IMPORTANT NOTICE!
 Information for the People.
MRS. J. BILGER.
I HAVE RECEIVED ANOTHER large consignment of the celebrated Singer Sewing Machines, which are for sale on the usual liberal terms and at the regular prices established by the company. Therefore waste no time, money and patience on inferior machines when you can purchase a genuine Singer at the same figures. In buying a Singer you get a machine of acknowledged merit and established reputation; an-are certain of having value received for your money, as every machine is warranted by the company.
 The Singer Company now sell three-quarters of all the machines sold in the world, the capacity of their works at Elizabeth, New Jersey, enabling them to turn out over a thousand machines a day, and they have 4,500 offices for the sale of these justly celebrated sewing machines, which have taken the
FIRST PRIZE
 Over all competitors more than two hundred times.
 After the Chicago fire the Relief Committee undertook to furnish sewing machines to the needy women of that city, and applicants were permitted to choose from six different kinds of machines. 2,944 applicants were furnished with machines, of which number 2,427 chose Singer machines and 517 distributed their choice among the five other kinds of machines. They were to earn their living on these machines, and took the Singer, because
IT IS THE BEST.

...are so varied that he can hardly be factor in the Presidential another possible candidate, E. B. Washburne of Illinois, seems unthought of. Mr. Wash-is of acknowledged ability, of sustained character, and great knowledge of public affairs, having continuously been in Congress for eighteen years. While conservative in his views, he will bring to himself more elements of positive strength than any other candidate yet named, and we believe in a national convention would attract to himself all the strength that Grant and Sherman could command.
 We believe that the antagonism between the first four candidates will be irreconcilable and the question of availability will make it necessary to unite on the great Western statesman.
 Therefore for the present, we say hurrah for Washburne!

A NICE LECTURE.
 Sarah Winnemucca, a notorious Indian woman, who to our knowledge was driven from the Malheur Indian Reservation, in this State for fomenting discontent, has been lecturing to audiences at Platt's Hall in noteworthy that with the sprightly picture-al immorality of San Fran-this, perhaps, accounts for with which the Indian bawd Sarah's attainments are in a San Francisco lecinto war, she speaks of to the Malheur

 there were well

 Indians out of a gent. The hesitate at the in-fed that yearning for romantic mystery that fills the human mind, itself the greatest of all mysteries, and scepticism and reason scoff in vain. Poetry has never had an ideal so beautiful, whose wisdom was so matchless, whose knowledge of human nature so supernal. The story of the exquisite tenderness of his love for his race is written by the pen of faith on the human heart, his doctrines are interwoven into the polity of nations, and to-day the Infant is the world's ruler! Kings have flung their crowns at the feet of the Child. Knights who scorned all earthly vassalage have, in his cause, quenched the thirsty sands of Palestine with their blood and carved the name of Jesus with their swords on the walls of many a Saraccenic city.

 Nobles, who might have sat in purple and fine linen, have, with girted sandals, planted the sacred emblem of his vicarious atonement on every shore that has been trodden by humanity.
 The stateliest temples man can raise and the precious things of earth are all too poor to do him honor, and to-day the Eternal City whose broken columns and mouldering arches witnessed the torture of his followers, is now the center of his priesthood. The beneficent doctrines of the Redeemer have softened the hardness of the human race, broken the dungeon's bars, stricken the fetters of the slave; and who can estimate the magnitude of the world's indebtedness to the great Nazarine!
 To-morrow will be the anniversary of his birth, sacred in every civilized land, treasured alike in the hearts of age and childhood. To-morrow the child Jesus will rule the world both by the softening influence of his teachings and the love we bear our own children.
 To-morrow hoary age and manhood and womanhood will yield with meek submission to the caprices and wants of the little ones who regard this day as essentially their own. It is the day that rings the small bells of our own hearts, that brings up hallowed memories from the time when the gold was yet unminged with silver; when the gray tints of evening had not cast their shadows on the rosy morn of life, and to-morrow we will live again in its pure and kindly associations. Let it be kept in the spirit of Him whose name has made it holy. Let it be a day of real heartfelt, christian charity for our mutual weaknesses, of forgiveness for our mutual faults, of reparation for our mutual wrongs, and the world will bless the one day in the calendar when the thorns that beset the feet of humanity are turned hurtless aside.
 Many of our readers we will never greet again, but to all we extend a cordial hope that the peace and good will offered by the World's Great Redeemer
