The first imported French stallion that came west of the Alleghanies came into Union The first imported French stallion that came west of the Alleghanies came into Union county, O'o, in 1851. This borse was called LOUIS NAPOLEON and showed the great value of this stock. Up to 1869 there were sixty-two more imported into the United State and in the last ten years there have been five hundred and sixty-six imported. Some or less in Ohio and Illinois give business to from twelve to fifteen imported stallions, as nomber of grades.

The grat of this stock are now going into the Chicago and New York markets and readily bring from fifty to seventy five per cent. more than the common stock of work horses. The above shows the reputation this stock has where they have had over a quarter of a century's experience with them.

ter of a century's experience with them.

See the money brought into this county by the sale of WHITE PRINCE colts and fil-lies. There have been forty five head sold and taken out of this county which brought $13,-317, an average price of near $296 each. They were mostly sold when under two years old—many of them at weaping time. They were taken to California, Eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho Territories. Favorable reports have come from all, and in several instances the purchasers have ordered or came and bought more, WHITE PRINCE has not made a reason here since 1873.

Every business man knows that large, well formed horses have always been in demand at good prices. There has been a good deal said that the Percheron stock that I have introduced on this coast at great cost was a failure, a humbug, and did not suit the wants of farmers and teamsters, &c. These parties that give currency and credit to the above are, no doubt, interested in some other stock and never owned or gave the Percherons a

Hear what RELIABLE MEN, that are well known in this county, say on this matter;
We, the understaned, having bred, owned or used colts sired by the imported Percheron horses introduced into Oregon by W. C. Slyer, of Ashland, believe this stock to be a VALUABLE ACQUISITION TO OUR STATE, as those bred here all show their origin in a VERY MARKED D GREE, having a square, solid make-up, with good bone, fine form, kind disposition and good action for animals of their size. Those old enough to work give good satisfaction on the farm or road as team animals, and find a ready market at the highest prices for which work horses are sold. The produce from the half-bloods, colts and fillies, show the Percheron blood.
