2; when he was six he trotted in 2:18 1/2; when he was seven Mr. Bonner drove him a half mile in 1:06. About a week ago "Joe Elliott" was sent to Mystic Park, where he has since been training, and where he trotted his wonderful mile, as announced in the foregoing dispatch.

HORACE GREELEY ON THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.—Point wherever you will an election district which you will pronounce morally rotten—given up in a great part to debauchery and vice, whose voters subsist mainly by keeping policy offices, gambling houses, grog-shops and darker dens of infamy—and that district will be found giving a large majority for the Democratic party.
