SOLD OUT .- George Elliott has sold out his store to Mr. W. H. Benner of the Centennial mine, Mr. Elliott has been employed by Mr. Benner to conduct the business until he can complete cleaning up and take charge of it himself when he will remove to town and make this his permanent residence.

SERIOUS LOSS .- Mr. Geo. Stephenson met with quite a loss by the death of his fine "Sir Walter" colt on Saturday. Mr. Stephenson's children discovered it dead in the pasture and on the day previous it had been seen quite well. It was considered worth $500, and it is doubtful if it could have been purchased for that sum.

LABERTY POLE PAINTED .- On Satur- sporting materials. day last Jack McLean, the old "tar" that put in the halliards of the liberty pole last week, climbed again to the very top and gave it a coat of white paint. Jack sat as unconcerned as if he was on "terra firma," and the whole job only occupied a couple of hours. The pole looks quite in contrast to the Court yard fence.

DELEGATES ELECTED. -The following delegates are elected to the Democratic County Convention: Jacksonville; T. G. Reames, Thos. Keaton W. J. Plymale, Fred. Grob, A. Davison, J. R. Little, R. A. Miller, Chas. Nickell, W. J. Manning, D. Kenson. Phoenix; Fred. Barneburg, J. Norton, J. Smith, Jos. Robinson. Ashland; A. S. Jacobs, Thos. Smith, W. C. Daley, W. R.

CENSUS ENUMERATIONS.—The following appointments of enumerators or census-takers have been made by Supervisor Suksdorf for the counties of Jackson, Josephine and Lake:

Jackson county, six districts; W. H. Parker, Volney Colvig, W. Beeson, Adam Klippel, J. H. Huffer, F.

Josephine county, three districts; S. W. Forbes, A. H. Carson, S. W. Lewis.

Lake county, three districts; T. J. Brattain, H. Conn, J. W. Hamaker.

The enumerators will commence their duties on June 1st and it is hoped all parties will be ready to answer, promptly and fully, all the questions tralia which may be a guide to perthat will be asked them.

PROF. KUGLER'S CONCERT.-The instrumental concert given by Mr. Kugfor and several select pupils, Misses Carrie Beekman, Ida Fisher, Ida Prim, Ella Prim and Rosa Mensor was well attended by a select and appreciative audience. The music rendered was all classic and its performance gave evidence of high profiency in the pupils. Prof. Kugler's performance on the "Zither." the sweetest of all instruments, was exquisite and a surprise to lady managers of the Red Men's supmany of the audience who had never per for a bountiful supply of excellent heard the instrument. This is the cake furnished the employes of this traditional instrument with whose melody the German Shephard beguiles his thosen maiden and we wish it might become popular in America as its tones are more soft and touching than torthing we have ever heard. Prof. Kugler intends giving another concert at some future time and it will, no doubt, be as well patronized by all lovers of true music as the last.

FORTUNATE ESCAPE.—On Thursday a number of our Yreka friends, ladie and gentlemen, assembled in a group on the balcony of the Orth building for the purpose of having their photographs taken to leave as a memento of their pleasant visit. About twentyfive persons were on the balcony when the iron braces supporting it commenced to give way causing a general fright, but very fortunately no person was precipitated to the street. One lady, Mrs. James Vance, of Yreka, fainted and several others were badly frightened, as there was every indication for a few moments that the balcony would give way entire'y. #### THE CRAND CELEBRATION

The celebration of the anniversary day of the "Improved Order of Red Men" (May 12th) for which preparations had been so long in progress was certainly a great success and an event long to be remembered in Jacksonville. The following visitors, members of the order, were present from Yreka, having arrived on Tuesday: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Schofield, Mr. and Mrs. F. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Munroe, James Vance and lady, Dr. D. Ream. and lady, Mr. and Mrs. E. Rainous, S. J. Souls and daughter, A. W. Niles and lady, J. Niles and lady, W. A. B. Mills and bride, Mr. and Mrs. Theobald Young, Mrs. A. H. Burrows, Miss Delia Winkler, Miss Sophie Winkler, Miss M. DeWitt. Miss Clara Hovey, Miss Emma Schlagle, Mrs. Thos. Orr and daughter, L. Nordheim, A. D. Terwilliger, Chas. On Tuesday afternoon the dedica tion ceremonies were performed in the new hall of the Order and the visitors from across the mountains were quietly distributed among their friends as the guests of the city. The weather had been most unpropitious but on Wednesday about ten o'clock the members of "Pocahontas" Lodge No. 1 of Jacksonville and a large delegation from "Klamath" and "Ieka" Tribes of California, clothed in their gay regalia, formed a line of march and escorted by Dorwin, Tilly Miller, Minnie Pape, Belle Young and Messrs. Dunlap. Wise, H. Pape Sr., and R. H. Klippel with Miss Ida Klippel as organist rendered some very beautiful vocal music. Next followed the reading of the dispensation. Next the oration by E. D. Foudray which was a masterly and exhaustive history of the order, its organization and its objects, but which was delivered in too low a tone to be audible throughout the whole assemblage. After more delightful music by the Glee Club, Mr. R. A.
