

SENTINEL AGENTS.

The following named persons are authorized to act as Agents for this paper in the places named.

Who Will Respond?

The political cauldron having for a time ceased to "boil and bubble," and the usual whirl and excitement attending a Presidential campaign being succeeded by the dull routine of common-place events, with that dullness assisted in our case by a winter's stagnation of business all over the country, and a probable clogging of the customary channels by which we receive news from abroad, the publication of a news paper, for the next few months at least, does not seem a task likely to be interesting to the editor or reader.

But we have already drawn this article to a much greater length than we intended to have done; yet the benefits which may accrue to us all by the method proposed are so numerous and apparent that we are sure they will bear presentation, and we shall continue, from time to time, to present them to our readers until we have induced favorable action in the matter—if not in the manner proposed, then in some other way, or shall have demonstrated that we are alone in the matter and powerless. You who have complained about the SENTINEL neglecting local affairs, are given some reasons why it has been so, and we now call upon you to lend your aid in producing what you desire, viz: a local paper. Remember the Apostolic injunction, "Help ye one another."

LOCAL MATTERS.—If anything of interest has occurred about town during the past week we haven't heard of it. As far as we know, everything is very quiet, and particularly the weather. A hard winter sends us greeting through all our exchanges from the East, and even from the northern portion of our own State we hear complaints of the cold. But Winter hasn't found us yet; and we hope it won't. The sky is as clear as a mirror, and the temperature as mild as May. Notwithstanding all this, times are very dull here in the way of local items. But then we hear some things muttered about which, if consummated, will furnish some fun for a while, if nothing more. In the meantime, what's the bloody odds, so long as you're 'appy?

FOUND AT LAST.—A remedy that not only relieves, but cures that enemy of mankind, Consumption, as well as the numerous satellites which revolve around it in the shape of coughs, colds, bronchitis, sore throat, influenza, &c. The remedy we allude to is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, prepared by Seth W. Fowle & Sons, Boston.

HEARTH AND HOME.—This finely illustrated family paper has grown to the permanency of a household fixture within the past few years, and is in all respects worthy of the favor to which it aspires. For a full description of the work—its place of publication, character, price, &c.—attention is directed to the advertisement in another column of this issue.

FROM FORT KLAMATH.—Maj. Eggleston, Paymaster U. S. A., and Major Jackson of Fort Klamath, came in, a few days ago, from that Post, and are temporarily stopping in town. They report the snow ten inches in depth at Fort Klamath when they left there.

ance and unexcelled, it is also a fact of much importance to us that these peculiarities are as little known outside our own State as the interior of Alaska, comparatively speaking. Other portions of the State, under the stimulus of railroads and public improvements, with no better natural facilities, certain, and probably not as good, for all that enables a people to secure wealth and happiness, are rapidly going ahead. We need a like condition of affairs in this section; we need population and capital. To secure these requires a circulation of the facts of our peculiar advantages abroad. We send a few copies of the SENTINEL to the States East of the mountains. Should those already located here feel the same interest we do in these things, let them assist us to make of the SENTINEL a word-map of this whole region—a letter to those seeking information concerning us; and then we will assume the expense of sending copies to correspondents' friends, whenever and to whomsoever they may direct.

But we have already drawn this article to a much greater length than we intended to have done; yet the benefits which may accrue to us all by the method proposed are so numerous and apparent that we are sure they will bear presentation, and we shall continue, from time to time, to present them to our readers until we have induced favorable action in the matter—if not in the manner proposed, then in some other way, or shall have demonstrated that we are alone in the matter and powerless. FEMALE RAILROADER.—We cannot vouch for the entire truthfulness of the following, taken from an exchange, but there are persons in Jacksonville who are acquainted with the lady, and they assure us she is fully competent to perform the job if she ever undertook it: "Mrs. Catharine Strang, of Ottumwa, Iowa, has just completed two miles of grading upon the Brownville and Nodaway Valley Railroad. Her portion of the road compares quite favorably with that constructed by old and experienced contractors."

THE Postmaster General has issued a circular, stating that it is the duty of postmasters to register, without fee, all letters delivered to them to be mailed, containing old postage stamps or mutilated currency for redemption, in accordance with the law upon that subject.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

THE UNK WEED REMEDY,

Oregon Rheumatic Cure.

HISTORY.—This remedy is composed of the active principle of the Unk Weed, Eng.—Thapsium Coriandaria Origin, Lat.—Indigenous to Oregon. Grows most abundantly and perfectly in Washington county.

PROPERTIES, &c.—It contains an active soluble principle, extracted by ether, and a bitter tonic principle, soluble in alcohol.

MEDICAL PROPERTIES AND USE.—It is the most sure and speedy cure for Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, and Rheumatic Pains of all kinds that was ever introduced into the Materia Medica. The Unk Weed Remedy, as prepared by us, in consequence of the existing bitter principle, possesses the necessary virtue of being a powerful tonic, promoting the appetite and invigorating the whole digestive apparatus, thus building up and strengthening the system, while at the same time the volatile principle, being absorbed in the blood, acts specifically on the rheumatic poison, removing it from the circulation and system.

There are a few remedies known to the Medical Profession which will remove the Rheumatic Poison from the blood, but whose action is so powerful in depressing the system of the already enfeebled Rheumatic patient, that their use has to be abandoned before specific effects are obtainable. Unlike these medicines, already known, the UNK WEED REMEDY, though producing as powerful and as active effects on the blood and system in removing the rheumatic poison, also possesses a strong tonic and recuperating element which admits of its continued use even by the most delicate and debilitated. Thus we have the combination for the first time of these two necessary elements in one remedy, which accounts for its superior and never failing curative effects in Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, and Rheumatic Pains of all kinds.

We are aware of the fact that it is generally an easy matter to procure certificates attesting the efficacy of patent remedies from a certain class of those who use them. We have selected the following because the names attached to them are those of men of the most careful and scrupulous character, and because the large class of their acquaintances in Oregon will not, for a moment, accuse or suspect them of any exaggeration in the statements they make.

Remarkable cure of Mrs. Hoover, wife of Hon. Jacob Hoover, ex-Treasurer of Washington county, Oregon.

Tualatin Plains, Washington Co., Oregon, July 23, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have been troubled with Rheumatism for the past twelve years; my joints, especially those of my feet and hands, were badly swollen, so that I could with difficulty go around. My shoulder pained me a great deal and a large bony swelling grew out, so that I could not raise my hand to my head.

Since last Spring I have been taken your "Unk Weed Remedy," and find myself much improved. The swelling and pain have left my joints and shoulder and the bony growth has entirely disappeared and I use my limbs and am far better than I have been for years.

M. HOOVER. Certificate of the Deputy Jailor of Multnomah County Jail: City Jail, Portland, Oregon, June 7, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I was attacked with a severe case of rheumatism. It was in my thighs, hips, fingers, shoulder blade—indeed in all the joints of my body I suffered great pain and anguish. I was attended by a regular physician, but with no effect. I was induced to try your Unk Weed Remedy, and it immediately cured me up. I consider it from my experience, the best remedy for rheumatism known.

A. F. TURNER, Deputy Jailor. This is to certify that the above statement is correct to my own knowledge. JOHN P. WARD, Jailor.

Certificate of A. R. Shipley, Esq., special contributor to the Willamette Farmer, and Secretary of the Oregon Horticultural Society: Oswego, Oregon, March 28, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—Some four weeks ago I was entirely prostrated with rheumatism; in fact I was almost helpless. I sent to you for one ounce bottle of the "Unk Weed Remedy," by the use of which I experienced almost immediate relief, and by the time the bottle was gone the rheumatism was gone. From my own experience, and from what I have heard others say who have used the Unk Weed, I believe it to be a certain cure for the rheumatism.

Yours respectfully, A. R. SHIPLEY. Certificate from Hon. A. J. Duffur, ex-President of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, and author of "Statistics of Oregon." East Portland, April 1, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I was afflicted with a severe attack of chronic rheumatism; was confined to my bed most of the time from January to July, when I used your Unk Weed and it cured me up. A. J. DUFFUR.

Certificate from Hon. Gideon Tibbels, a member of the City Council of East Portland: East Portland, April 7, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—Gents: This is to inform you that I have used your "Unk Weed" for neuralgia and rheumatic pains, and found relief from the use of only one bottle, and can recommend it to those in need of such a remedy. Yours, GIDEON TIBBELS.

Certificate from James Ryboe, the celebrated stock grower, and "King of the Oregon Turf": Ravin's Island, January 24, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—This is to acknowledge the efficacy of your "Unk Weed Remedy," as Oregon Rheumatic Cure." I was afflicted for months with a very anxious attack of the inflammatory rheumatism, and tried nearly all of the so-called rheumatic remedies without any relief perceptible. I then tried your remedy, and its use resulted in the most happy effects—a perfect cure. Truly yours, JAMES RYBOE.

Certificate from Hon. E. L. Quimby, ex-County Clerk and member of the Oregon State Agricultural Society: East Portland, April 1, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have used the "Unk Weed Remedy," and am satisfied it is a valuable medicine. It regulates and invigorates the system. This is my experience with the remedy. Truly yours, E. L. QUIMBY.

Certificate from the well-known merchant, G. W. Weaver, Esq.: The Dalles, May 20, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have used the "Unk Weed Remedy," and can cheerfully recommend it to persons afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism. It cured me of all that disease. My hands, wrists, ankles, indeed, all my joints were swollen and very painful. G. W. WEAVER.

Certificate from Hon. N. H. Lane, Pilot Commissioner of Oregon, and a member of the City Council of East Portland: East Portland, April 13, 1871.

A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have been afflicted for several years past with "weakness in the back," and suffering rheumatic pains, accompanied by "nerve constipation." By the use of one bottle of your Unk Weed Remedy or Oregon Rheumatic Cure, I have been entirely relieved, and I cheerfully recommend it as a most valuable and effective remedy.

Put up in 10-ounce bottles, At $2.00 per Bottle, PREPARED AT THE Oregon Medical Laboratory, By A. M. Loryea & Co., EAST PORTLAND, OREGON. [For Sale by all Druggists.]
