RECOVERING.—Mrs. Dr. B. A. Ford, of Salem, arrived here on Thursday morning last. She is attending on her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Robinson, who has been dangerously ill but, it is thought, is now in a fair way to recover.

RETURNED.—Mr. George Elliott has returned from San Francisco where he purchased a large stock of goods which will soon arrive. It will be remembered that nearly all his last stock was burned at Hardy Elliff's, but George seems determined to make it stick.

NEW MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.—E. C. Brooks has just received two German Zitheras from San Francisco which can be seen by calling at his store. These instruments are equal to any seven octave piano and the music furnished as sweet as that of the finest Steinway.

INSURE.—Notice the advertisement of the State Investment. Insure your dwellings or places of business, now that the dry season is approaching, and feel safe. This company is a home one that takes no wealth from the State and is represented by Mr. J. Nunan in Jacksonville.

MATRIMONIAL.—The Yreka papers announce the marriage of W. J. Wallis, manager of the Western Union Office to Miss Etta L. Sleeper. Shake hands, Wallis, may the "circuit" of your conjugal love never be broken, and may you be the best "repeater" in the service of the W. U. T. Company.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT.—The Amateur Dramatic Association will give an entertainment on Saturday evening next at Veit Schutz' Hall which promises to be an excellent one, Doors open 7:30. Performance to begin at 8. Tickets fifty cents. Patronize home talent and see the talent we have at home.

MILITARY.—Brigadier Genl. Reames has appointed the following officers on his staff: William Mason Colvig, Assistant Adjutant General with the rank of Major; Captain, Silas J. Day, and Charles Nickell, Aid-le-camp. The General can lean upon this staff with the utmost safety and the "pomp and circumstance of glorious war" will be still more grand when these chieftains are provided with "mush paddles" by one of our prominent furniture manufacturers.

ADJUDGED INSANE.—Miss Emma Nail, daughter of James Nail, of Williams creek, was examined on Thursday last before Judge Day, by Drs. Aiken and Vrooman, and pronounced insane. The unfortunate young lady had been attending our district school and since the holidays her health had been failing and together with excessive study is probably the cause of her sad condition. Her brother and sister, Mrs. Kincaid, started with her on Friday for the Asylum, at East Portland, where it is hoped she will soon be restored to health and intellect.

The rush still continues to Silver creek and the mountains between Rogue river and Illinois will, no doubt be thoroughly prospected this summer.

Sheriff Bybee has a mocking bird named "Beecher" out at his ranch. From the tone of his voice he must be the "fiend" referred to by the "Times."

Joe. Clough's smiling face is again seen on our streets. He has lately returned from Briggs' creek where he located a claim that we hope has "millions in it."

Mr. N. Robinson, father of Dr. Robinson, arrived here from Gervais on Friday morning last. He will remain until Mrs. Dr. Robinson is considered out of danger.

Those going to Silver creek will bear in mind that Thornton's, the old Hayes place on the Kerbyville road, is the point of departure from the settlement. Prospectors can find bacon, flour and dried fruit at Mr. Thornton's.

The initial number of the Coos Argus, published by A. E. Wagstaff, is at hand. It is a bright readable paper, full of news, and showing editorial ability. Published at Empire City and Republican in politics. Success to it.

Mrs. P. P. Prim, wife of Supreme Judge Prim, returned to her home in Jacksonville on Saturday night's stage from the North. The Judge will probably remain in Salem for a couple of months as the Supreme Court docket is still heavy.

Elsewhere notice the advertisement of "Turk," Robt Westrop's Timoleon draught-horse. He is highly recommended by stock raisers both in this and Douglas counties and those wanting good, hardy and kind stock will do well to consider his good qualities.

We observe Mrs. Henry Pape, the most enthusiastic florist in Jacksonville, very busy arranging her fine garden. Flowers are for the poor as well as for the rich, as in our frequent passing and repassing we enjoy the fruits of that excellent lady's labor as well as she.

On Sunday last a party went over to Herling's in Veit Schutz's wagon and when going over a rough part of the road the hind wheels went into a chuck hole throwing Mrs. Fred Grob out backwards to the ground. She fortunately sustained only slight injuries.

Col. Ross has returned from his trip to La Grande. He informs us that suit is to be commenced against the securities of Hendershott the defaulting Register of the State Land Office at once. McComas, the successor of Hendershott, seems to have adiusted his irregularities in a satisfactory manner.

The state of the "Mercury" in Salem indicates that the climate of the capital is exceedingly warm for Gov. Thayer. Bro. Cornell is continually sticking sharp pins in his excellency, which, considering the interest taken in him last June, is real naughty. We believe "Wilbur" would gladly swap "good old Walt" for "Beeky" now?

Pedro and Beecher, two valuable animals of Wm. Bybee's will be found, one at his farm near town, the other at Eagle Point until July 1st. They are thoroughbred Jacks imported direct from Kentucky. Stock raisers must take note of the continual demand and high price of mules and ask themselves if there is not money in raising them.

On the outside will be found a letter to the S. F. "Call," in reference to Crescent City as a harbor of refuge, which will be read with interest. We hope that Crescent City will be selected, as that is our only hope for an outlet to the sea. Geographically, we belong to California. Our business connections are with San Francisco. We have nothing in common with Northern Oregon except our liability to pay State taxes, and we do not derive a dollar of benefit from our traffic with the North. Therefore we hope Crescent City may be selected.

MINING NOTES.

Piping still continues at the Centennial at Willow Springs with every indication that the ground is paying well.

The claim of V. S. Ralls, at Willow Springs, is paying five ounces per day for the work of four hands, ground sluicing.

Chinaman Lin's ground is evidently better than it was last year when it paid over a hundred dollars per day to the pipe.

Frank Ennis is pushing work at the Sterling. He is working in rich ground and there is every indication of an immense wash up.

News from Silver creek is still favorable. A piece worth nearly seven hundred dollars has been found in the claim of Black & Co. Plenty of bacon and other supplies at Thornton's, where the trail to the mines leaves the stage road.

News from Briggs' creek, in Josephine county, is flattering. Ferren & Co. have recently found very heavy gold in their claim, one nugget weighing $37 and another $26, being found in the gravel three feet from the bed rock.

The Squaw Lake Co. are still troubled with their ditch breaking as the continued rains keep the ground from settling, a serious break occurring last week. It has been repaired, however, and the company are again piping.

Robb, Eckleson & Co., of the Star Gulch mine, made a partial clean up last week after eight days run, washing up sixty-one ounces. It is known that there is still a considerable amount in their rock race which will not be cleaned up till the end of the season.

A WORD TO THE "TIMES."

The "Democratic Times" of last week had the following:

We were aware that Sheriff Bybee had no intention of attending to the duties of his office personally. Yet, no one expected that he would entrust the management thereof to an insolent deputy who takes a fiendish delight in arbitrarily exercising the petty authority he is accidentally invested with.

Should I deem it necessary to ask advice regarding my official duties, the "Times" man's counsel would be the last called for. So far as his criticism is concerned, to use his own language, it is simply "insolence." Having given good and sufficient bonds for the honest performance of the duties of Sheriff I propose to see that they are efficiently attended to. When the public interest is likely to suffer from any negligence of mine or that of my deputies, it will be time for this self constituted censor to seek distinction through the exercise of his eminent journalistic talent. Meantime he should recall to mind the fact that no infamous litigant law, for the exclusive benefit of ring organs, exists in the State.

WM BYBEE, Sheriff.

FREAK OF NATURE.—About ten days since a mare of Mr. William Penniger gave birth to a foal having three fore legs. The two fore legs were perfectly formed and in their proper place; one of its hind legs was also well shaped and proportioned but where the other shoulder should be is a shoulder and a fore leg somewhat mal-formed and with the knee joint bending out sideways. The foal was fully grown but dead when born.

TELEPHONIC.—There are two acoustic telephones in operation in this city, one between the residences of Dr. Wm. Jackson to Judge Duncan's, a distance of about one thousand feet and another from Dr. Jackson's to Mr. Turner's residence. They are working with perfect success and the wonderful accuracy with which they transmit conversation is only equalled by their simplicity. Dr. Jackson will give any information concerning them.

GOOD FRIDAY.—The day after to-morrow will be "Good Friday," one of the holiest days in the Catholic calendar. There will be no mass on that day, the church will be draped in mourning and no bell will be tolled as the day is observed in sacred commemoration of the Savior's death and passion. Services will be held in the Catholic Church at 7:15 P. M., appropriate to the occasion.

CORRECTION.—It was the Jacksonville Lodge I. O. O. F. that furnished Ashland Lodge with jewels and regalias, the latter having lost theirs in the late fire. An item is going the rounds of the press crediting the Odd Fellows of Yreka with having supplied their destitute brethren.

EASTER SUNDAY.—Next Sunday will be the end of Lent and the beautiful day of rejoicing in the Catholic Church. On that day the Church will be arrayed in its holiday attire. Services will be held at 10:30 A. M., and a musicial festival will be given by the young ladies of the choir.

GOD HELP THE POOR.

BY WILLIAM ANGUS MCPHERSON.

An old man and his little daughter about thirteen years old called at the residence of a wealthy farmer in California recently and asked for work. The proprietor, supposing them to be tramps, and having plenty of Chinese help, turned them away. Next morning they were found dead on the margin of a small stream, the childs head pillowed upon her dead fathers breast. They had evidently died of fatigue and starvation. It was afterwards ascertained that they were from the East and had been unable to find employment. [Eastern paper.

"What do I want?" Work if you please,
I've traveled far and know these knees
Shake and tremble, but a little rest
Will give me strength. I will do my best
To earn for myself and darling here,
Bread and shelter—curse the tear
That comes unbidden when I should be
Firm as a rock in the storm-vexed sea.

"Who is she?" The child at my side,
My daughter sir, I would have died
Rather than bear what I have borne,
Begging for toil from early morn
'Till the sun went down, at the close of day,
Only to be turned with a scowl away;
Had it not been that her fulling breath,
Nerved me up for the race with death.

"Why am I poor?" Spare me the pain
Of telling the sad tale over again.
Though I record a story of wrongs untold
That fires my blood, though I am old,
'Till every drop that flows to my heart
Pierces [illegible] like a poisoned dart,
And my soul recoils in its prison cell,
Dark as the Turkmans paints his hell.

Once, in the Heat of a sunny home,
I had wealth and friends; both have flown,
And of those who sat round the ingleside,
Save this frail darling, all, all died.
Then I turned from their graves newly made,
'Neath the sombre pall of cypress shade,
And, allured by the fame of your golden shore,
Sought, in this fair land to increase my store.

Great God how I've struggled: Early and late
Into I battled in vain with cruel fate.
From the palace homes of your cities grand,
To the farmers out, where the generous land
Yields wealth and plenty to frugal care,
I've traveled and begged for a little share
Of the toil, performed by a menial train
Of Mongol slaves, but begged in vain.

"Begone" did you say? Then come my child,
I will not curse him, though a tempest wild
Of pent up anguish for the wrongs you bear,
Surges and seethe in my breast—but swear
I will not, now, for the end is near.
See how the stars beam forth my dear,
Let us seek you grave by the riverside,
We will there find rest. Heaven be our guide.

* * * * * * *

'Tis morn. Dew drops glow like a silver sheen
On each willow bough of emerald green.
The birds are singing their matin song
And the suns first rays cast shadows long
Toward the west, where gurgling rills
Come rippling down from the verdant hills.
On the father's breast was pillowed the head
Of the fair young child. BOTH WERE DEAD.

'Twas a sad, sad scene. To her marble lips
Was pressed [illegible] covered symbol, a crucifix.
While murmuring on the morning air
Seemed to linger still her last fond prayer.
God pity the poor, where Mamon's sway
Imprisons the soul from the light of day,
And honor, and virtue, and truth are sold,
To increase the hoard of a rich man's gold.

HOW HE FOUND IT.—A few days since when Gin Len, the Boss Chinaman of Applegate, was on a visit to Jacksonville, his box of jewelry, containing also a small sum of money, was stolen. On his return Len was informed of the fact and he and his steward made up their minds that the thief was in their own camp. That evening the Chinamen, numbering about twenty, were gathered in a large room of the cabin, the occurrence mentioned and all enjoined to assist in recovering the missing box from the evil "Joss" who was accused of taking it. First some incantations were gone through with that were of very imposing nature. Next every light was extinguished and the men marched in single file several times around the outside of the cabin, on each round passing through the darkened house. Strange to say, after this performance had been repeated a number of times the relighting of the lamps revealed the stolen box on the table and yet none of the boys knew which one had been in communication with the devil. Len is satisfied, he got his valuables and some thieving rascal in the camp saved his credit and queue.

MAY DAY BALL.—There will be a ball at the House of Mr. J. P. Knight at Wilderville, on the evening of Thursday May 1st. The very best of music has been secured, and as Mrs. Knight is well known as a provider and "Joe" as the best of landlords a splendid time may be anticipated.

Let the People Look to Their Interests.

READ AND REFLECT.

Mr. EDITOR.—It is the duty of every citizen to assist in guarding the interests of the whole people of the county and State of which he is a resident. Nor need he be untrue to himself in doing so, for that which inures to the interest of one is an advantage to all in a public point of view. These thoughts are suggested by an effort now being made by certain parties interested in business at Rock Point to induce the county to pay from four to five thousand dollars to aid in the construction of a free bridge across Rogue River at that point. A petition is being circulated over the county at this time and citizens are being importuned to sign the same asking the County Commissioners to appropriate the amount of money above named for the purpose stated.

Be it known that Thos. Chavner has now a splendid new bridge across the river, one and a-half miles above Rock Point, where the stages carrying the U. S. mails and all other travel cross at the most reasonable rates. And this bridge is situated on the most direct route from all parts of this valley South of Rock Point leading to the North. The road is better in every respect than that leading from Dardanells to the old bridge, and it has been rendered so by the individual enterprise of Mr. Chavner. Every one who has ever travelled the road knows that near the old bridge, on the South side of the river, it is rough and dangerous because of its rocky condition. There have been enough wagons broken on that almost impassable portion of the road in the last five years to pay for the construction of a bridge better than the old one. The road on the South side of the river, leading to the new bridge, is gravelled and passable for all manner of vehicles at all times of the year. Mr. Chavner has spared neither time nor expense in making it so without asking the county or any one else for a single cent. Then why this effort to add to the heavy burden of taxation already borne by the property owners of the county in the construction of a free bridge. Rock Point makes nothing in the operation, as the road leading from Chavner's bridge North passes directly through that village.

So far as the people of Foot's creek are concerned they constitute but a small portion of the population of the county, numbering only thirty or forty voters, and while their interest are to be guarded with those of other citizens they are too magnanimous to expect all to become subordinate to their special and exclusive wants. If it is inconvenient for them to receive their mail at Rock Point they can apply for and have a mail of their own. The old bridge at Rock Point has long been a "white elephant" on the hands of the county authorities. It has been condemned as unsafe by the County Court for four years, and it is located on no county road. The location is in no respect equal to that where the new bridge is constructed. On the North side of the river the apron has been once washed away, and Chavner's bridge would be safe when the old one would be washed away. Nor can there be one constructed at Rock Point that would be safe from high water except at the heaviest cost.

Again, in regard to the people of Foots creek: It is not especially necessary that they should purchase their goods and groceries at Rock Point. Merchants at Jacksonville sell equally as cheap, and certainly do not feel disposed to be taxed heavily to divert trade away from themselves. I am an old resident of this county. All my interests are here. Not one cent of my capital is invested elsewhere, but the county receives taxes on every dollar I possess.

Now, taxpayers of Jackson county, in conclusion one more word. Our taxes are now high. This effort to increase the burden is in the interest of a few individuals and not for the benefit of the whole people. Chavner's bridge is safe and the approaches to it are good. Footmen pay nothing for crossing, and all others cross at reasonable rates. Be careful then when asked to sign a petition to increase your burden, to please the caprice of a few parties who imagine that they can hoodwink the public and thereby put money in their own purses. I have too much confidence in the Board of County Commissioners to believe for a moment that they will listen to a proposition to swell the taxation of the people, either to wrong me or to favor others.

THE OLD MOUNTAIN TRAPPER.

DOWELL VS. GRISWOLD.—From a private letter received by Mr. Cardwell we learn that B. F. Dowell is slowly winding the toils around Griswold. He has obtained an order for the appointment of a receiver of Griswold's brick block in Salem, renting for $400 per month, and is sure of securing two dwellings that rent for $30 per month. He intends trying issue with Hill, Durham & Thompson, who obtained the Agricultural works at half their value, under a decree for $10,000, the amount of their fee for services to Griswold. Between Dowell and his own attorneys William will soon be a squeezed lemon.

Mr. Merritt will give the pupils of the school a holiday on May 1st in order that they may have a pic-nic. The brass band have kindly volunteered their services and will give a ball in the evening.

The Fine Draught Horse

"TURK,"

WILL STAND FOR MARES the ensuing season at the following places, commencing April 1st and ending July 1st, 1879:

At Manning's livery stable, in Jacksonville, April 1st, Wm. Penniger's 2d, Westrop's farm on the 3d, 4th and 5th, Pennigers's 6th and at Phoenix, at G. W. Bailey's stable, on the 7th, 8th and 9th, alternating at each place in the order named during the season.

Description and Pedigree.

TURK is 10 years old this Spring. His sire was Arabian, out of a Timoleon mare. His dam was French. He is a dark chestnut sorrel, with white points, 17 hands high and weighs 1,500 pounds in working condition. Competent judges agree that his colts will compare favorably with any yet produced in the State, and he is highly recommended by the leading stock-raisers of this and Douglas county, where he has made several seasons. Look at him before breeding.

TERMS—$15 for the season, payable in cash, grain or note on the 1st day of July.

ROBERT WESTROP.
April, 1879.

The Fast Trotting Stallion,

OPHIR!

WILL STAND THE PRESENT SEASON OF 1879, commencing on April 1st and ending July 10th. He will be at Ashland Tuesdays and at Phoenix Wednesdays; the rest of the week at Manning's stable, in Jacksonville.

DESCRIPTION.—Ophir is a beautiful dark chestnut, without mark or spot, 15 hands 3¼ inches high, and weighs 1,200 pounds, of a splendid mild disposition, and will be 10 years old on the 15th day of July.

He has a Record of 2:35.

PEDIGREE.—Ophir was sired by the celebrated trotting stallion Kentucky Hunter, he by Broken Leg Hunter, of New York; grandsire, Sorrel Hunter; great grandsire, Old Kentucky Hunter; great-great grandsire, Highlander.

Sorrel Hunter's Dam was a Sir Henry mare from Kentucky, from which the name Kentucky originated, the name of Hunter was derived from his English Hunter blood.

Kentucky Hunter's dam (from a Moonshine Mare,) was sired by the trotting stallion Harden Hunter; grandsire, Sorrel Hunter; great grandsire, Old Kentucky Hunter; great great grandsire, Highlander.

This is a correct pedigree of Kentucky Hunter, and makes him about seven-eighths Hunter; or perhaps, better known as Messenger blood, and which has been thoroughly proven to be the fastest and best stock of horses ever introduced into the United States.

Ophir's Dam was sired by David Hill; her dam was sired by Prince Albert, a Messenger owned by William Reynolds, of Colusa County, California. Ophir's dam is now owned in Santa Clara County by Dr. C. L. French; her dam is owned by D. M. Reavis, of Butte County. They are both fine, large and splendid roadsters.

Pedigree of Ophir's Dam's Sire—David Hill was sired by Black Lion; he by David Hill's celebrated trotting stallion Black Hawk; he by Sherman Morgan; he by Justin Morgan, and he by True Briton, who was imported from England and used by General DeLancey as a charger on Long Island in 1777. Carl Hill's Dam was got by Hambletonian; he by Abdallah; he by old Membrino, and he by Imported Messenger. The dam of Hambletonian was Charles Kent's mare by imported Bellfounder.

TERMS—Single service $10, payable in advance. For the season, $20, payable at the end thereof. Insurance $40, payable when it is ascertained that the mare is in foal.

All possible care will be taken by an experienced hand, who thoroughly understands the treatment of mares and horses, to avoid accidents; but will not be responsible should any occur. Pasturage furnished at reasonable rates. S. L. DANIELS, Proprietor.
JOHN COWAN, Groom.
