

"Credit Mobilier."

The company called the "Credit Mobilier of America" was incorporated by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, in 1864. Soon after its incorporation its charter and franchises passed into the hands of certain parties who were interested in the Union Pacific Railroad Company, for the purpose of using it as a construction company for that road.

The Result.

The election is over and the victory is to the enemy. As it has ever been a cardinal principle of the Republican party to cheerfully submit to the will of the majority, defeat creates in us no feelings of ill-will towards our political opponents.

Another Mid-air Fizzle.

Too newspaper reporters in San Francisco—undertook to find the celebrated "eastern air current" of Prof. Wise, by means of a balloon. Although they failed to discover the object of their search they did find a "current"—that of the bay of San Francisco, from which they were fished by men on a tug after they had succeeded in getting low enough to jump from the balloon into the bay.

Testimonial to Gen. Sickles.

On the 18th instant the Spanish Minister of War in Madrid presented to Gen. Sickles, our Minister to the Spanish Government, a sword made expressly for him at Toledo. The hilt is ornamented with the arms of the United States, and on the blade are inscribed the names of the battles in which the General was distinguished.

The Northern Pacific Railroad.

The Portland Bulletin of October 18th says:

The New York Tribune publishes the report in full of Herr Haas, Government Director of Railways in Prussia, who was commissioned, in conjunction with Herr Foltz, of Vienna, on behalf of European capitalists in 1871, to explore the regions through which the Northern Pacific Railroad surveys run, and to examine and report on the enterprise in regard to its worth and future, with a view to investment in it.

"To sum up, I cannot deem it advisable that European capitalists should be encouraged to participate in the enterprise of the Northern Pacific Railroad, as in my opinion, after the completion of the line a period will ensue during which the company will not be able to fulfill the obligation it is under, respecting the payment of interest on the bonds. It is certainly possible that this period will not ensue immediately upon the completion of the main line, inasmuch as the branch, equally provided by the charter, will issue new mortgage bonds, out of which the interest may be paid for a while, but this will only postpone, not avert, the crisis.

That the Northern Pacific Railway may be a good and profitable enterprise after the years of its childhood and troubles have been survived, will not be enough to commend it to the European money market; it will have to be proved that the Company will be able during the early years of its enterprise to fulfill all the engagements entered into. In the full consciousness of the responsibility incumbent on me as a member of the European Commission of Experts, I cannot consider that this proof is forthcoming."

STATISTICS OF TELEGRAPHY.—A New York paper of October 9th has this:

President Orton, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, has made a statement of the financial condition of the company. The report is up to June 30th. He says the capital stock of the company at that time was $41,073,410. Total debt of the company, $6,038,400; gross receipts of the year from all sources, $9,433,018 51; gross expenses, $6,575,055 82, leaving a net earning of $2,757,962 69. Of this amount there has been applied to construction, purchase of new lines, etc., $1,722,450 56, leaving a balance to income account of $1,035,512 13. The number of messages in 1872, was 12,444,409. Number for the year ending June 30th was 14,456,892.

PRAYED AT A MARK, and HIT IT.—

Even Professor Tyndall will have to admit the efficacy of special prayer in this case, told of in a late exchange: A clergyman in Columbia, Pa., recently tested the efficacy of prayer by introducing into his supplication the words, "O Lord, bless and enlighten the young man in the pink necktie and the maiden in the blue bonnet and gray shawl, who are profaning the sanctuary by kissing one another in pew number 68;" and we have eminent authority for the assertion that the kissing immediately stopped.

TERRIBLE MORTALITY.—

From the breaking out of yellow fever in Memphis a few weeks ago until October 5th, the total death from that infection was 502. Of this number 146 died the week ending the 5th. And the terrible epidemic has been equally as destructive of human life in other of the Southern cities—most notably at Shreveport, La. Three telegraph operators had died within a few days of each other and five Catholic priests had also yielded to the terrible "black vomit." More priests were going there from New Orleans, to fill up the ranks, and almost as surely their graves.

EARLY WINTER.—

A telegram of October 17th says eight inches of snow had fallen in Wyoming and Utah at that date and that trains on the overland road, due at Omaha, had been delayed several hours in consequence. This is somewhat earlier than has before occurred the beginning of Winter in that region.
