

Minnesota Republican Platform.

The following resolutions, with two others relating to matters purely local, constitute the platform adopted by the Republican State Convention of Minnesota, which convened on the 16th, ult.

Resolved, 1. That the Republican party continue to be the party of progress and reform; that while pledging itself anew to their great principles of universal freedom and equal human rights with which it has triumphed in the past, and which it has permanently incorporated in government, State and national, it meets boldly new questions as they arise, in the same spirit of devotion to the rights of the people, irrespective of class or condition; and that it presents the first example of a great party wise and just enough to correct its own errors and abuses.

2. That, whereas, the Republican party has ever been the friend of the oppressed—securing freedom to the slave, giving a home to the landless, obtaining from European countries a recognition of citizenship here for adopted citizens—it now greets with a hearty sympathy and extended hand to help every movement to secure to agriculture and labor their due influence, interest and rights.

3. The producing, commercial, and industrial interests of the country should have the best and cheapest modes of transportation possible, and while capital invested in such means of transit, whether by railway or otherwise, should be permitted the right of reasonable remuneration, all abuse in their management, excessive rates, unjust or oppressive discrimination against localities, persons or interests, should be protested against, and the people protected from such wrongs, and all improper and arbitrary use of the growing power of railway and other corporations.

4. That in our opinion no rights should be vested in railway corporations beyond the control of future legislation, and that such laws should be enacted as will limit to just and reasonable tolls, freights and charges of railway and transportation companies and protect the people from imposition; and that the Legislature should attach such conditions to all new grants and amendments or extension of old charters as will place the rights of legislative control over such corporations beyond all question.

5. That we highly indorse the action of the late Legislature in investigating and reforming the abuses in the office of State Treasurer, and heartily applaud the active measures of the late Congress in ferreting out and exposing corruption. We have seen with profound regret, in the developments made thereby, evidence of political and official corruption, and the abuse of responsible positions by men of all political parties, to further personal ends; and we demand pure official conduct and the punishment of unfaithful public men, State and National, who, having betrayed the confidence freely extended to them, shall not be shielded from the disgrace of their acts by any partyanship of ours; and we denounce all Credit Mobilier transactions, whatever be their form.

6. When retrenchment is required to lighten the burden of taxation and to continue the reduction of the public debt, an increase of salary is unwise. We condemn without reserve, the voting for or receiving of increased pay for services already rendered, and demand that the provisions of the late act of Congress, by which the salaries were increased, shall be promptly and unconditionally repealed.

THE CLIMATE OF OREGON.—No country has a better climate than Oregon, and few countries, if any, possess so many other advantages. Those who live there long enough to become acquainted with its many advantages, are unanimous and enthusiastic in its praise. Mrs. Francis Keyser, of Yamhill county, who went with her husband and other relatives from New Hampshire to Wisconsin, thence to Iowa and California, and finally to Oregon, in search of a better climate and country, under date Amity, Oregon, July 27th, 1873, writes to her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Moore, of Washington, D. C., as follows:

"We are having very warm weather. Everything looks beautiful. The trees are loaded with fruit. * * * I like here very much better than any other place that I ever lived. I think it is such a beautiful climate—no tornadoes, no heavy winds, nor thunder showers—and I tell you it seems nice after having lived in such a stormy country."

—State Journal.

A GEORGIA EDITOR describing a wedding lately, said the bride looked a very lily cradled in the golden glimmer of some evening lake—a foam flecked, snowy, yet sun-flushed, crowning the rippling of some soft summer sea." If that were really so, the bridegroom must have been puzzled to know whether he was wedding a submarine conservatory or an Aurora Borealis.

Prospectus for 1873—Sixth Year

THE ALDINE.
An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the best and most readable in the West. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Jew Stores.

THE ALDINE, while loaded with all the regular variety, has none of the temporary or fadily interest characteristic of ordinary publications. It is an elegant, well-illustrated, and a collection of pictures, the latest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although such successful number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of The Aldine will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness as compared with rivals of a similar class The Aldine is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then there are the chromos, besides!

Art Department.
Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscriptions last Fall, when The Aldine assumed its present noble proportions, and representative character, the edition was more than doubled during the past year; proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of ART. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even our most sanguine patrons. The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America.

In addition, The Aldine will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success, and greatest general interest; avoiding such as have become familiar, through photographs, or copies of any kind.

The quarterly illustrated plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' beautiful child sketches, appropriate to the four seasons; three plates appearing in the issue for January, April, July and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

The popular feature of a copiously illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued. To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world, at a cost so trifling, will commend the subscriptions of thousands in every section of the country; but, as the usefulness and attractions of The Aldine can be enhanced, in proportion to the numerical increase of its supporters, the publishers propose to make "assurances doubly sure," by the following unparalleled offer of Premium Chromos for 1873.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a pair of beautiful chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pictures, entitled "The Village Belle" and "Crossing the Moor," are 14x20 inches—Are printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and thus to perfect such pictures, the Chromos are sold for $20 per pair in the art stores. As it is the determination of its conductors to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromos will be found correspondingly ahead of any that can be offered by other periodicals. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent or the money will be refunded. The distribution of the chromos of the grade, free to the subscribers to a five dollar periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of art; and, considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE ALDINE itself, the marvel fills little short of a miracle even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improved mechanical appliances. (For illustrations of these chromos see November issue of THE ALDINE.)

The Literary Department.
Will continue under the care of MR. RICHARD H. KEY STUDDARD, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of THE ALDINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.

TERMS.
FIVE DOLLARS per annum, Old Chromos free. THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rates; each subscription must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate in the bearing the fac-simile signature of James Sutton & Co., JAMES SUTTON & CO., Publishers, 58 Maiden Lane, New York.
