CITY AND COUNTY. Respect to Judge Thayer,

WHERAS, Our brother, Hon. Andrew J. Thayer, late a Justice of the Supreme Court of this State, has been removed from the sphere of his use fulness by the inexorable hand of Death,

Resolved, That while recognizing in his death the destiny which sooner or later overtakes all mankind, we most deeply deplore an event which has deprived the State of one of her most estimable citizens, his family of an affectionate husband and father, the Bench of one of its brightest ornaments and the profession of a learned, honorable and honored brother. journals. After which appropriate speeches vere made by Judge Prim and Fay, Stinson and Dowell.

Too Much.-Well, Veit brought us around another keg of beer early this week. Forthwith our small edition of his satanic majesty, who had been saving himself for the occasion, in conjunction with a certain juvenile tele graph operator, went after its contents. One glass spiece but whetted their desire for more. A banter was passed no could throw himself out the greatest quantity of lager beer. Banter accepted. Race commenced. Both parties even at the bottom of the fifth glass, when a breathing spell was taken. Race resumed. At the end of the third our devil showed signs of weakening. A wild look took posses sion of his usually placed eye, and he began to plead for some one to "put him in his little bed." After bumping three or four telegraph poles and damaging several tence corners he reached home, when he crawled down behind the kitchen stove and went asleep. On being awoke and asked what was the matter, he said he was sick and thought he had the measles. Thereupon the father of the young man examined him very critically, and a temperance lecture was the result. Our devil promised he wouldn't do so any more. By dint of perseverance he kept his promise till the next day.

P. S. Our devil is of the opinion that the telegraph operator put that job up on him.

N. B. The beer keg is empty.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Medical Poisons on the Wane. The patriarchs took no mercury, no bismuth, to iodine, no bromide of potassium, no strycboria, no quinine. Happy old gentlemen ! choria, no quinine. Happy old gentlemen! they did not even know of these "specifics," and yet they lived until it seemed as if Death had forgotten them. Their medicines were berbs and roots. They have left this fact on record, and the world seems now to be taking note of it and returning to the first principles of medication. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the purest and most efficacious vegetable restorative of the day, is also the most popular. Thousands of persons who only a few years ago believed implicitly in all the poisons which figure in the pharmacenus, now pronounce this palatable pharmacopia, now pronounce this palatable tonic and alterative and all-sufficient remedy for dyspepsia, nervous debility, constipa-tion, bilious complaints, headcahes, inter-mittent fevers, and all the disturbances of the mittent fevers, and all the disturbances of the stomach, the liver, the discharging organs and the brain. The time is not far distant when most of the powerful and venomous drugs now so recklessly administered by practitioners of the "heroic" school, in cases that might easily be controlled by milder treatment, will be utterly discarded by all philosophical physicians. As it is, the thinking public, who are generally ahead of the professionals, have already put the dangerous preparation aside and adopted Hostetter's Bitters in their stead as a safe and excellent household medicine, adapted to almost every ailment except the organic and deadly contagious discases. For more than twenty years this famous restorative and preventive has been annually strengthening its hold upon the public confidence, and it now takes the lead of every advertised medicine manufactured in this country.

Habitual constipation leads to the following esults: Inflammation of the kidneys, sick and nervous headache, billousness, dyspepsia, indi-gestion, piles, loss of appetite and strength; all of which may be avoided by being regular in your habits, and taking, say one of Parson's Pargatire Pills nightly for four or six weeks.

Do not permit the body to waste away in useless suffering. Dr. Wister's Bolsom of Wild Cherry has effected thousands of almost miraculous cures of coughs, colds, bronchitis, and consumption. It is a safe and reliable cure.

Johnson's Anodyne Liniment may be used advantage where any Liniment is desirable. cases of severe cras it is undoubted y the best article that can bused internally.
