Religious Directory.

M. E. Church.—Religious services every Sunday at the usual hours, by the Rev. J. A. Williams, D. A. Crowell and A. Harrison.

Catholic Services.—Services will be held at the Catholic Church in this place every Sunday at the usual hours in the morning and evening, Rev. Father Blanchard officiating.

M. E. Sunday School.—Regular meeting every Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Catholic Sunday School.—Regular meeting every Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

COUNTY COURT.—In the matter of the alleged insanity of Charles Treps it was adjudged that he was not insane or idiotic and an order made discharging him from custody.

FOR SILVER CREEK.—Quite a number of prospectors passed through Jacksonville last Monday on their way to Silver Creek. They had a four horse outfit with tools and provisions.

DRUMMERS.—The annual migration of these commercial pests has commenced and their numbers indicate great competition or exceedingly dull times in San Francisco. Their name should be changed to "mercantile borers."

SOLD OUT.—H. L. Webb has sold his interest in the "C. O. D." saloon to his partner, J. P. McDaniel, who will continue the business. Jim will always be glad to see his friends, and if any one knows how to treat a friend he does.

BASE BALL CHALLENGE.—The picked nine of Jacksonville challenge any picked nine in Southern Oregon, including Roseburg or Siskiyou, county to meet them here on April 5th in a friendly game. Our boys are open for an engagement.

NEW ROAD.—Mr. Chas. J. Howard, County Surveyor, has just completed the location of about one and three quarter miles of new county road, commencing at the eighteen mile post and running up the right hand fork of Foot's creek.

CAYED ON.—Charles Howard reports that while on Foot's creek on Friday A. Kuster was caved on while working in his claim. He was buried up to his breast with dirt but sustained no serious injuries, and was rescued before the flood from his self-shooting reservoir struck him.

SINGULAR VITALITY.—A short time since a very valuable cow of Mr. Wm. Hoffman's died, and on Sunday some boys discovered her calf in his pasture where it had been concealed for over a week. Circumstances show that it had never tasted food since its birth, and as it is very lively its vitality seems quite remarkable.

LOOKING ROUND.—H. C. Owen, of Eugene City, has been looking round Jacksonville county during the week. Roseburg papers heralded his approach and warned us that Mr. Owen was looking up "swamp land," but he denies it and says he is looking for anything else. In fact he wants anything there is money in. He should buy our fruit dryer.

A NICE LITTLE PET.—At the "C. O. D." saloon may be seen about the smallest bear ever on exhibition. It is of the cinnamon species, six weeks old, and about the size of a small house cat. Jim Stewart has kindly volunteered to raise and educate it, and we venture to say, that it is a more desirable pet now than it will be a year hence.

ASHLAND ACADEMY.—We learn from W. C. Myer that there is a probability that the Academy will be leased by Rev. Mr. Chapman, of the Methodist church, at Ashland. It depends, however, on the assistance and encouragement of the people of Ashland themselves, and they will surely not permit its doors to remain closed. Mr. Myer says there is a misunderstanding with regard to his raising the rent. He did not raise it, but the lessees wished it reduced.

ROCK POINT BRIDGE.—The large population on Foots Creek are complaining of the difficulty they experienced in reaching Rock Point since the bridge across the river has become unsafe. They say that they are now obliged to make a detour of five miles by the Darnalls bridge, making ten miles of extra travel to cross the river, and their case certainly seems to be a hard one. The citizens of Rock Point would be willing to build a free bridge if the county would bear half the expense and intend to apply to the County Court in order to ascertain whether that plan will assist or not.

St. Patrick's day passed off beautifully and quietly, and many of our American born citizens honored the anniversary by "wearing of the green." The "Times" Irish correspondent was not observed in the procession, and it is surmised that he has taken a short tour for his health, unwept by his countrymen.

Bybee Hawkette & Co. are running two giants night and day with splendid prospects. Last week one of the hands shoveled a nugget into the sluice and catching sight of it just as it left the shovel tried to recover it. W. C. Lacy and wife to Chas. Winters, 120 acres in Jacksonville precinct. Consideration, $500.

Eugene L. Avery (alias Archie Brown) and James Johnson, who committed murder in Portland while in the act of robbery, executed their crime upon the gallows in that city on Friday last. Brown made a long speech on the gallows, declaring that he was the chief of a gang of highwaymen in California. The most strenuous efforts were made by mistake people to procure a commutation of sentence without effect. Johnson was from a very respectable family in Wisconsin, and the Governor of that State appealed to Governor Thayer for mercy, but our Executive probably considered that the condemned man's respectability should have restrained him from the commission of crime, and was no good reason for commutation. The gallows in this State has borne a full crop the present year, and it is to be hoped that crime will become less frequent.

FORWARDING.—Elsewhere will be found the advertisement of W. F. Owens and Plymale forwarding agents at Roseburg. They are known by all our merchants and there will be no complaint in the manner in which they will handle their goods. We hear that they have secured nearly all of the forwarding business.

PHOENIX ITEMS.

Our correspondent "A. I. C." sends us the following items from our thriving little sister town:

The hoodlum portion of our community visited John Moreland last week on the occasion of his marriage to Miss [redacted], with various musical instruments. A compromise was affected by sending them to the saloon.

On the 6th John Bell, brother of T. J. Bell of this place, died after a long suffering illness.

While oiling some of the machinery in his mill Phillip Olwell caught his hand in some of the cog wheels and received serious injuries, but is again recovering under the care of Dr. Covert.

A pleasant party was held at the residence of W. Beeson on the 9th in honor of the nuptials of Henry Brophy and Miss Cassie J. Neal.

On the 11th inst. Mrs. Joseph Hookett presented her husband with twins—a boy and a girl—weighing nine pounds each.

A FEARFUL DREAM.—A friend of ours has just related a vivid dream that should bring immediate warning and conviction to the guilty. He was dead. Rising on a cloud of azure and silver he approached the jasper gates of heaven, swinging open their hinges, he was confronted by the benignant St. Peter. "Ah," said the gate-keeper, "welcome, 'tis few that come from Oregon; let us examine your account," and turning to the ponderous ledger as he spoke our friend trembled. "Draw a little," said St. Peter, "played a little pedro for amusement; bet on the fastest horse occasionally, regarded lovely women as God's masterpiece; the last should be charged up as pardonable weakness, and as the venerable keeper of the Heavenly keys looked serenely on our friend he felt happy. "Now," said St. Peter, "how are your virtues? always paid your debts I suppose? Yes replied our friend, 'always willing to give a new note when I couldn't pay the old one.' Subscribed for your county paper I suppose, said St. Peter? "Well no," answered our friend meekly as he saw the cloud that was gathering. "I never did." "How then," asked the warder, "did you get the news—did you steal it?" "Not exactly," replied our friend tremblingly as the great drops of sweat started to his brow, "but read my neighbor's paper." "Wicked wretch, a cardinal sin for which there is no forgiveness," thundered St. Peter, returning to cravelling earth, he once renew your pen by subscription."

The Jasper gates closed with heavy slam, an angry cloud carried him down to earth and our friend awoke to find that his wife had kicked some bed slats loose and the whole outfit had fallen to the floor. Our friend was terror-stricken however and he is now on our books; we are two-fifty richer and he is convinced that the only way to oil the Heavenly gates is to patronize your county paper.

OUR DISTRICT SCHOOL.—Last week we visited our district school and must say that the progress of the pupils under the instruction of Prof. Merritt and his assistants, Misses Godfrey and Miller, is very marked. It is quite evident, however, that the teachers are all over-taxed, and there should be another teacher in the lowest grade. There are now one hundred and eighty five pupils on the register, and to do justice to all of them with the present number of teachers must be almost impossible. We have no hesitation in saying that this school has, owing to the liberality of our people and the labor of Mr. Merritt, reached a point of efficiency never before reached and we believe it is second to no district school in the State. We hope the people of this district will perceive the necessity of maintaining its present standard at any reasonable cost. We hope they will even do better, and while keeping up its standard of excellence, increase its facilities by an additional teacher.

DEATH OF C. H. PICKENS.—We have to announce the death of Mr. Cyrus H. Pickens, a long resident of this county, which took place on Friday night last at his residence. Mr. Pickens had been troubled some time with a cough, and on Friday evening, after eating a hearty supper, was taken with a violent fit of coughing; and remarking quietly that it was his last soon passed away. Mr. Pickens was a native of North Carolina, emigrating to this coast early and settling on Horse creek, Siskiyou county, California, in 1853, and removing to Jacksonville in 1865. Mr. Pickens died in the fullness of years, having passed seventy-seven, and was a devoted member of the M. E. Church and a kind and conscientious member of society. His remains were laid by sorrowing children and a large number of friends who paid their tribute of respect, in our beautiful cemetery on Sunday last. The spirit of the good old man is at rest.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EDITOR SENTINEL.—The persistency with which the "Times" reiterates the charges of incompetency ineptitude and dishonesty against our late Legislature would convey the impression that it is not presided over by the prophetic spirit who last summer boasted of "A Legislature blessed with a Democratic majority of twelve over all," and also that "The gentlemen elected as Democrats, are such in the true sense of the word" and many other assertions of like import, intimating that we might expect something unusually brilliant. But something has evidently gone wrong, and should the "Times" continue to criticize the acts, and hold up to ridicule the delinquencies of a Democratic legislature, the people may discover their mistake and elect Republicans, or some other partisans at the next election. No doubt the "Times" editor would make an excellent Senator or Representative. We would recommend him as a Democratic candidate for the next Legislature.

NEUTRAL.

MINER'S RIGHTS.

One of the most important decisions ever made in California has just been rendered by Judge Keyser of the Marysville District. It restrains the "Little York" Mining Company from depositing the debris from their mine on Bear River to the damage of farms adjacent to that stream. If this decision is sustained by the highest courts it will very seriously impede mining operations, or compel miners to secure agricultural interests against damage before washing dirt into any streams having ranches located on their banks.

MARRIED.

NORTON-BALL.—At the Presbyterian Church in Phoenix, March 16th, by Rev. M. A. Williams J. D. Norton and Miss Abigail Ball.
