

THE SENTINEL

JACKSONVILLE:
SATURDAY, - - - NOV. 30, 1872.

H. KELLY, EDITOR.

THE REASON WHY GREELEY WAS DEFEATED.

The Democratic editors have become wondrous wise since the election in discovering the causes of Greeley's defeat. Some charge the fault on the Liberal Republicans, accusing them of misrepresenting their strength and failing to bring what force they really had into the field; others claim that the defeat resulted from a want of enthusiasm on the part of the Democracy; while the more ignorant and base judge of the honesty of their fellow Democrats by that of their own, and accuse them of being bought up with Government gold. A man that gets drunk has always some excuse, however untenable it may be. But it not unfrequently happens that the drunken man will state the truth and charge the blame where it properly belongs. Not so with the Democracy. Before the election it was "anything to beat Grant;" now it is anything to shift the blame off their own shoulders and get it on those of their neighbors.

Why don't they state the truth, and charge the cause upon our seminaries of learning; upon our enlightened christianity; upon the general intelligence and morality of the voters? God likes brave men, and despises cowards. He that has not the courage to state the truth, though it may fall with deadly weight upon his own head, is a moral coward, and is to be despised by men of honor.

Greeley was defeated because the great mass of the people could not—and what's more, would not—be humbugged by Democratic lies. Greeley was defeated because the youths in our seminaries of learning have been taught that truth is more powerful than error; that right will ultimately prevail over wrong; that Christianity is better than barbarism. Greeley was defeated because the people have become christianized and will no longer tolerate falsehood and crime.

DIDN'T RESIGN.—Although the telegraph said positively that Thiers had resigned the Presidency of France, it has since been found out that he didn't do so. The exhaustive and critical sketch of the individual which we copy from the Portland Bulletin we hold to be none the less correct on account of his non-resignation; though he may yet prove himself to be a great man, for great men achieve much of their reputed greatness by getting hold of good things and holding on to them. The supposition that Thiers had failed to "hold on" was all that really belittled him at this time.

VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE.—This elegantly illustrated catalogue of flowers and vegetables for 1873 is on our table, and the offers of the publisher are gratefully accepted. His "Guide" will hereafter be published quarterly and sent to all parts of the country on receipt of the trifling sum of twenty-five cents. No one in the land desiring a choice selection of beautiful flowers or valuable vegetables should fail to send their orders to Vick, and the money to pay for them, and he will fill the order in good time by mail. The Postal Law concerning the sending of seeds is published in this (the January) number of the "Guide." Read the advertisement.

BRAINERD'S MUSICAL WORLD, for November, fully sustains its high reputation as a literary and artistic journal of first rank, and is a welcome addition to our table. It contains more than the usual amount of fresh, spicy, pointed articles on musical subjects. The editorial "Women and Music" is a very readable and suggestive article. Besides much contributed matter this number contains three new pieces of exquisite music. Subscription price $1 a year. Send 10 cents to S. Brainerd's Sons, Cleveland, Ohio, for a specimen copy, and their list of premiums.

Groton, Massachusetts, where Hon. Geo. S. Boutwell began political life as a Democratic Representative, is now the banner town of Massachusetts Republicanism, and on Nov. 5th did not give a single vote for the Democratic candidate for Governor.

THE Portland Bulletin says the famous Wraslin' Joe Thomas suits for possession of the Carnthers' estate have been finally settled by a compromise, and all cases in Court dismissed.

UNITED STATES VS. JAS. BARCLAY.

A copy of a petition for the pardon of James Barclay, signed by several prominent citizens, has been shown to us. Gentlemen should be more cautious about signing such petitions, and should be sure they tell the truth, and not let their sympathies tell falsehoods to screen criminals.

The facts are, he knowingly and willfully pitched his tent on the military reservation, close to the Indian reservation. Two squaws were seen drunk in his tent, and he repeatedly took spirituous liquors inside of the Indian reservation, in bottles, and gave and sold it to the soldiers. The soldiers became disorderly and mutinous from the effects of the liquor. Barclay was arrested for this crime and confined in the guard house, as stated in the petition. He then sued Captain Goodale for false imprisonment. The prisoner testified in his own behalf, under our statute, in the civil suit. On the criminal suit the evidence of the prisoner was given by two witnesses before the jury which convicted him.

He is clearly guilty of knowingly violating the law. The proof showed he tried to evade the law, and that he tried to get ten thousand dollars damages for his confinement in the guard house for more than five days. There is no room for doubt of his guilt.

It was his willful violation of the law which caused Judge Deady to send him to the penitentiary. The Judge and jury both did right in convicting the offender and sending him to State's prison.

We deeply sympathize with Mr. Barclay, but falsehoods should not be used to screen any man from just punishment. We have no objection to the pardon of Mr. Barclay on the grounds of his past meritorious services, and that he has suffered punishment sufficient for the crime of which he stands charged, but we insist that the Judge and jury did right in convicting and sentencing him to the penitentiary.

THE OVERLAND MONTHLY FOR DECEMBER.—With this number closes the ninth volume of this periodical, and its bright pages now before us give promise that there is no lack of that peculiarly fresh and interesting reading matter which characterized this magazine from the first. In the present issue we find very instructive papers, and we cannot do better than present a synopsis of its contents: "Isles of the Amazons, No. IV;" "The Northern California Indians, No. VI"—one of the very best historical papers; "Lost"—a well-told story; "Asphodel"—poetry; "Legend of the Montecito Grape Vine;" "Arab Literature and Lore;" "Origin of our Antiquities;" "Winning the race—in a double sense;" "Living Glaciers of California;" "John and Margaret" poetry; "Ultras: Bay Coast, No. III,"—abounds in exquisite descriptions, increasing in interest with each succeeding issue, and we surmise that new and well-defined psychological views will be revealed in the further development of this idealistic romance: "The Building of the University"—specially prepared by Prof. D. C. Gilman from his inaugural address as President of the University of California. The "Etc." and "Current Literature" departments are full and varied. The new year and the new volume should bring thousands of additional subscribers to this worthy magazine. John H. Carmany & Co., Publishers, 409 Washington Street, San Francisco.

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN.—Attention is directed to the advertisement of this paper, under the head of "New Advertisements." This is among the oldest papers in the State, and is certainly one of the best. For a family or general newspaper it is not excelled by any in Oregon. All the news, miscellaneous and editorial matter of the Daily is published in the Weekly, which is issued in quarto form, containing eight large pages of seven columns each. The price asked for it from now to January 1st, 1874, is only $3.

INCORPORATED.—The Oregonian of Tuesday says: Articles of Incorporation have been perfected and filed in the Clerk's office of Multnomah county, by Messrs. J. N. Dolph, O. N. Denny and H. W. Scott. These gentlemen are the incorporators of the "Oregon Bulletin Printing and Publishing Company," a joint stock company recently organized. The duration of the company is fixed at fifty years. The enterprise, business and occupation in which the corporation proposes to engage is in the publishing of a daily and weekly newspaper in the city of Portland, and also to establish and carry on a job printing office. The capital stock of the corporation is set at $50,000, in shares of $100 each, with the principal place of business at Portland, Oregon.

[FROM DISPATCHES TO THE PORTLAND DAILIES.]

DATES TO NOV. 26.

The President has pardoned Reuben Young of Alabama, sentenced to ten years imprisonment for KKKulxury.

The horse malady in Chicago has almost disappeared, but has spread to the farms of that State and Iowa. It is reported at its height in Memphis and southward.

Gen. Irwin McDowell has been appointed Major General to succeed Gen. Meade.

Sickness still prevents Horace Greeley from attending to editorial duty.

The revenue frauds of Wall & Co., in Boston and New York have been settled by their paying into the U. S. Treasury the sum of $520,000.

The President has read to the Cabinet a portion of his message, which is characterized as conciliatory in tone regarding all issues in controversy.

A dispatch from Indianapolis says O. P. Morton was elected U. S. Senator from Indiana, on the 26th, by a majority of 19.

There was an earthquake at Eureka, Cal., Nov. 26th.

Mrs. Green and Lena DeShields, two women of San Francisco, tired of the life they were leading, took the short cut to eternity a few nights ago, by the use of morphine.

The diamond schemes of San Francisco are discovered to be frauds, and much excitement is the result. The originators are said to have realized $50,000 by the trick.

A fire at Oroville, Cal., was destroyed by fire lately. Loss, $50,000. Insurance Companies only suffer $2,000 by it.

The Khedive of Egypt has sent out an expedition of 5,000 men, which it is thought are intended to co operate with Dr. Livingstone in his search for the source of the Nile.

A Paris dispatch of the 26th says the differences between the Executive and Legislative Departments of the Government continue. The situation is very serious. The Radical journals are violent and declare that a terrible revolution will follow the overthrow of the Government of Thiers. The same journals affirm that the Legitimists and Imperialists have formed a coalition for the downfall of the present Government. Gen. Changarnier is also charged with aiming to secure power.

Well Merited Gift.

The telegraph office at Yreka was the scene, on Thanksgiving evening, of the presentation of a very elegant gold watch and chain to Dr. O. P. S. Plummer, the Superintendent of the W. U. Telegraph line between Marysville and Portland. On the inside of the watch was inscribed: "To Dr. O. P. S. Plummer, Supt. W. U. Tel. Co., from the operators of the 3d District." On the links of the chain, the names of the donors, forty-four in number, were neatly engraved. The gift was presented by Mr. J. W. Thompson, with the following appropriate remarks: "Dr.—I have the honor as well as the gratification, on behalf of the operators of your district, of presenting you with this watch and chain as a slight token of the regard and esteem we have for you. May our intercourse in the future be as pleasant as in the past, and when you recall the names hereon engraved, may you always remember we are all your friends."

To which the Doctor replied;

Friends:—I accept of your gift with a feeling of how I may deserve this splendid watch and chain at the hands of those who, by the prompt, efficient and cheerful discharge of their every duty, have already done so much to make the relations between us so pleasant and agreeable, and I assure you this present shall be dearly cherished. This beautiful watch shall ever be a monitor of the importance of improving present time, and shall incite me to still more diligence in the performance of my duties in the interest of the great and good corporation in whose service we are engaged. Never being unmindful of the welfare of my co-laborers, and this fine watch upon whose golden links are engraved forty-four names of those whom I am proud to call my friends, is doubly dear to me as our names are so nearly and endearingly associated. So may we ever be united in love and good will, and in a firm purpose to so discharge life's every duty that we may be permitted to one day join that corps to which disappointment and partings are unknown. Sincerely and heartily I thank you.

PERFECT HEALTH is the best gift of God to man. But it is left to us to keep it good. We commit a serious error whenever we deceive ourselves by not taking in hand at once any disease which may become serious. Colds, coughs and bronchitis are of this class. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will cure them.

GONE.—B. F. Dowell, Esq., left for Portland on the stage of Sunday last, intending to be absent for ten days or a fortnight.

The Downs mine, near Satter Creek, Cal., changed hands a few days ago for the neat sum of $400,000.

CONSOLING HIMSELF.

Horace Greeley having again straddled the tripod of the N. Y. Tribune, thus extracts comfort from the results of his late defeat. He is "independent" now, and feels at liberty to say a word or two concerning his acquisitions, in connection with his great loss. He admits the loss of the pet scheme of his dotage years and pretends back on the field of youthful independence as follows:

There has been no time until now within the last twelve years, when the Tribune was not supposed to keep, for the benefit of the idle and incapable, a sort of Federal employment agency, established to get places under Government for those who were indisposed to work for their living. Any man who had ever voted the Republican ticket believed that it was the duty and the privilege of the editor of this paper to get him a place in the Custom House. Every red-nosed politician who cheated at the caucus and fought at the polls looked to the editor of the Tribune to secure his appointment as gauger or as Army Chaplain, or as Minister to France. Every campaign orator came upon us after the battle was over for a recommendation as Secretary of the Treasury or the loan of half a dollar.

If one of our party had an interest pending at Washington, the editor of the Tribune was telegraphed in frantic haste to come to the Capital, save this bill, crush that one, promote one project or stop another. He was to be everybody's friend, with nothing to do but to take care of other folks' business, sign papers, write letters and ask favors for them, and to get no thanks for it either. Four-fifths of these people were sent away without what they wanted, only to become straightway abusive enemies; it was the worry of life to try to gratify one demand in a dozen for the other fifth.

The man with two wooden legs congratulated himself that he could never be troubled with cold feet. It is a source of profound satisfaction to us that office seekers will keep aloof from a defeated candidate who has no influence enough at Washington or Albany to get a sweeper appointed under the Sergeant-at-Arms, or a deputy-sub-assistant temporary clerk in the pastepot section of the folding room. At last we shall be let alone to mind our own affairs and manage our own paper, without being called aside every hour to help lazy people whom we don't know, and to spend our strength in efforts that only benefit people who don't deserve assistance. At last we shall keep our office clear of blatherskites and political beggars, and go about our daily work with the satisfaction of knowing that not the most credulous of place hunters will suspect us of having any credit with the appointing powers. That is one of the results of Tuesday's election for which we own ourselves profoundly grateful.

The Warning has been Heeded. Since the exposure of the attempts made by certain unscrupulous local dealers to palm off their coarse astringents, made from cheap and impure materials, in the place of the great national tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, public opinion has set strongly against these empirics and their preparations. Their occupation is gone, or soon will be. When the light is let into deception it soon will be down. Persons who trifle with their own health by using unknown preparations, with no guarantee to sustain them, when an old established specific, proven by twenty years' experience to be exactly what it is claimed to be, is within their reach, are sure to repent their temerity. Very many have done so in this instance, but it is hoped that the truth plainly spoken has arrested the evil. In the meantime the demand for the leading protective and restorative medicine of America was never so great as it has been this season. From the fever and ague districts of the west, southwest and south, it is literally overwhelming, and it may be said of the advices from all parts of the country of the cures it is effecting in dyspepsia, bilious complaints and chronic constipation, that "their name is legion." Every here the sick and feeble seem to have realized "the importance of 'holding fast that which is good,' and avoiding what is evil" as and dangerous.

The numerous "Bitters" under a variety of names, which mercenary dealers endeavor to substitute for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, should be avoided, for their own sakes, by the sick and the public at large. Hostetter's Bitters are procurable in bottles only, and never sold in bulk.
