

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President in 1872, ULYSSES S. GRANT.

For Vice President, HENRY WILSON.

For Presidential Electors, W. D. HARE, of Washington County. A. B. MEACHAM, of Umatilla County. J. F. GAZELY, of Douglas County.

"I would sum up the policy of the Administration to be a thorough enforcement of every law; a faithful collection of every tax provided for; economy in the disbursement of the same; a prompt payment of every debt of nation; a reduction of taxes as rapidly as the requirements of the country will admit; reductions of taxation and tariff, to be so arranged as to afford the greatest relief to the greatest number; honest and fair dealings with all other people, to the end that war with all its blighting consequences may be avoided, but without surrendering any right or obligation due to us; a reform in the treatment of Indians, and in the whole civil service of the country; and finally in securing a pure, untrammelled ballot, where every man entitled to cast vote a may do so, just once, at each election without fear of molestation, or prosecution on account of his political faith, nativity, or color."—U. S. Grant.

Grant or Greeley.

Who are the supporters of Grant? They are such men as Garrison, Smith, Phillips, Beecher, and a host of others, who have spent their whole lives,—not in seeking for office,—but for the liberation of society from ignorance, superstition and bondage. These are men of principle; men of character; men that stand at the head of the Nation in learning and ability. These men have never sought office; and, with the exception of Garret Smith, they have never occupied any in the Government. They have been content to labor for the people for no other reward than that of an abiding faith in the right, and for the moral satisfaction it has given them to see the cause of justice and truth prosper. Aside from these, Grant is supported by nearly the entire Union Army; men that were ready and willing to lay down their lives for the defense of their country, without stopping to inquire what caused the war, or who were to blame in getting it up. Again, he is supported by the entire force of the consistent and honest statesmen of the Nation; men whose opinions have been found to be correct, as they have been given, from time to time, on the great National questions of the past and the present.

Grant, then, is supported by the wise philosophers of the Nation—men who are above selfish interest; and by the honest and patriotic soldier who loved his country better than life; and by the entire body of successful statesmen, who are earnestly laboring for the good of the whole people.

Who support Greeley? Is there a philosopher that rises to the height of a Beecher or Phillips, that comes to his rescue? Not one that has ever been heard of.

Greeley draws his support from the Tammany thieves; from the disappointed office-seekers; from the unsuccessful politician; and from the revengeful traitors that have yet a lingering hope of destroying the Government.

Can any true patriot be in doubt as to which of the two men he will vote for in November next? Fred Douglass, Jno. M. Langston, and other colored speakers, are in Virginia making speeches for Grant and Wilson.

ARRIVALS.—Mr. Stinson, of Portland, arrived in town on Thursday. He is associated with Mr. J. R. Neil in the practice of the law. Mr. Stinson comes highly recommended as an attorney and gentleman. We greet him with welcome.

John Lyon of Virginia refuses to lie down with the lamb of Chappaqua.

Murder of Orme.

The murder of William Orme, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orme, who live on Footh creek in this county, justly creates quite an excitement at Tehama, Cal., where he was most brutally and cowardly shot by M. J. Donohue, a painter of that place.

The facts in the case are these, as we get them from our exchanges. On the evening of the day before the shooting took place, Orme and Donohue had some difficulty over a game of pool, in which it seems that Donohue was entirely to blame. The difficulty at the time did not assume any serious character, and was soon brought to a speedy close, without any one being hurt. Donohue being in liquor and very quarrelsome, it was thought that when he sobered up it would all be dropped without farther disturbance. But on the morning following Donohue became intoxicated, and procured a revolver and threatened to take the life of Orme on sight. Orme was informed of the threats of Donohue, and was advised to keep out of his way, but as Donohue had made similar threats against other parties, he paid no attention to it. At a little after five o'clock p. m. of the same day, while Orme was quietly sitting in Heider's billiard room watching a game of billiards, Donohue came in at the side door; seeing Orme he turned quickly and passed out, but almost immediately entered the front door with his pistol drawn and cocked, took deliberate aim at Orme, who was sitting with his back partly turned towards him, and did not see him, and said: "You s— of a b—, I have got you now;" and before any one could interfere, fired. The ball first cut the pants and slightly wounded one of the parties engaged in the game of billiards, and then passed through the fleshy part of Orme's right arm, and entered his right breast just forward of and below the armpit, ranging downward, and lodged in the stomach, and he fell forward on his face with a groan.

Donohue then turned a little and fired another shot at John Roden, which barely missed Roden, and passed into the wall. Dr. Mathews was immediately summoned, and after an examination of the wound, pronounced it fatal. Orme seemed conscious that he could not live, and requested the Doctor not to probe the wound. Orme was not armed. He lived in great agony until midnight, when he died of internal hemorrhage. Donohue has since been arrested, and is now awaiting his trial in jail. We quote the following from the Tehama Independent:

"The deceased was born in Galena, Ill.; was in the 31st year of his age, and had resided in this county for several years, and leaves many warm friends. Was a peaceable and temperate man and generous to a fault. In common with humanity he had his faults, but they were greatly outweighed by his good qualities. His father and mother, two sisters and a brother living in, or near, Jacksonville, Oregon.

We would add that we are personally acquainted with Lewis Orme, one of the brothers of the deceased, and know him to be a very fine man. The family are spoken of by those that know them as being very exemplary people. We sympathize with them in their bereavement.

Withdrawn.

"We have it from information that comes reliably, that L. F. Lane, one of the candidates on the Democratic Electoral Ticket in this State has withdrawn, and that he has notified the State Central Committee of his declination. The reason given is that he cannot support Greeley. If this information be correct, there will yet be a place on the ticket for Jasper Johnson."—Oregonian.

Well done, Lafayette; we will take you to be a man of your word hereafter, whether you believe with us in politics or not, and we will give you the credit of being sincere in what you profess. But what can we think of Helm, who publicly declared in a speech in Jacksonville, not long since, that if Greeley was nominated at the Baltimore Convention, that he would withdraw. Greeley has been nominated by the Democrats at the Baltimore Convention on the Cincinnati platform, and Mr. Helm sends in his card to the Herald that he will support him.

This cooks your goose for truth, Helm, in Oregon. Alas for human weakness! Helm has forsaken principle and truth, and believes that, "success colors all in life." After November next he will believe that the loyal people intend to govern this country by electing Grant with an overwhelming majority.

DESERVING OF CREDIT.—Hon A. A. Sargent is deserving of the unanimous thanks of the people of Northern California and Oregon for the persevering energy displayed by him in urging upon the P. O. Department the necessity of shortening the time between Portland and San Francisco, for mail facilities. The mail is now carried from San Francisco to Portland in three days and nine hours, and from San Francisco to Yreka in 40 hours, with a still further gain of time as soon as the cars run to Redding City. Col. Hooker obtained a few signatures to a petition towards allowing something extra for a short time, and upon arriving at Washington found Congress adjourned. He presented the petition to Congressman Sargent, who visited the P. O. Department early in the morning and never left it until late in the evening resulting in recognition of his wishes, and their reference to the President a couple of days after, and the order to favor our people with more speedy mail facilities. To A. A. Sargent alone, we are indebted for this great favor, whose energy and friendly interest, receives the heartfelt gratitude of all our citizens as well as those of Oregon.

CARD FROM JUDGE SAWYER.—The S. F. Republican of the 16th, publishes the following card from Judge W. D. Sawyer, who can't stomach Greeley:

EDITORS REPUBLICAN—Gentlemen: In your issue of yesterday evening, under the head of "Leading Democrats for Grant," you state that "W. D. Sawyer  freely announces that he will vote for Grant and Wilson." You have been misinformed. I cannot consistently, as a Democrat, vote for Grant and Wilson, and I don't vote for Greeley and Brown. Perhaps the statement you published gained credence because I have said that, as a rule, I would sooner vote for the man that did fighting than for the man that got up the fight. Be kind enough to publish the above.

Respectfully yours, W. D. SAWYER. San Francisco, July 16th, 1872

Since the close of the rebellion not less than twenty three thousand persons, black and white have been scourged, banished or murdered by Kuklux Klans of the South. The victims of their terrible barbarity have been Republicans. Not a single Democrat has suffered. Loyalty to the United States Government brought persecution; disloyalty exemption.

Since the enforcement of Kuklux acts by the present Administration, peace and security have reigned throughout these States infested by Klans. The defeat of this Administration will be the renewal of these organizations and a repetition of past outrages. Is there a Republican in the land base enough to be a party to so great a wrong? Millions of loyal men and women South are depending on our party and its strong arm of justice for continued protection. The Government must protect them.

Who appoint the thieves?

Out of the fifteen cases of falsification in the custom revenue service, only two of the officials were appointed by President Grant. The following list will show where the moral responsibility rests:

Table with 3 columns: Name, No. of Cases, Amount Involved. Appointed by Buchanan: 1 case, $5,156.31. Appointed by Lincoln: 4 cases, 17,978.46. Appointed by Johnson: 8 cases, 34,622.10. Appointed by Grant: 2 cases, 17,371.75.

If the Tribune would publish a few of these interesting facts it might do the people a favor. But as it has ceased to be an organ, and parted with its monkey, we can hardly expect the repetition of old times.

The same proportion of roguery holds good with all the thieves that have been ferreted out during General Grant's term. More than three-fourths of the whole number were appointed by Andy Johnson. How very "liberal" it would be to have our Democratic friends tell the whole truth, and allow their constituents to know who it was that appointed the thieves.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—In all crowded cities, Malaria and fogs are breathed over and over again, till the strongest lungs are incapable of producing pure blood, hence the sluggishness of mind and body, the weariness and irritability of many persons during this season of the year. These medicines neutralize these impurities, and give vigor to the head, heart and stomach. 25 cents per box or pot.

The pay roll of the Coliseum orchestra amounted to $84,000 in one week.

MARRIED.
