

TOWN AND COUNTY.

CATHOLIC SERVICES.—Services will be held at the Catholic Church in this place, every Sunday, at the usual hours in the morning and evening, Rev. Father Blanchet officiating.

Cherries are fast becoming ripe. Who said they were going to furnish the SENTINEL some?

PICNIC.—The Temperance Lodge contemplate having a picnic in course of a week or two, commemorating the first anniversary of their order in Jacksonville.

Every effort necessary for the successful celebration of the coming Fourth in Jacksonville is being made. A grand time is anticipated.

SEWING MACHINES.—Elsewhere will be found an advertisement of John Neuber's, which will inform you where to purchase good sewing machines at reduced prices. He is now selling machines at 45 per cent. discount from the old prices. Now is your time to get a good machine cheap.

We were handed this week by Dr. Dantorth a catalogue of the Willamette University, medical department. This branch of the University is in an exceedingly prosperous condition. The ninth regular course of lectures will commence on the 15th of December next. Since 1870 fifty have graduated from this medical institute.

Rev. Mr. Skidmore, of Ashland holds service in the M. E. Church next Sunday, to-morrow, evening. He stated last Sunday that he could preach a better sermon to a large congregation than to a small one, and that he would like to have a large attendance out to his meetings.

Mrs. Sarah McGinley Greeley, of the McGinley Troupe, takes a Farewell Benefit to-night. She is, without doubt, the queen of the stage; and her qualities as an actress are of the highest order; she is satiating and pleasing in "comedy," her voice a volume of rich melody, winning crowds of admirers, and her dancing cannot be excelled on the Pacific coast. Every effort to please her audience will be made, and all may expect a rich treat at her last appearance in Jacksonville.

Billy Shook and Dan Cardwell left Jacksonville last Monday for parts not definitely known in California. Billy has been for the past six months a type sticker in the SENTINEL office. He is a good, faithful boy and we wish him a pleasant journey, good health, and prosperity, and also wish Dan the same good things. The boys were general favorites among the young people here, especially of the young ladies who are sorely afflicted by their absence.

The McGinley Troupe positively make their last appearance to-night. During their stay here they have won many friends, and there will, no doubt, be a crowded house. They give an excellent entertainment. Their comedies are well rendered and their specialties irresistible. Miss Mary received tumultuous applause on Thursday night in her character song "Railroad Car," etc., while Master Bobby in his "Big Shoe Dances" with his violin, brought down the house. Go and see them to-night.

THE ALDINE.—Four charming views of the beautiful and little-known scenery in Northern Vermont, head the list of illustrations in the June Aldine, a monthly as rare among other periodicals, as a June day is rare in the year. As heretofore, nothing yet published surpasses in beauty these pictures, which are excellent works of art, and characteristic of the country they depict. "On the Missisquoi," is the first full-page picture, showing the rush and swirl of water, and the rocks and woods of this enchanting river. Another picture, the whole series being from the pencil of Thomas Moran is "A Glimpse of the Missisquoi," as it winds through a peaceful valley, full of quiet beauty. A large full page picture gives the beholder "The Missisquoi at Sheldon Springs," a well known summer resort noted for the romantic beauty of its scenery. "Mount Mansfield from Rice's Hill," is the last of this admirable series. A grand panorama of some forty miles of the noble Green Mountains is shown in this picture. Arthur Parton contributes a full-page "Science on the Shenandoah," which depicts the grand and remarkable scenery near Harper's Ferry, where the waters of the Shenandoah unite with the Potomac, a point which charmed Jefferson.

The literary contents of this number of the Aldine are of greater variety and extent than usual. Subscription price, $5, including chronos "The East" and "The West." James Sutton & Co., publishers, 58 Maiden Lane, New York City.

Machines 45 per cent. cheaper than ever before! He has none but first-class Machines. Now is the time to buy.

OFFICIAL RETURNS OF JACKSON COUNTY. Table with columns for candidates and various districts (Ashland, Madras, etc.) and rows for different offices (Congress, Governor, etc.).

Report of the Literary Society. After the late fire in Jacksonville on April 15th, the Independent Literary Society immediately called a meeting with the intention of giving a series of entertainments, for the purpose of raising money for the sufferers. After a great amount of labor and expense the Society at last gave entertainments lasting three evenings from which was realized $140.00 after paying the following necessary bills:

- Music, $15.00. K. Kubli, $9.87. Sach Bros., $11.12. L. Solomon, $2.50. Mrs. Oliver, $1.00. B. Robb, $4.00. D. Linn, $1.50. George Brown, $1.00. G. Karowski, $0.50. Western Union Telegraph Co., $5.00. Sundries, $1.50. SENTINEL Office, $3.00. Allowed for damages done to Hall, $10.00.

A committee of investigation was appointed by the Society to ascertain who were the actual sufferers. The following named persons were found to have been completely burned out: Messrs. Wm. Kreitzer, J. Wolters, Wm. Boyer, and were therefore entitled to the money; but as Mr. Kreitzer was again in business he thanked the members of the society very kindly for their voluntary aid, and desired his portion to be divided equally between the other two gentlemen, who received $36.50 apiece.

As representatives of the Society we tender our sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness shown us by our numerous friends, respectfully solicit the goodwill and wishes of every one.

At the late Convention of the Press Association in Chicago, Mr. James W. Sheehan, of the Tribune of that city, delivered the address. Referring to the "Personalities of Journalism," he gave these specimens, which rather overdo the so-called "Oregon Style" in unadulterated vilification. One editor, displeased with something published by another describes the offender as a "squirming squirt, a chicken-hearted youth, a diabolical Jackassery. Ape, hog, muller-stock (!) dog-fennel, tumble-bug, and toiling caterpillar!" The person thus addressed evidently hurt by these asseptions, replied that his editorial brother was "all this and more too," and added that he was "the butt out of original sin, the quintessences of double distilled nastiness, a foul bubble floating on the surface of a cess-pool, a dirty mangy dog, and a foul disgrace to his own fleas."

Another journal thus refers to the editor of another paper: "The sneaking thief who prostitutes the editorial chair of the Milwaukee News to vent his spleen upon his betters, seeks to utilize the death of a better man than himself by spitting venom about a transaction he knows nothing of. The only use we can conceive for such a hound as this Calkins is to furnish fat to feed hell fire."

POSTAL TELEGRAPH.—The House Committee on Appropriations in view of the near approach of the adjournment of Congress, have notified the counsel for the Western Union Telegraph Company that the committee cannot give any further oral hearing on the postal telegraph question; but will consider any briefs which may be submitted. It is not considered probable that any action will be taken on the subject this session.

A recent telegram from Bolivia announced the death of Gen. John T. Croxton, United States Minister, aged 87 years. He was a native of Paris, Kentucky, and served in the late war on the Union side.

The crops in Yamhill County are represented as looking well, better, in fact, than ever before at this time of the year. A larger acreage has been sown this year than on any previous one, and the prospect is fair for a large yield.

Seeing is Believing.

If in this literature there are people so blinded by prejudice as not to believe that a medicated stimulant is an item of immense importance in the catalogue of human remedies, we should like them to witness the wonderful effect that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are now producing all over the country in cases of intermittent fever, rheumatism, bilious disorders, dyspepsia, nervous complaints, constitutional debility, mental depression and premature decay. To be sure the effects are nothing new. The great vegetable invigorant and its cures have been before the people for more than twenty-five years, and in every year of the twenty-five its popularity has increased and its name has become larger. Yet there are no doubt many thousands of intelligent citizens who have never had an opportunity of observing for themselves the surprising changes which this unequalled tonic and alterative produces in systems which seem to be hopelessly broken, and in cases of disease which are not amenable to ordinary remedies. Probably many of these regard the statements made in relation to the sanitary properties of the Bitters with some degree of incredulity. Would that all such skeptics could see with their own eyes what the medicine is doing for the sick and feeble every where, what a staff of life it is proving to the aged and infirm, what a help in time of trouble to feeble women suffering from the complaints and disabilities peculiar to the sex, what a protection to health and life in malarious districts, what a panacea for languor and depression, what a specific for all diseases in which the system requires to be vitalized and sustained. Of all stimulants it is the purest and safest, o. all tonics the most genial, effective and agreeable, of all alteratives the least violent and the most certain in its beneficial results.

A correspondent writes from Baker County, as follows: "El Dorado Ditch is now running water to some of the richest mining ground in the world. This is one hundred miles long and carries enough water to supply thousands of men."
