

Republican State Ticket.

For Congress. M. C. GEORGE. For Presidential Electors. GEO. B. CURRY, E. L. APPLE-GATE, C. B. WATSON.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Washington had no objections to the third term. In a letter to Lafayette, written in April, 1778, he said: "I can see no propriety in precluding ourselves from the services of any man, who, on some great emergency, shall be deemed universally most capable of serving the public."

The "Times" slops over in sickening adulation of "Tom Kent." As a man is best known at home we will state that Mr. Kent was beaten over thirty votes for Justice of the Peace two years ago in Jacksonville precinct, by a Republican, while the precinct gave 86 Democratic majority.

The "Times" remarks with great wisdom, "the people of Oregon have tried Whiteaker, Prim, Kelly and Burnett, and they have not been found wanting." Why, they have always been found "wanting"—generally wanting office, and Kelly wanted $10,000 to buy a Republican elector with.

There is a well established maxim that "a man's character is best estimated by his standing in his own community." The recorded fact, then, that E. B. Watson ran "five hundred and one" votes ahead of the Republican State ticket in Jackson county, at the general election in 1878, is a sufficient answer to all the slanders and slurs of the "Daily Standard" and "Democratic Times."

The "Times" wants to know if we refer to the late Republican candidate for Governor when we speak about "swamp land grabbers." Not by any means. We refer to such men as Governor Thayer who filed on 100,000 acres and when he found his act unpopular sneakily assigned it to H. C. Owen.

We again demand proof from Democratic journals, that John Whiteaker did not accept a bribe from Teal & Goldsmith in the shape of "ten shares" in the Lock and Dam Company, and that those shares were not voted for him by proxy at meetings of the stockholders.

What is intimated in the above article from the OREGON SENTINEL is founded upon facts that cannot be controverted. Those who have any doubts upon the subject are referred to the stock books of the "Willamette Falls, Canal and Lock Company," which are open to inspection in Portland.

The fact that an honest Democrat like Gen. Lane is opposing Whiteaker is, in itself, suspicious and any Democratic paper that supports him has more effrontery than honesty.

A MATTER FOR CONGRATULATION.

The late Republican Convention did itself honor in the nomination of Hon. M. C. George, for Representative in Congress. It is refreshing in the midst of the blurred and stained records that crowd the political arena to now and then have the opportunity of raising to responsible official position a man whose life is pure and clean.

COMPARATIVE INDUSTRY.

There are two candidates before the people of Oregon for the position of Representative in Congress, M. C. George and John Whiteaker. Each has served in the State Legislature, and the latter is now serving in Congress. The partizan friends of Mr. Whiteaker claim for him the greatest measure of industry and usefulness but as "a tree is known by its fruits" the record of the representative must be the index of his industry.

How does the record of his competitor, Mr. George, stand? At the last session of the Oregon Legislature about four hundred and fifty bills were introduced; thirty-nine which became laws by the approval of the Governor after their final passage.

SOMETHING OVERLOOKED.

The "Times" is so busy smirching and trying to befoul candidates that it has overlooked the following:

PORTLAND, Nov. 28, 1876. To W. T. PELTON, No. 15, Grammercy Park.—Certificate will issue to one Democrat. Must purchase Republican elector to recognize and act with Democrat. Deposit $10,000 to my credit. Kountz Bros. 12, Wall street. Answer. J. N. H. PATRICK.

And this same James K. Kelly, the man who unobtrusively "endorses" an infamous proposition to buy an elector and makes himself guilty of an attempt at bribery is now a candidate for judicial honors. He fully acknowledged his guilt on the floor of the Senate and seeing the just indignation of Senators of both parties, abjectly begged for mercy, which by the exertions of Mr. Mitchell, was given him.

AT IT AGAIN.

We had hoped that the "Times" would have confined itself to the truth in the conduct of a very short campaign, but the two beardless juveniles of that concern, that dish up their advice to old grey-bearded men every week can do no better than reiterate a silly lie about Judge Watson.

The late Republican Convention did itself honor in the nomination of Hon. M. C. George, for Representative in Congress. It is refreshing in the midst of the blurred and stained records that crowd the political arena to now and then have the opportunity of raising to responsible official position a man whose life is pure and clean.

THE PEOPLE'S CALL.

Elsewhere will be found a call for a people's convention, to be held on the 25th inst. This mode of selecting candidates for county offices was tried two years ago, the selections made were handsomely ratified by the voters and the result, so far as those elected are concerned, has been a county administration noted for economy and strict attention to duty.

NEW POSTAL ROUTES.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The following new postal routes are created in Southern Oregon:

Linkville via Tule Lake, Scorpion Point, Dry Lake and Burgood's ranch to Fall river mills, California; from Linkville via Plevna, Klamath ferry, Miller's ranch, Dorsey's ranch, Fairchild's ranch and Ball's ranch to Mt. Shasta California.

WHAT OREGON MISSED.

It is not generally known that Oregon lost the glorious opportunity of furnishing a President. The following extract from General Joseph Lane's speech at Canyonville, on Saturday the 8th instant, seems to point that way; but perhaps Oregon's loss was the nation's gain.

When Lincoln offered me a Brigadier-ship. I refused it, preferring to come back and work on my farm. Had I accepted Grant would not have been President. I would have taken his place!

PROSPECTIVE CHANGE.

Our County Court have at last determined to change the system of keeping the county poor entirely. After a thorough investigation, they have concluded that the proper way is to erect suitable buildings and have a few acres of land attached; so that there can be fair competition in bidding for the care and support of the poor.

OREGON KIDNEY TEA.

Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3,000 miles away, whom nobody knows, but from well known, and trustworthy citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands, can be seen at our office:

I hereby certify that I have used the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, and obtained immediate relief. It is God's blessing to humanity. I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted. I am now nearly 90 years old, came to Oregon in 1842 in the employ of the Hudson's Bay Company, and since I began using the Oregon Kidney Tea, I enjoy good health.

I have suffered with a disease of the kidneys for 6 or 7 years and for the last two months have been laid up with a pain in my back. A friend sent me a sample of the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, and having used it one week I can do a full day's work. I have derived more benefit from it than from all the medicines I have ever taken.
