

THE SENTINEL

SATURDAY, - AUGUST 23, 1873.

SENTINEL AGENTS.

The following named persons are authorized to act as Agents for this paper in the places named: L. P. FISHER, 20 and 21 New Merchants' Exchange, SAN FRANCISCO.

Too Lengthy.—We acknowledge the receipt of a long communication, eulogistic of a good man who recently died. While we would willingly oblige the friend who penned it, we are compelled to decline its publication.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The Teachers' Institute for this Judicial District meets in Jacksonville next Friday, and will continue its sessions the day following.

GOOD TEMPLARS LODGE.—A Good Templars' Lodge was recently organized at Ashland by Levi Leland, Esq., Grand Lecturer of the I. O. G. T. for this jurisdiction.

ANOTHER TREAT.—Bayer give us another treat of peaches this week, of the best flavor and nicely ripened. If you want to buy anything in the fruit and vegetable line, go to Bayer's store, for he keeps the very best.

ASSESSING.—The County Assessor, D. H. Taylor, Esq., has been assessing the citizens of this place the last few days. The tax list of the county goes to the County Court, sitting as a Board of Equalization, next Monday.

ASHLAND ACADEMY.—The fall term of this institution will commence September 1st, 1873. It is desirable there should be as full attendance as possible. This is a home educational institution, conducted by first class instructors, and should be well patronized.

REMOVED.—We omitted last week to mention that Dr. Gamble had removed his office and residence to Oregon St., two doors south of Madame Holt's Hotel. Those wishing his services will please take notice.

NO CHURCH SERVICES TO-MORROW.—There will be no services at the M. E. Church to-morrow. Rev. Mr. Williams, whose appointment it is, is rusticating in the mountains. Also there will be no Sabbath School.

THE PRIMARIES.—The primaries of the two parties occur to-day. There appears to be but little interest felt on either side. Perhaps by election time some excitement may be stirred up.

PEACHES.—Mr. Robinson left with us a supply of magnificent peaches this week. Those who remember the printer are the ones to "bet on" every time. Three cheers for Mr. Robinson!

PEACHES AND PEARS.—Mr. Rapp again hit us some splendid peaches and luscious pears this week. Everything he brings to market is first-class. Long may he wave.

POSTAL CARDS.—At length the long looked for postal cards have arrived. Max Muller has one thousand of them for sale. First come, first served.

Local Sayings.

Rev. Mr. Williams, Squire Hoffman and others started the fore part of this week for the mountains. These are most "darnation" trouble some just now. They evidently believe in subsisting on the enemy's for age.

The thermometer has had a habit of going up lately until it got too tired to go any further.

Prof. Fowler has been the sensation of the week. Peaches large and luscious are ripening hereabouts by the tons. There is no greater fruit country in the world than Southern Oregon.

Major Glenn and wife intend making a visit to the States soon. Prosecuting Attorney Neil intends to make it lively for those road supervisors who neglect to remove noxious weeds from the roads in their respective districts.

The thirteenth anniversary (last Monday) of the formation of Jacksonville Lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F., was observed by raising the colors of the order over the Odd Fellows Hall.

A new sidewalk has been put down in front of the New State Saloon.

Prof. Fowler is happy in the choice of names—for instance, "Rusber" and "Mule."

The smoky weather is upon us again. Prof. Farley's select school commenced last Monday.

The SENTINEL is prepared to do job work with neatness and dispatch. Bring on your orders.

A mistake occurred in the marriage notice of Mr. Slagel and Miss Basy last week. They were married at Dr. Danforth's residence instead of Mrs. Farmer's. We presume the honeymoon of the parties has in no wise suffered in consequence of the mistake.

See ad. of Linforth, Kellogg & Co., hardware dealers, San Francisco.

Republican County Convention.

The Republican County Convention for the County of Jackson will be held at the Court House in Jacksonville at 1 o'clock P. M., on Saturday, the 30th day of August, 1873, for the purpose of electing four delegates to the Republican State Convention, to be held at Albany on September 11th, 1873.

Table with 2 columns: Location and Number of Delegates. Includes Ashland, Jacksonville, Applegate, Big Butte, Eden, Evan's Creek, Foot's Creek, Florence Rock, Goose Lake, Grant's Pass, Leland.

Total 46. Wm. M. Turner, Chairman. T. Cameron, Secretary.

A GREAT FRUIT COUNTRY.—Rogue River Valley is one of the greatest fruit sections in the world. It was thought that the late and heavy frosts of last spring had materially injured the fruit crop; but the wagon loads of apples, pears, peaches, plums, etc., which are daily brought to market amply proves that King Frost nipped but a few early blooms. Were there a market for the products of this valley, it would soon, in a figurative sense, bud and blossom like the rose, and equal the old Hebrew land of milk and honey. There are but few spots on the earth, of the same limited magnitude, which can boast so varied a number of productions. The tropical fig and the hardy apple flourish side by side. Wild black (or dew) berries, raspberries, wild plums, huckleberries, and various other wild fruits grow in great profusion. The cherry and tame blackberry grown here can be excelled nowhere. But it is useless to enumerate further. Rogue River Valley will be the garden spot of the Pacific Coast whenever a sufficient market is provided.

CATHOLIC SERVICES.—Divine services will be held at the Catholic Church by the Rev. Father Demers to-morrow (Sunday) at the usual hour.

Prof. O. S. Fowler.

He has come and gone. Well, what about him? Is he the Fowler who startled the world forty years ago with the announcement that every head betrayed the character of the possessor? Is he the Fowler who has been battling with the medical and theological world for nearly half a century? Is he the Fowler of whom we have read, and about whom we have heard so much? Those who are familiar with his writings know him on first sight, and would single him out from a thousand. He that writes much in these days of literature, when nearly every family is a select school of itself, is known, with all his characteristics, to the millions, and is recognized and trusted as though he were some near friend. So with Fowler. However much the reader may differ with him in relation to his particular views, yet he recognizes in him a friend who has been laboring long and faithfully, and with the greatest energy, to establish truths which he conceives to be of the utmost importance. Men are entitled to credit and confidence by the sincerity they manifest in prosecuting an idea. Hence we can safely say, from the world wide reputation which the lecturer has achieved, added to his long public life without a blemish on his character, that he is entitled to consideration and respect, and so far as honesty of purpose is concerned, worthy of our confidence. His lectures were not as well patronized as they merited, but the audiences were composed of attentive listeners. Some approve his lectures, others condemn them. In the course of his lectures he stated some novel propositions in a very positive manner, which created some opposition. But we believe that all will concede that he stated a great many truths and gave good advice.

To ROAD SUPERVISORS.—JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 21, 1873.

Permit me through the columns of your paper to call the attention of the Road Supervisors to the fact that they are liable to a fine of $25 if they fail to destroy "noxious weeds" growing in their respective road districts. From personal observation, I notice that Road Supervisors are growing quite careless in relation to their duties in this particular. It will be a pleasure to me to go after all Road Supervisors who may be delinquent in this respect at our next term of Court.

J. R. NEIL, District Attorney.

"YOUTH AND MANHOOD."—Rev. Joseph Hammond, of York, Cal., will lecture at the M. E. Church in Jacksonville on Wednesday evening, September 2d, at 8 o'clock P. M. Also at Ashland, in the Academy, Tuesday evening September 2d. The subject upon which he speaks is "Youth and Manhood." Admittance free and a collection taken.

ARRESTS.—A white man was calaboused one night this week, for having a superfluous cargo of "tanglefoot" aboard his stomach.

A Chinaman was arrested yesterday for violating the town ordinance relative to bawdy houses, and waiving a trial, was sentenced to jail five days.

RETURNED.—W. C. Myer has returned from the Umpqua, where he has been exhibiting his blooded Percheron horses. He informs us that he intends to exhibit his horses at the State Fair this fall.

FOR OLYMPIA.—Rev. Noah Starr started this week for Olympia, W. T., for the purpose of attending the Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, which convenes shortly at the place named.

COPPER.—M. Tack, living near Crescent City, presented B. F. Dowell with a fine specimen of copper a few days since.

DIED.—In Jacksonville, Thursday, August 21st, 1873, Wm. Wright.

Professional and Amateur MUSICIANS SHOULD EXAMINE THE COMBINATION SOLO STOPS, found only in Geo. Woods & Co's Organs.

THE VOX HUMANI.—A Baritone solo, not a fan or tremolo.

THE PIANO.—A beautiful toned piano, which will give a pure singing tone, and is the best in the city.

For the very best Photographs, see BRADLEY & BULFON. Gallery without stairs, ascend in the ELEVATOR, 429 Montgomery street, San Francisco, California. Feb. 15, 1873.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Wear and Tear of Life.

The cares, anxieties and misfortunes of life have a tendency to do with shortening it as disease. They are in fact the source of many ailments and physical disabilities. Nervous weakness, dyspepsia, affections of the liver, disturbances of the bowels, headache, hypochondria and monomania are among these distressing fruits. It is, therefore, of great importance that persons whose minds are oppressed with heavy business responsibilities, or harassed by family troubles, or excited by speculation, or perplexed by a multiplicity of cares, in any way overtaxed or overworked, should keep up their stamina by the daily use of a wholesome tonic. The use of persons thus circumstanced are enabled to bear up against the difficulties in which they are involved, and to retain their strength, health and mental clearness, by the regular use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Diseases which are prone to attack the body when debilitated and broken down by over-much brain work or exhausting physical labor, are kept at bay by the resistant power with which this incomparable tonic endows the nervous system and the vital organs. At this season, when the heat is evaporating the elements of strength from every pore, an invigorant is absolutely essential to the safety and comfort of the public, and is required even by the most robust if they desire to keep their athletic capabilities in state quo. Hence a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is particularly useful at this period of the year as a defense against the invisible disease about in a sultry atmosphere. It is the most potent of all preventive medicines, and for all complaints which affect the stomach, the liver and the bowels, and interfere with the perfect digestion and assimilation of food, it is the standard remedy.

All who suffer from coughs, colds, irritation of the bronchial tubes or tendency to consumption, will find in Dr. Wistar's Balm of Wild Cherry a remedy as agreeable to the palate as efficient in removing disease. The Balm is a pleasant remedy; it is a safe remedy; it is a powerful remedy; it is a speedy remedy; it is a remedy that cures.

Great harm and discomfort is caused by the use of purgatives which grip and rack the system. Parson's Purgative Pills are free from all impure matter, and are mild and health giving in their operation.

At this season of the year cramps and pains in the stomach and bowels, dysentery, diarrhoea, etc., are quite common, and should be checked at once. Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is the best article that can be used in such cases, and should be kept in every family. Use internally.
