

THE OREGON SENTINEL. TOWN AND COUNTY.

CATHOLIC SERVICES.—Services will be held at the Catholic Church in this place, every Sunday, at the usual hours in the morning and evening, Rev. Father Blanchet officiating.

NEW GOODS.—Several of our merchants received new goods this week.

DIED.—The infant daughter of Hon. E. B. and the late Mollie E. Watson, died on the 18th inst., aged 4 months and 18 days.

MAIL CONTRACT.—Alex. Miller, of Linkville, has the mail contract from Linkville to Longell Valley, Clear Lake, Tule Lake, and back, once a week, at $700 per annum. The distance is 106 miles, and the service is to commence on the 1st of July.

TAKEN TO LAKE COUNTY.—Sheriff Mulholland, of Lake county, and J. H. Hudson and H. Roberts, as deputies, arrived here on Wednesday and returned the next day, taking with them the Brown boys, who are to be tried at the coming term of Court at Linkville.

BALL.—By reference to the proper column it will be seen that a grand ball will be given at Vest Schott's hall on Monday, the 5th of July. Good music has been engaged for the occasion, and we have no doubts but that a very pleasant time will be had.

PRESTO CHANGE.—He has come and gone, and we sadly mourn his departure. He stole in upon us with one of those sunny smiles overspreading his countenance, as silent as a summer zephyr, and as silently vanished from our gaze, and like the one who we read of in Scripture provoked the anger of the Lord, and who it was decreed should wander over the face of the earth for all time, pursued his lonely tramp perhaps to the ends of the earth. Byrns, do they miss him at home, do they miss him?

MAIL BAG FOUND.—A mail bag was found about seven miles this side of Canyonville last Saturday. The bag had been cut open by some one, and its contents had been scattered around promiscuously and in consequence were considerably damaged. It must have been there for some time as letters and papers found were dated from Sacramento March 13th, and also from Jacksonville on the 15th of the same month. Max Muller informs us that this bag was supposed to have been lost and that search had been made for it at the time, but that it could not be found. The persons finding the bag brought it to town and turned it over to Mr. Muller.

IMPORTANT TO HORSE OWNERS.—Professors Rockwell & Hurlburt, the noted horse trainers will visit Jacksonville on Friday Saturday and Sunday July 21, 22, 23, and 24. These gentlemen come to us highly recommended by the press throughout the United States, and Canada, and our horsemen and farmers will do well to turn out and hear what they have to say. Prof. R. will drive his celebrated horses through the streets each day at one o'clock P. M., attached to a wagon without bridle or reins. He will also give a short lecture immediately after which a free exhibition will be given of the best trained horses and dogs in the world. Remember his lecture and exhibition are free. Let him have a good attendance.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The only business for the most part which has been transacted during the past week has been a continuation of the trial of Mrs. Briggs. The examination continued up to and occupied the most of Tuesday, when the counsel on both sides made their arguments, and after Judge Prim had delivered his charge, the jury retired and after being out about 12 hours returned their verdict of manslaughter. The counsel for the defendant then moved for a stay of judgement and a new trial which was overruled. She was sentenced to a fine of $25 and the costs of the case and five years in the Penitentiary. Counsel then gave notice of an appeal to the Supreme Court and a writ pending the appeal she be discharged on bail which was granted and bail fixed at $5,000, which was obtained.

OH HON WAS FOUND GUILTY OF LARCENY AND WAS SENTENCED TO THREE YEARS IN THE PENITENTIARY.

ARRESTED FOR STEALING A WATCH.—A man by the name of H. E. Lockhart was arrested at or near Ritter's place in this valley, by Sheriff Manning on Sunday on a warrant sworn out by a Mr. Birdseye, charging him with taking a watch from the dwelling house of said Birdseye. He at first denied having the watch about him or having taken it from the house, but upon searching him the watch was found upon his person, and was identified by other parties as the property of Mr. Birdseye. He had an examination before Justice Stinson on the same day, and bail fixed at $300, in default of which he was committed to jail. A special Grand Jury, consisting of A. Bish, E. K. Anderson, S. Arrasmith, Lewis McDaniel and R. C. Armstrong, A. H. Boothby and Granville Naylor, were empaneled, who brought in an indictment of larceny in a dwelling house. Lockhart pleaded guilty, and was on Thursday sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. When we knew this man a few years back he was a well-to-do saddler over in Yreka, but it was impossible for him to abstain from drink, until he has finally run the length of his rope, with the result above stated as the natural consequence of this last wrong doing.

DR. CHAPMAN REPUBLICAN NOMINEE, WAS ELECTED MAYOR OF PORTLAND LAST TUESDAY.

COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—During intermission of morning exercises of the Teacher's Institute for first Judicial District, at the suggestion of Prof. L. L. Rowland, State Supt. of Schools, the teachers of Jackson County present, proceeded with the preliminary organization of a Teachers County Institute.

Prof. H. C. Fleming was chosen temporary Chairman, and F. W. Ewing Secretary.

Prof. Rowland briefly stated the object of the organization—"The semi-annual convocation of teachers of Jackson County for mutual intellectual advancement, and social intercourse."

A motion was approved that a committee of three be appointed to draft a constitution, and the following appointed as such: F. W. Ewing, W. J. Stanley, N. H. Clayton.

The Committee's report was received. The constitution was read and approved, and received the following signers: H. C. Fleming, W. J. Stanley, W. A. Perkins, C. B. Fitzgerald, W. J. Savage, J. H. Skidmore, Mrs. S. J. Day, N. H. Clayton and F. W. Ewing.

The following officials were then elected for the ensuing term: H. C. Fleming, President; W. J. Stanley, Vice President; F. W. Ewing, Secretary; Miss Laura Merriman, Treasurer.

A motion that the Committee on Constitution be continued to draft by-laws was adopted.

Members being in haste to proceed with exercises of District Institute, the session closed to convene at option of President and Secretary.

H. C. FLEMING, President. F. W. EWING, Secretary.

"MAIL ROUTE TO FORT KLAMATH VIA LINKVILLE."—Under the above title we observe in the Yreka Journal of the 9th instant, an editorial which is so palpably false in some of the assertions made that we cannot feel justified in allowing them to go uncontradicted. Although the author does not assert that he wants the line from Ashland discontinued, that is the evident intention of the article. We are sure that the people of the Lake basin would not object to an additional line from Yreka connecting with the Ashland line at Klamath River, Linkville or some other point, but that such a route is made important for reason of the present one being impassable for nearly half the year, is an inexcusable falsehood. There has been a mail line in successful operation from Ashland to Lake City, via Linkville, for over three years, and the contractors never fail to make the schedule time—indeed, they are usually some hours ahead of time on arrival at Ashland from Linkville. This route can be kept open quite as easily as the other during the most severe weather. The Lake country having been settled principally by Oregon people, they get the far greater part of their mail via Ashland, and it a Yreka line should be substituted for the present one, it would indeed be a "round the horn" route for the citizens of the Lake country. Again it is quite refreshing to be informed that a number of post offices could be established on the proposed route, "especially at Linkville, the county seat of Lake county," when the line has been operating for several years with post offices at various points and Uncle Geo. Nurse has been regarding himself as a P. M. at Linkville for the whole time.

As to the mail for Fort Klamath, we have only to suggest that as the Headquarters of this Military Department is in Portland, the principal burden of mail to that post must necessarily come by this route.

We regret to see such statements in a journal which has been usually regarded as an exponent of the truth, and we can only account for this case on the hypothesis that the editor has been imposed upon by designing individuals who have axes of their own to grind. A. D. HELMAN, J. M. McCALL, M. BAUM, JASPER HOUCH, J. C. TOLMAN, JAMES KILGARE. Ashland, June 21, 1875.

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.—The following is the report of the Grand Jury empaneled for the June term of the Circuit Court:

We, the Grand Jury for the June term of the Circuit Court, 1875, in and for the county of Jackson, State of Oregon, would respectfully submit the following:

1. We have enquired into the condition and management of the public prison in said county, and find it in good order and condition, and no complaint from the inmates as to their treatment.

2. Into the condition and management of the offices pertaining to the Courts of Justice, and find them all in order, except the floor of the Court room, and the steps on the outside, which would be the better off with slight repairs.

3. Made an examination of the condition and keeping of the public records, and find them in good order and in a good state of preservation.

All of which is respectfully submitted. A. M. BERRY, Foreman.

CORRECTION.—In our account of the arrest of Mr. Doty last week we stated that some of the parties who had acted as bondsmen for his appearance before the Grand Jury, had refused to go on his bond again after the Grand Jury had found a true bill against him. We have since been informed that this was not the case, and that these parties were not called upon to act in this capacity on the second occasion. We are always ready and willing to correct any misstatement of facts that we may make through mistake. We heard the story which was published last week from one who we thought was good authority, and who ought to have been acquainted with the circumstances if anybody at all was.

THE WEATHER.—After a long spell of disagreeable weather, during the past week we have been favored with delightful sunny days and the common remark when meeting a person is—"Whew, isn't it hot!"

COURT IN LAKE COUNTY.—A term of the Circuit Court will be held for Lake County, at Linkville, commencing on next Monday, June 28th. The trial of the Brown brothers, it is supposed, will take place at this term.

FROM GALICE CREEK.

DEAR OREGON SENTINEL: Having wrote to you last week concerning the new discovery of quartz in this camp from hearsay, and from specimens shown me, I now take the privilege of writing again after seeing it myself. On making my trip with the mail last Friday, I met with a gentleman that thought I was humbugged, and that the quartz shown me had been taken in there from Gold Hill or from the Swinden ledge, whereupon I determined to see for myself, and if I had misrepresented the thing I would rectify it before it could go into print. On arriving at Galice City I found Messrs. Scott and Cox there and told them what I had heard. When talking relating my story Mr. Scott invited me to visit the ledge and satisfy myself.

On Saturday morning, in company with five others, I started for the ledge. We traveled some 3 1/2 miles to Quartzville, where we went into Mr. Scott's cabin to rest, and while there examined a lot of fine specimens he had laid away in a flour sack. After resting about a half hour we started on our tramp for the ledge again, passing over the famous Yank ledge and on down Rogue River over a very rough trail for about a mile, which Mr. Cox informed us, was becoming dangerous. We traveled on some two hundred yards farther when foreman Mr. Scott came to a halt, and we all threw ourselves upon the ground for a rest, and while resting here one of our party told rather a laughable story of a Mr. George Weacks passing over this trail in '52, carrying a ten point buck; when he came to this point the buck struck the rock which projects over the trail knocking him and the buck, which was fastened to him, or he to the buck, off the trail, and that they brought up some two hundred feet below, the buck on top, and Weack's knees sinking into the solid bedrock some a inches. We did not see the prints of his knees from the fact that we did not go below to examine; neither did we take much of the story, but was told that Mr. Weack's still lives on Butte Creek to testify to the truth of the statement. After hearing this story we started on again and traveled for about a mile over the roughest trail I have ever over for twenty years, and brought up at the famous ledge. I found the ledge opened some 20 or 30 feet from the water's edge (R. R.) and is uncovered some 15 to 18 feet and is well defined. The wall rock on either side is of a dark green color, while the ledge rock is white and very easily pulverized. The ledge where they lay down on it the deepest I should judge to be about two feet wide. One can clearly see that the ledge is getting wider as they go down on it, and I think they have sunk on the solid ledge from 3 to 3 1/2 feet; the entire ledge as far as I was concerned perfectly level, with the precious metal. I took out one piece of rock weighing 1 1/2 pounds in which no gold was visible to the eye, and after taking this to my residence on Slate Creek and showing it to several persons, I concluded to break it open, and found the inside almost lined with gold. I send you some small specimens taken from it, and any one wishing to examine this rock can do so by calling at my residence. I think the bar where the ledge is discovered is not more than 100 yards in width, and up to this time I do not know that it has been discovered on the mountain, which is very steep and at least 1,000 feet high; but they have traced it across the river and have just the same kind of rock and very rich with gold. I have specimens of that also. There has nothing of any importance transpired since my last. Respectfully, S. McCallister. Galice Creek, June 16th, 1875.

THE ALDINE for June (No. 18 of the current series) has come to hand, and it may be called one of the most substantial numbers of the publication which has yet appeared, appealing, throughout, to the most refined and elevated sentiments. This fact is especially notable in several of the illustrations, "Mother's Darling," the first, being a perfect apotheosis of that holiest and most self-sacrificing of affections conveyed by the name; while in two companion pictures, "The Helping Hand" and "Saved and Lost," the story of man's spiritual peril and his only abiding refuge is told most strikingly. Three fine pictures open the promised series of "Picturesque Europe," in "A Waterfall in the Pyrenees," a gem of Albert Reiger, the original of which formed one of the leading art attractions at Vienna in 1873—and two charming ovals, "Sunset on the Breeze," and "The Heron's Rock," both by picturesque Anvergne. The other full page picture of the number is a graphic "Battle of Bunker Hill," following out the patriotic Centennial series commenced three months ago; and a handsome illustration of Scott, the "Drinking Stag," three noble views of Durham Cathedral, and a portrait of Hon. Luther B. Wyman of Brooklyn, make up the art contents of the number.

In letter press, no story of the session was so plain and yet so sweetly told, as is "A Virginia Girl's Experience at the Fall of Richmond," of which a part is given in this number. The novel of the Revolution, "The Spur of Mommouth," broadens and deepens in interest, and introduces new characters freely enough to indicate a wide field before the conclusion. Besides these, of prose, there are a charming little domestic story, "The Belledun Difficulty," by Florence Allen, understood to be the promising daughter of the lady who taught the world the words of "Rock me to sleep, mother," a pleasant paper on "German-towns," by Chaudos Fulton; the scrappy series by John Thompson Jr. on "His Personal Resemblances," careful papers on "Bunker Hill," on Music, Art and Literature. Then, and to conclude, we have the following poems, all worthy of their place: "The Mother's Darling" (illustrated) by John Hay Furness; "The Best to Come," by a pen of much past honor, that of Mrs. Susan Archer Talley Weir; "June Roses," by Alice Williams; "One Maiden's Way," by C. Woodward Hutson; and "The Brook of Kildare," by Sarah D. Clark—making up a whole of quite the average Aldine excellence, which is all that need be said. The Aldine Company, Publishers, 55 Maiden Lane, New York City.

THE POPE'S organ in Rome gives the Prince of Wales a severe lecture for accepting the Grand Master's office in the Masonic fraternity. It ascribes the downfall of Charles X, Louis Philippe and Louis Napoleon to their connection with the craft, and implores the Prince to take warning before it is too late.

A kind hearted, peace loving Baltimore man painted his front steps twenty-three times trying to get a color to suit his wife, and then she decided that the first color was the best.

Girls, as you value your lives don't get up and get breakfast in the morning. A young lady attempted it one day last week and was burned to death. Show this to your mamma.

CROWDED.—The stage from the North last Tuesday had aboard eleven subjects of the Flowery Kingdom, besides several other passengers.

CAT TREN OUT.—If there are any diseases which deserve the name domestic, Dyspepsia is one of them. It makes the system like a vegetable land, and renders life a burden. The medicine of the Dispensary will not expel it. Get it out with Dr. WALKER'S VEGETABLE VISION BERRIES. There is no form of indigestion or liver complaint that can withstand this potent tonic and alterative. The newly discovered California roots and herbs, from which it is prepared, are of more value to mankind than all the gold in the Pacific States.
