Religious Directory.

M. E. CHURCH.—Religious services every Sunday at the usual hours, by the Reverends M. A. Williams, D. A. Crowell and A. Hardison.

CATHOLIC SERVICES.—Services will be held at the Catholic Church in this place every Sunday at the usual hours in the morning and evening. Rev. Father Blanchet officiating.

M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL.—Regular meeting every Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

CATHOLIC SUNDAY SCHOOL.—Regular meeting every Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

ON A VISIT.—Walter Sutton, formerly a type of this office, but now a resident of Ellensburg, and present County Clerk of Curry county, arrived on a visit on Monday last. He will remain a week or so before returning.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—To-morrow evening Mrs. P. Annetta Peckham will lecture on temperance, at the M. E. Church. The lady is highly recommended by the press of other States as an eloquent speaker and an earnest advocate of the temperance cause. Of course she will be greeted by a good audience.

LYNCH LAW.—There is a report going that three men suspected of being stealing in Modoc county California were hung by vigilantes and two others wounded in making their escape. John Purdy and Al. Howe are the names given of two of the unfortunate. The Adin "Hawkeye," from which we glean the report, considers it reliable.

FOR THE FAIR.—The Jacksonville Minstrels and Brass Band will start for Yreka next Sunday to attend the Fair and give a series of entertainments. The Band will also compete for the premium offered by the Agricultural Society. We commend them to the watchful care of the Yreka people who will find them as fond of fun themselves as they are making it for others.

TAKEN BELOW.—Capt. Riley started from Rock Point, for Vancouver last Friday, in charge of three persons sentenced by the court-martial, recently held at Fort Klamath, for desertion. They will be taken to Cape Disappointment where two will serve out five and one three years. The ambulance which brought them from the Fort passed South on its return on Friday afternoon.

THOMAS' SAW MILL.—Mr. G. B. Franklin, the mechanician who constructed J. B. Thomas' new saw mill at the Meadows, was in town last Thursday. The mill is now in operation and turning out the best quality of lumber. Everything connected with the establishment works like a charm. Water is scarce but as soon as the ditch becomes stilled and the waste ceases the flow will supply the mill during the whole year.

SCAMPERDOWN GONE.—S. Booth brought the celebrated horse Scamper down to town last Wednesday and delivered him to Jos Clough who started with him next day for Roseburg. The horse was in fine condition and, when Booth parted with him, the scene was truly affecting. Had not the bargain been completed prior to that moment we are under the opinion that "Scamper" would not have Jackson county to return, no more at this time. He is a noble animal whoever may become his possessor.

HOME INDUSTRY.—From W. H. Atkinson, master and part owner of the Ashland Woolen Mills, we learn that the company is so rushed with orders they can hardly supply the demand for goods at this time. Their principal trade is with Northern California, but this year they have also received a number of orders from the Willamette Valley. Blankets is their speciality, and the article manufactured is not to be excelled by any other mills on the coast. They have wool enough on hand to run them till next January.

RUNAWAY.—On last Friday a two horse team belonging to Mr. Peter Bosche, while attached to a wagon became frightened and started from Veit Schutz' brewery, where they were left standing, and dashed down street at a fearful rate. They turned the corner between Fisher's store and Linn's furniture shop and ran with the wagon as far as Plymale's livery stable, against the corner of which they collided breaking loose from the vehicle. Being free they ran furiously on until they were pretty well exhausted when they were overtaken and brought back. The horses were not injured but the wagon was considerably wrecked.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Tramps are numerous.

Call at Brooks' and see his new style of stock marks.

Pat McMahon has discovered a limestone quarry.

Considerable sickness prevails throughout the county.

Kubli is expecting a full assortment of stoves in a few days.

Clean your wells now and you may possibly prevent sickness.

The Ashland College has a number of students from California.

Manning & Webb are still making additions to their livery stable.

G. W. Holt is now putting up the fixtures of his elegant new hotel.

Fred Otten and family have removed to their residence on Jackson creek.

Geo. W. Stephenson has just completed his new barn at his farm near town.

Jesse Houck, the popular host of the Ashland House, was in town yesterday.

Prof. J. Q. Willett will probably take charge of the district school at Phoenix.

A large invoice of new stoves of every variety are soon to be received at Bilger's.

J. R. Cameron has set his hands at work shearing his flock of sheep near Fort Klamath.

The "College Ceroma" is out. It is neat in appearance and affords much solid reading matter.

It is G. Strickland who has been appointed receiver in the Metropolitan hotel at Roseburg.

Several runaways of late, and other causes, have left the lamp posts of this city in a sorry plight.

Rev. A. E. Williams will hold services at the M. E. Church next Sunday morning at the usual hour.

John Miller will soon commence building a new and commodious barn at his farm on Applegate.

Again we call the attention of those owing taxes. Sheriff Bybee gives his friends notice in this paper.

The dance given by the Brass Band at Veit's Hall last Wednesday evening was a very pleasant affair.

R. L. Ish has gone to Linkville to assist in managing Manning & Webb's livery stable at that place.

Al. McKenzie now has charge of the Grand Applegate Company's work during the absence of Mr. Fitzpatrick.

Chas. Logan, Mrs. B. F. Reeser, Miss Hattie Reeser and Mrs. Morris Baum, of Ashland, were in town last Saturday.

The Board of Equalization is now in session at the County Clerk's office and will complete its labors this week.

Col. John E. Ross started for Salem last Saturday until after the State Fair.

G. W. Holt, while at work handling lumber on his new building, had the little finger of his right hand broken last Friday.

Mrs. G. M. Stroud, wife of conductor Stroud of the Portland and Albany express train, is visiting friends in Jacksonville.

Chas. J. Howard is building a neat little house on Oregon street, and his family will arrive from Josephine county next month.

Postmaster Muller is taking down the old lock boxes now in use at the Postoffice and will replace them with new ones at once.

E. C. Brooks has just received the largest stock of clocks ever brought to this place. He has all kinds—large and small—and all prices.

Ex-Gov. Chadwick and Major Fecett started yesterday morning for the mines on Lower Applegate. They will be gone several days.

B. F. Dowell returned from Portland last week. He will remain at home a short time we presume to give his protege W. C. Griswold a rest.

John Miller and Horace Seybert are out in the mountains hunting. It is expected that venison will be a drug on the market when they return.

Jos. H. Hyzer is running the boarding house for the Squaw Lake Co.—a Mr. Woodford succeeding him at the Grand Applegate diggings.

Wm. Eaton is doing good work in the Herring lane and that muddy thoroughfare during the Winter months will be greatly benefited thereby.

The "Mercury" says that Jackson Grant, sent to the penitentiary for life from Multnomah county for murder, died in that institution one day last week.

O. C. Gunnison, of Lake county, called on us this week. He is employed as carpenter at Klamath Agency and reports times thriving at that place.

J. M. Botts, agent for the San Francisco Board of underwriters, has been engaged for several days past in making a survey of this place for the use of the Board.

B. F. Dowell is the happiest man in Jacksonville. He "got away" with Griswold and stands an even chance in getting the pipes clear that carry water to his residence.

Mrs. J. M. Sutton, accompanied by her brother, Mr. D. Shook, came in from Alkali valley, Lake county, last week. The latter will start on their return the latter part of this week.

Johnny Young is to succeed Hal Hoffman at Mrs. Bilger's hardware store and will arrive about October 1st. The latter goes to Lake county to commence business on his own account.

Beef hides are taken from this county to Portland and returned manufactured into leather. Fred Luy received a number of sides of sole leather last week with John Orth's brand plainly visible.

Pat Donegan's residence had a narrow escape from being burned to the ground on the evening of the 18th inst. It originated by one of the lace curtains getting afire, but was checked before any serious damage was done.

O. H. Hoffmann will hold an auction sale at his farm near Phoenix on Oct. 9th, and continue the same until every article of his farm machinery and household goods is sold. He also offers 1,200 graded Merino ewes for sale.

THE COUNTY ASSESS.

We take the following figures from the assessment county as turned over to Equalization by County C. Goddard:

No. of acres agricultural 517—value $755,322.

city lots, $52,882. Value

ments, $218,013. Value

dis and implements, $33, etc., etc., $498,593. Value etc., $63,126. No. of hor-

—4,436—value, $151,007.

10,266—value, $76,400

and goats, 42,353—

No. of swine, 10,500—

Gross value of all property, $1,069,610. Exemptions, $2

value of taxable proper-

No. of polls in the country, 1,069.

We give below some

for 1878 from which it comparison that there creases both in the property and in the value of taxable property. Gross value of property, $2,300,282. Total taxon property, $1,503,588. Horses, 4,295—value,

$154,299. Cattle, 10,925—value $92,

998. Indebtedness, $570,699. Exemption,

$226,125. The difference in the value of taxable property in favor of last year is $62,941, which will not be materially reduced by any assessments that may be made by the Sheriff while collecting taxes.

The valuation of cattle and horses was much higher last year than this. Taken altogether a comparison of the two years does not give a very encouraging outlook in regard to the financial future of the country.

WANTED TO GET MARRIED.—Last

Friday night between 11 and 12 o'clock

Madame Holt, of the Franco American hotel, was roused from her slumber by a call from the dining room.

She inquired who's there, and the response came in dulcet tones, "It's me."

Not knowing who "me" might be the Madame graciously stepped forth and was astonished to discover a blushing damsel of not more than seventeen summers, and an innocent looking youth of perhaps twenty-four. Well said the obliging hostess, "what can I do for you?" We want to get married," said the gentle youth, and the damsel blushed more scarlet than ever. "My God" exclaimed the Madame, "have you got your license?" "N. Y." said she would be Benedict; "can't we get married without?" "Get married with or license?" echoed the Madame, "have you no sense?" "Can we have a room?"

inquired the persistent candidate for matrimony, now evidently driven to desperation. "No, you can't have a room," fiercely ejaculated the Madame,

"but you can have two rooms. You can take one at the far end of the hall and this girl can have one adjoining my own where I can watch over her and be assured of her safety."

"Oh!" stammered the poor fellow, "we didn't want to go in the same room."

"No" lisped the maiden, "no! no! no!"

"Well," demanded the Madame,

"do you want rooms?" "Guess we'll go back to Ashland; our folks are camped there," modestly responded the sad and disappo-tined pair as they locked arms and disappeared through the door
