MINING NOTES.

New diggings has been discovered on Dutch gulch, a tributary of Briggs' creek, in Josephine county, and miners have commenced flocking in and locating claims.

The Palmer creek company cleaned up this week and suspended for the season. We learn that the result proves the mine to be a valuable one.

Klippel, Hanna & Co. have now commenced piping in earnest with excellent prospects. This company will have water during the greater part of the Summer.

Water has commenced falling in most all of the mining camps of this and Josephine county and a clean up will soon be made. The season has been a very short one but the returns promise to be good nevertheless.

Al McKenzie, Superintendent of the Centennial Mining Co., at Willow Springs, will return to Oreg., this week. He expects to secure a "Little Giant" while absent, and return next Fall to continue operations on a larger scale.

The news from Briggs and Silver creek continues encouraging. A man from the first mentioned creek arrived at Grants Pass yesterday who reports three hundred men in that locality. Most of the men have claims, and ground sluicing has been commenced in earnest with good prospects.

THE GRISWOLD CASE.—Judge Sawyer yesterday announced his opinion in the case of W. C. Griswold, plaintiff in error, against the United States, reversing the case and remanding it to the district court. The points decided by Judge Sawyer briefly stated are as follows: In a civil case in which the right to recover depends on the question whether the defendant has committed a crime, the crime must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt. Second, the knowledge of an agent will not charge the principal, when crime is the subject of inquiry, unless the defendant has actual knowledge of the facts known to the agent. The case was twice tried before Judge Deady, the first trial resulting in a disagreement of the jury, and the second in a verdict against Griswold for $35,000. The reversal of the case by Judge Sawyer will make other proceedings in the district court necessary. It is just to Judge Deady to say that after a more full examination of the case than he was able to make at the trial he concurred with Judge Sawyer in the second point made in his decision.—"Oregonian," April 23d.

SPLENDID TEAM.—Mr. Wm. Spangler started on Monday for Reading with the finest team and outfit that ever left this valley. His team is an eight horse one, all splendid draught animals, the wheelers weighing thirty hundred, and the whole team hold their heads as if attached to a royal equipage. The main wagon is a regular prairie schooner of the most substantial make, with a trail wagon attached with coupling that forces it to track while rounding a curve. The whole outfit is complete in every respect, and is equal to any we have ever seen in any country. Mr. Spangler was loaded with ten thousand pounds of freight, consisting of flour, bacon, eggs and grain, and was bound for Reading by way of Weaverville, and will bring back a similar amount of return freight. A few such enterprising teamsters as Spangler would place us beyond the want of a narrow gauge or any other kind of a railroad.

LAKEVIEW MAIL ROUTE.—No definite arrangements have yet been made in regard to the carrying of the Lakeview mail, as the figure specified by the Postmaster General is so low that it will not justify any . . . . .

EDITOR SENTINEL.—In the "Democratic Times" of last week appears a card from Mr. Jay Beach challenging me to match the colts of Sir Walter with those of Altamont for five hundred dollars. This proposition is hardly fair, as the foals of Altamont are all from fine mares and those of Sir Walter are from cold blooded stock. The time, "one and two years from next fall," is also too far off to suit me. To satisfy Mr. Beach and the admirers of Altamont I will make a fairer and more decisive offer, and one that will save the trouble of taking Altamont to Reno this fall. I will match Sir Walter against Altamont on the trotting track at Yreka in October next for one thousand dollars, five hundred dollars forfeit, to be placed in the hands of C. C. Beekman in Jacksonville by the first day of June next, the race to be mile heats, best three in five, and governed by the rules of the National Trotting Association. This is certainly the squarest manner of deciding the speed qualities and endurance of the two horses. Respectfully,
GEO. W. STEPHENSON.
Jacksonville, April 30th, 1879.

DUTIES OF POSTAL AGENT.—There is a misapprehension in the public mind in regard to the power and duties of a Postal Agent. Many suppose that his authority is supreme and that he is able, on the shortest notice, to correct all shortcomings of mail contractors, postmasters and others concerned in the transmission of mails within the bounds of his jurisdiction. This is a mistake. He is the confidential agent of the Government, and it is his duty to report all omissions of duty, by those who are in the postal service, over which he has authority, to the Post-office department at Washington, and before corrections can be made the regular red tape procedure has to be gone through with from head quarters down to the point where complaint originates. A Postal Agent is generally held responsible for much more than is his share of responsibility in regard to irregularities in the mails.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.—The following transactions in real estate have been recorded since the last issue of the SENTINEL:

Jas. A. Cardwell and wife to John Williams, premises in Jacksonville. Consideration, $160.

O. Weare to John Mattis, 120 acres in Foot's creek precinct. Consideration, $400.

John Williams to Minerva Williams, lot in Jacksonville. Consideration, $1.

Rhoda T. Vault to G. H. Aiken, lot in Jacksonville. Consideration, $400.

F. E. Center to P. J. Ryan 160 acres land on Dry creek. Consideration, $70.

K. Kubli to Jacob Kubli, 161 acres land on Applegate. Consideration, $2,000.

Clinton Scheiffin to D. N. Birdseye, 43-100 acres land on Rogue River. Consideration, $1.

D. N. Birdseye to C. Schieffin, 18.37 acres land on Rogue River. Consideration, $260.

JACKSONVILLE FIRE LIMITS.—The following amendment to ordinance No. 66 was passed at the last session of the Board of Trustees:

That it shall be unlawful for any person, company or corporation to erect or construct any wooden building in that portion of the town of Jacksonville, known and described as block No. 2 and No. 7, as laid down on the map of said town, or to alter or change any wooden building within said blocks so as to increase the size or height of such building: "Provided" that nothing in that ordinance shall be construed to

THE PIC NIC TO-MORROW.—The members of the Jacksonville Brass Band, under whose charge the May Day picnic is held, inform us that the young folks are to assemble at the Court House at 9:30 A. M., where the procession is to be formed and the following exercises to take place:

1. Music by the Band.
2. Address by Andrew Hubble, May King.
3. Crowning of May Queen.
4. Song by the Maids of Honor, God Bless the Queen of May.
5. Music by the Band.

The procession will then form and march through the principal streets to Bybee's Grove, where an address will be delivered by Robt. A. Miller. An interesting programme has been arranged for after dinner, to consist of wheelbarrow races, foot races, etc. for the boys, and target shooting with bows and arrows for the school girls, for which prizes will be offered. The Jacksonville Band will furnish music during the day and an enjoyable time for the young folks is anticipated. E. D. Foudray will be Marshal of the Day.

"We have just received from N. Gray, 117 Post Street, San Francisco, an exquisite little ballad entitled Grandfather's Home." It has simple heartfelt words, wedded to a melody that leaves a lasting impression on the hearer; that brings to mind the good old time songs, "Old oaken bucket," "Old Kentucky home," "Lily Dale," etc. Mr Gray informs us that his California song, "Where is Heaven?" has caught the fever of popularity in the Eastern States; which means orders from 100 to 500 copies a day. Either of those two pieces will be mailed on receipt of 35 cts. stamps.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.—Alfred Slocum, representative of the large and well known firm of Frank Bros. of Portland, dealers in agricultural implements, is now in this place looking after the interests of his firm. Frank Bros. are agents for Walter A. Wood's machinery, Chicago Pitts' threshers, and all of the standard and latest improved agricultural machinery of the day, and farmers will do well to examine their price list. Mr. Slocum will only remain a few days longer before returning to Roseburg. Reams Bros. are the local agents for this firm.

Hon. F. Owens, the gentlemanly agent of the Patrons of Husbandry, of Douglas county, is making some very substantial improvements to the Grange warehouse in this city. When the present addition is completed it will have a storage capacity of over 100,000 bushels. The company expects to have use for it the coming Fall.—"Plaindealer."

Poor Old Sammy Tilden is still gripped severely because his confederate friends were unable to bulldoze him into the Presidency. In a recent letter to a Democratic saturnalalia he vented his grief pitifully, and insinuated that his bar'l was not yet exhausted. Sammy knows how to awaken Democratic enthusiasm.

PASTURAGE.—Robt. Westrop, owner of the draft stallion, Turk, has leased Hall's pasture, adjoining Penniger's ranch, containing plenty of good feed and running water, and will be prepared to furnish pasture for $1.50 per month. The best of care guaranteed.

While coming home from Ashland last Sunday J. H. Penn had a narrow escape from having an accident. His horse, hitched to a sulky, shyed at some object in the road and went over a steep bank just this side of Ashland. He escaped with a few bruises.
