

NOTICE.

To All Whom it may Concern: Notice is hereby given that I have designated the OREGON SENTINEL as the paper in which I shall hereafter publish all my communications, and applications for mining patents for lands lying near Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon.

DIVINE SERVICES.—Rev. F. X. Blanchet will hold services at St. Francis Church, Eagle Point, next Sunday, Sept. 26th. Rev. D. A. Crowell will preach at Phoenix at 11 o'clock A. M., next Sunday, the 26th instant.

BRIDGE COMPLETED.—The large county bridge crossing Butte creek at Eagle Point, Messrs. Griffin & Savings builders, was completed on the 16th instant, and thrown open to the use of the public. It is a substantial structure, and one that will stand the freest however voluminous.

FENCE BURN.—Last Sunday the fire got into Tom Kahler's field on Rogue river, near old Fort Lane, and destroyed about 150 yards of fence. The fire approached from the side nearest the river where there was a great deal of dry stubble and drift, and had got too much headway before it was discovered.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—Gen. E. L. Applegate, Republican candidate for Presidential Elector, will address the people of Jackson county, on the political issues of the day at the Court House, in Jacksonville, Saturday, Sept. 25th at 11 o'clock, P. M. A cordial invitation is extended to men of all parties.

DRAMATIC.—The Vernal Dramatic Company, C. R. Greeley manager, will perform at Holt's Hall Jacksonville, on Friday and Saturday night, Oct. 1st and 2d. They will introduce a grand bill, opening with the two act comedy "Naval Engagement." Everything will be new and attractive in the highest degree. See posters.

THE WAGON ROAD FUND.—The C. C. W. R. Committee, under Jerry Nunan's energetic superintendence, is doing good work in securing Jackson county's proportion to the Wagon Road fund. Let us come up to the help of this great enterprise. Let us remember the adage: "Those who help themselves, God will help."

PRESIDENT HAYES AND PARTY.—The Presidential party were at the Sacramento Fair on Tuesday the 21st instant. They will probably be in Jacksonville on Sunday or Monday next on their way to Portland. We understand the party will occupy rooms at Holt's new Hotel. It is not yet certain whether the party will have time to remain over night in Jacksonville or not.

ANXIOUS EX-SOLDIERS.—The news reaches the country that the ex-soldiers are peeping Hancock, Barnum and Wallace with correspondence as to the status of ex-soldiers in the event that Hancock is elected. Barnum alone answers them by saying they have been referred to Hancock. The latter speaks not a word, and the inference is that they will all see their heads if they occupy positions now.

HON. J. H. MITCHELL.—We understand, says The Dalles "Mountaineer," that Hon. J. H. Mitchell while in Oregon will address our citizens at different points, upon the important questions of the hour. The people of Eastern Oregon have not forgotten Mr. Mitchell's efforts to give them a free pathway by the Columbia river to the ocean; nor have they forgotten his success while a representative at Washington in causing ample appropriations at each session of Congress to ensure the active pursuance of the work at the Cascades. It is such representation that Eastern Oregon wants.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—The O. & C. Stage, which left Jacksonville on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 19th, in charge of Nort. Eddings, was stopped by highwaymen near the top of Siskiyou mountain, at 11 o'clock at night. The express box was broken open without unfastening from the stage. The mail sacks were taken and rifled. There was only one passenger—a lady—who saw only one robber, but heard others talking. In the express box he got $1000 sent by George Grotz of Kerbyville, but it is thought that by three registered packages in the mail on this trip, two of which he overlooked. The highwayman who robbed this stage the last time got $2,000 in the mail.

SENATOR SLATER.—Senator John H. Slater made a very moderate speech to a very moderate-sized audience at Holt's Hall last Saturday afternoon. Owing perhaps to the depressing news from Maine, detailing a Rep. victory, neither the speaker nor his Democratic listeners felt very jubilant, and as a consequence the cheering was quite feeble and confined to a few individuals. The Senator is not a very brilliant orator, and it was a question to a number in the audience whether he did not do Garfield as much good as Hancock. The comparison of Hancock with Geo. Washington was more vigorously cheered than anything else he said. In 1864 we heard a Democratic speaker compare McClellan to Washington—and we think the effect upon people will be about as great in 1880 as in 1864.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Plymale is still furnishing turnouts. Newman Fisher is improving his residence. Don't forget Breckenfield if you want bargains.

Fruit cans! Fruit cans! at Bilger's Hardware store. J. L. Wilder, of Wilderville, gave us a call yesterday.

Wintjen & Helms received a large stock of liquors this week. Al Ferree, Jr. of Lake county, is paying Jacksonville a visit.

Fred Otten and S. Koester left New York last week for Germany. The best carpenter, wagon maker's and blacksmith's tools at J. Miller's.

Lewis Ross has so far recovered that he was able to come to town on Friday. Morris Baum of Ashland was in town on Thursday and favored us with a call.

Fine white linen shirts, open back or front, for $1.50 at the New York Store. Rev. Mr. Stahl of Albany has been adjudged insane and taken to the Asylum.

Postal agent Ben. Simpson was here on the 20th inst., looking up postal deprecations. The best assortment of Rodgers and Westholm's cutlery in the market, at John Miller's.

Representative Thos. Smith will accept our thanks for a copy of Governor Thayer's Message. The atmosphere is again very smoky caused by the many fires now raging in the mountains.

The religious debate between Elders Sherrill and Peterson commences to-day at Eagle Point. The new bell for the Presbyterian Church arrived this week and will be soon placed in position.

Hon. R. P. Earhart, Secretary of State, will accept our thanks for the reports of the State officers. Newman Fisher has received the contract for furnishing Fort Klamath with flour for the coming year.

Prof. Scott will give a farewell dance at Ashland next Friday night. He expects to move to California soon. Go to the Court House next Saturday afternoon and hear General Applegate on the political issues of the day.

Travel is on the increase. The stage which left here for the South on Monday afternoon had on 14 passengers. Jake Marcuse, having refitted and enlarged his place of business, is now laying in a stock of gents' furnishing goods.

John Lanterman of Bilger's Tinware and Hardware establishment, is putting a tin roof on Kahler Bros. new building. By private letter we learn of the death of J. H. Stinson at Eureka, Cal. He was Police Judge at the time of his death.

Joseph Rapp and D. W. Anderson have placed us under obligations for a supply of watermelons. They were very nice. There will be a tremendous "change" in November, but it will be found in the increased size of the Republican majorities.

Mr. C. B. Stanley has taken an Agency for Coolidge's nursery at Ashland and will canvass Del Norte county for orders. The best assortment of bolts, screws, tire and copper rivets, rasps, files, pinners, nippers, tongs and hammers, at John Miller's.

Miss Minnie McCain, daughter of Rev. J. S. McCain, passed through here Tuesday on her way to the Klamath Indian Agency. D. H. Feathers started to Lake county last week with a load of celebrated Singer sewing machines. He has since come back.

Miss Mary Langell who has been going through a siege of typhoid fever is rapidly convalescing. She is well enough to be about. Jas. S. Howard's store building, one door East of Post Office, is being made ready for occupancy. It is quite an improvement on the old structure.

Dr. J. M. Hinkle and A. H. Truman of Indianapolis stopped here on the 18th, 19th and 20th instants. They took in hand several complicated cases. Mrs. P. P. and Miss Ella Prim have just received an elegant new stock of kid gloves. Give them a call if you want the pick from the largest stock in town.

Ben. Haymond, of Reek Point, returned from San Francisco last Monday. He purchased a large stock of goods for his store at the Point while absent. E. Jacobs wishes it distinctly understood that he will not be undersold by any one. His goods are all first-class and his stock one of the largest in town.

Saturday afternoon, the 18th of September, President Hayes reviewed 20,000 school children in San Francisco. It was a scene of great brilliancy and exciting interest. L. S. P. Marsh paid Jacksonville a flying visit last Monday. He reports several new buildings in course of construction at that place and the town improving generally.

Five wagonloads of emigrants passed through Jacksonville on Tuesday, on their way North. G. A. Hubbell will commence teaching the Wagner creek school the first Monday in October.

Tom Murphy, son of Dennis Murphy of this town, we regret to learn, is dangerously sick of some affection of the lungs. The case of A. Fisher & Co. vs. J. Rowland has been compromised and the property advertised will not be sold at Sheriff's Sale.

W. C. Meyer, of Ashland precinct attended the pioneer re-union on crutches. He is slowly recovering from the injuries he sustained by being thrown from a horse. The rate bills at the Jacksonville public school, $1.60 per scholar are due quarterly in advance. Last Monday a number of the scholars were sent home for their rate money.

Senator Ross will accept our thanks for Reports of the Secretary of State, Superintendent of the Penitentiary, State Librarian, Supt. of Public Instruction, and State University. The County Clerk advertises that sealed proposals will be received by him up to 12 o'clock, Sept. 24, for building a new roof and skylight in the old building where the Clerk's and Sheriff's offices are in.

Capt. O. C. Applegate of Lake county attended the Pioneer re-union on the 16th. The Captain was warmly greeted by many of his old friends in Jackson, who had not seen him for several years. Thomas H. Brents of Walla Walla and Thomas Burke of Seattle are the opposing candidates for the Delegation from Washington Territory. Brents is the Republican and the present incumbent.

The vindictive of Keaton & Co., on Rogue river has been completed and the water pumped out of the enclosure. The work on river bed rock is being vigorously pushed, and a good yield of gold is expected. The Board of Equalization was in session Monday and Tuesday of this week. So far as we could learn very few, if any, changes were made in the assessment of the property as made by Assessor Goodall.

Joseph L. Hockett, of Phoenix, has enlarged his business and now keeps all kinds of liquors, wines and cigars. He also has oysters, sardines, crackers, etc., for sale, all of which he sells at reasonable rates for cash. One of the stages taking the Jacksonville Hancock glee club to Ashland on Saturday upset when near Eagle Mills. The singers were badly scared but fortunately no one was hurt. Bad omen for Hancock.

Reames Bros. will receive a good portion of their new goods to-morrow. The first installment will consist mostly of dress goods, ladies' fancy goods, clothing, etc. Call early so that you can take your choice. Wm. Brodbeck and Lannes Klippel returned from the Cinnabar mountain on Thursday after an absence of ten days. They report deer plenty but bear scarce, brin having gone to low places after hazelnuts and berries.

Our law-makers at Salem have got into working order. On the 14th both Houses met in joint session to hear Gov. Thayer's message, which is a very lengthy document. Already a large number of bills have been introduced and referred. New Sewing Machines at E. C. Brooks' New Drug Store. Four different kinds of the latest and best improved machines made in the world. The Crown, the Eldridge, the New Home, and New American Machines. Price from $40 to $50.

There is a demand for a reissue of the fractional currency formerly in use, and several members of Congress are moving in the direction of legislation to authorize it. The complaint against silver is that it cannot be mailed with convenience. The Southern Pacific and the Atchinson, Topka and Santa Fe Railroads are rapidly building their lines in opposite directions, and by the first of January next the gap which is 180 miles, will be closed. Both lines are in Southeastern Arizona.

Ella and Emmet Conger daughter and son of Mark Conger, of Elen precinct, have been quite sick of late, Ella of typhoid and Emmet of bilious intermittent fever. After a six weeks siege Ella is slowly recovering and Emmet is also convalescent. The Portland Bulletin Sept. 15th, says: The atmosphere yesterday was awful smoky and heavy and to be compared to a London fog. Many forest fires are raging and they fill the air with smoke. It has cleared up some to-day but clouds hang low over adjacent hills and forests.

The Crescent City "Courier" says the surveyors who have been searching for a favorable route for a wagon road from Smith river to the Illinois valley have at last abandoned the survey, being satisfied that the route is impracticable, or at least, no better than that of the existing old road. J. Van Horn, who lives on the Linkville road, about a day's drive from Ashland, wishes to inform the traveling public that he keeps constantly on hand hay and grain, and that he charges but 25 cents for feeding hay. Meals can be had also for 25 cents.

Horace Rice who resides on the Rouge river wagon road, half way between Jacksonville and Fort Klamath, was in town on Monday on business connected with proving up his land claim. He reports the road in tolerable passing condition with considerable teaming going over it all the time. French and Russian calf boots worth $6.50 for $5, at the New York Store.

Auntie Ganung and Mrs. Dr. Kahler, we regret to learn, are on the sick list. There is now considerable sickness both in town and country, but so far nothing very alarming has been reported. Our old friend A. J. Adams, School Superintendent of Josephine county, went and committed matrimony on the 6th of last month, the other contracting party being Miss Annie White of the same county. It's rather late when we found it out, Al, but here's luck all the same.

The oldest horse in Jackson county is the one owned by Mrs. D. N. Birdseye, on Rogue River below Reek Point. He is upward of thirty years of age, has seen a great deal of hard service both in the harness and otherwise, and although he is not yet "hors du combat," he has been placed on the superannuated list by his owner. Last Monday night the Aurelian Literary society debated this question: "Resolved, that even in case the Mexican people were willing, it would be bad policy to annex Mexico to the United States." It was ably discussed on both sides, and much was said both for and against the voluntary annexation of our Southwestern neighbor.

The government telegraph line has reached the summit of the Coast Range in the Alamo Mountains, coming Westward. Within a month there will be telegraph communication between Oregon and the Atlantic coast via Idaho, Montana and Dakota to the Western terminus of the Northern Pacific railroad, thence along that road to St. Paul Minnesota. General Hancock on the morning of the 14th sent a flying dispatch to Placette, the Greenback candidate, congratulating him on his election as Governor of Maine. The Major General should not go off half-cocked, as it is dangerous for a Presidential candidate to congratulate a man upon his election who is not elected. Thos. Nast, the great caricaturist, will be apt to go for the impulsive Major General and the would-be Governor. It is never best to crow until one gets "out of the woods."

Whilst the venerable Bishop Simpson was preaching in Powell street M. E. Church, San Francisco on the 12th inst. to a very large audience among which were President Hayes and family, he was suddenly taken ill in the midst of his sermon. The attack proved to be a conjestive chill, and being removed to the lecture room, he soon recovered sufficiently to admit of his being taken to the parsonage. The last accounts we have of him was that he was recovering. A. C. Jones Esq., of Jacksonville, Grand Scribe of the order of Champions of Honor, has been organizing councils in the Willamette valley. The quoniam brother, Dr. Coon, who demeaned himself so unbecomingly to the order in this county, was ahead of him, and as soon as he passed over the mountains into the Umpqua valley began to organize councils and give them his auspicious benediction. His follies will no doubt be pretty thoroughly advertised by Mr. Jones.—[Tilings.]

In the afternoon the multitude met around the speakers' stand to listen to short addresses and singing and music in alternation. An original poem, "The Pioneers Song," by Mrs. Jane McCully, was sung by the old Pioneers, with Mrs. Shipley at the instrument. It was sung to the tune of "Old Lang Syne," and every old hero joined in "with a will." Addresses and speeches followed by Judge E. K. Anderson, Capt. Goodall, Gen. Applegate and others who related their early experiences and many valuable reminiscences of their frontier life. But "Poor Lo," the red man, was handled without gloves throughout.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.—The following are the transactions in real estate, recorded since the last issue of the SENTINEL: J. H. Mayfield to J. H. Cusick, parcel of land in Ashland precinct. Consideration, $1. J. H. Cusick to H. C. Messenger, same property as above. Consideration, $350. J. R. Boes to Silas J. Draper, mining property on Fooths creek. Consideration, $1,700. A. D. Heald to A. Dennis, mining property on Fooths creek. Consideration, $1,200. John Conway to L. A. Neil, 128 acres land in Ashland precinct. Consideration, $500. Abram Dennis to Samuel Duffield, mining property on Fooths creek. Consideration, $1,200. John Donegan to C. C. Beekman and David Linn, 160 acres land on Jackson creek. Consideration, $1,000. C. S. Sergeant to John Hockenjos, 40 acres land in Elen precinct. Consideration, $125. L. S. P. Marsh to E. L. Watson, parcel of land and certain water rights in Ashland precinct. Consideration, $650.

DENIES THE ALLEGATION.—Captain Doig, who has been charged with the responsibility of the loss of the "Great Republic" at the mouth of the Columbia, denies the allegation that he left Oregon to avoid arrest. He says that upon the contrary he remained in Oregon some seven months after the wreck, and then he went to Costa Rica upon private business. He had been in San Francisco three months when he was arrested.

FIRST FLOOR.—The first floor ground at the Jacksonville Steam Flouring Mills was made there last Tuesday and proved to be of extra quality. Messrs. McKenzie & Foudray have all the latest improved machinery for making flour, and they are both good millers so their flour promises to be the staple article in this market. Read their advertisement in another column.

PIONEER RE-UNION.—Thursday.

Sept. 16th, was a gala day for the old Pioneers of Southern Oregon. At an early hour in the day the Pioneers and their families were seen wending their way toward the Court House enclosure, which had been tastefully decorated and comfortably seated for the occasion.

At about 11 o'clock Capt. J. M. McCall mounted the speakers' stand and called the multitude to order, and announced music by the String Band, consisting of Prof. Scott, F. Folk, George Brown and Pat. Donagan playing the accompaniment on the piano; next, an anthem, "Praise the Lord," by the choir, consisting of the Misses Ella Prim, Kate Durwin, Maggie and Cora Linn, Kate Hoffman, Tillie Miller, Tillie Klippel, Dr. and C. W. Kahler and John Boyer, Miss Carrie Beekman presiding at the organ; after which prayer by the Rev. M. A. Williams; next, song, "Memory of Galilee," by the choir, with instrumental accompaniment by Miss Ella Klippel; next, music by String Band; next was a song, "Only an Emigrant" by the choir, with Miss Carrie Beekman at the instrument.

At this stage of the proceedings Wm. Hoffman, Esq., read resolutions on the death of members who departed this life within the past year. First, Mrs. Rachel M. Mench, born 1838 in Whitebago county, Ill., died March 30, 1880; next Mrs. Mary J. Benedict, emigrated from Illinois in 1853, died May 6, 1880, aged 83 years; next Mrs. Louisa C. Neil, died April 30, 1880, aged 57 years; next, Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, came to Oregon in 1853, died Dec. 14, 1879, aged 73 years; last Sam. D. VanDyke emigrated from Pennsylvania to this coast in 1849, and died Aug. 13, 1880, aged 71 years. The tribute of respect paid to each of these deceased members was pathetic, but we have not the space to reproduce the full report. The funeral dirge in honor of the deceased was rendered by the choir in a touching manner; next, music by String Band.

Judge P. P. Prim then delivered an oration which was replete with a variety of historical reminiscences of the early settlement of Southern Oregon. After the oration, a charming piece, "Come where the Lilies Bloom," was rendered by a quartette, consisting of the Misses Kate Durwin, Tillie Klippel, Dr. and C. W. Kahler, with Miss Ella Klippel at the instrument, which closed the forenoon exercises.

Dinner being in readiness President McCall announced the order in which the guests should sit at the table. The earliest emigrants first, Gen. E. L. Applegate having come here in 1843 lead the column accompanied by Mrs. T. V. Vail, who arrived here in 1845, then Judge Magruder who came here about the same time, and so on up to 1855. The tables literally groaned under the weight of the good things of this world and there was enough and to spare for all the Pioneers and all the new comers on the ground. It was a glorious re-union of both old and young, and everything passed off as "merry as a marriage bell."

In the afternoon the multitude met around the speakers' stand to listen to short addresses and singing and music in alternation. An original poem, "The Pioneers Song," by Mrs. Jane McCully, was sung by the old Pioneers, with Mrs. Shipley at the instrument. Josephine County Items.

A correspondent from Kerbyville sends us the following items: Times are improving in Kerbyville somewhat. Miners are coming in occasionally from Silver creek and nearly all have done very well this Summer.

Talk about your Westons and O'Learys, we have a pedestrian here in Kerby that can "knock the socks" off of either of them, and the beauty of it is that it's a woman. Mrs. Kruse walked from Silver creek to Kerby day before yesterday—the 17th—a feat which the sterner sex think worth boasting of.

Alex. Waits is at present engaged in ditching and preparing his claim on Cannon creek, for the Winter's campaign. Our old townsman, George Grotz has recently purchased the mining property formerly owned by Wm. Borgman on that stream and intends soon to don the canvas, and it is the wishes of his friends (and he has lots of them) that he may be well rewarded for his toil.

Brown Bros. are still bottoming up, and are doing very well indeed. They will have plenty of water to clean up with the balance of the season. They are working eight men at a profit of from six to ten dollars per day to the hand. Taking everything into consideration, we predict a bright future for Josephine county.

OUR CEMETERY.—That the Jacksonville cemetery is one of the most charming spots on the Pacific Coast is acknowledged by every stranger who visits it. The grounds, comprising about 30 acres of woodland, are dotted with beautiful, evergreens of laurel, cedar, fir, spruce, sugar pine, manzanita, mountain mahogany, and live oak; all so numerous—black and white oaks. The grounds are situated on a gentle sloping foot hill of easy ascent, from the valley below, and are surrounded by eight sub-divisions for the accommodation of the different orders and religious beliefs. We have here the Old Fellows, the Masonic, the Jewish, the Catholic, the Protestant, the American and German Red Men, and the Pottersfield or China grave yard.

The Jacksonville Cemetery has been established for nearly twenty years, and during all that time Sargent Dunlap has been Sexton. Mr. Dunlap has taken great pains in keeping the grounds in good order and otherwise improving them. He has also kept a list of all the burials for the past 21 years, cause of death, etc., which list if published would constitute an interesting page in the history of Jacksonville and Rogue river valley. Ever since the establishment of the cemetery, persons have been brought here for sepulture from a distance, hence the large number of graves. Mrs. Margaret Love's, Aug. 1859, was the first, and Mrs. Margaret Hart's, Sep. 10, 1880, was the last grave.

Considering the isolation of Jacksonville and the difficulty of reaching the railroad, it is a noteworthy fact, that the graves of the dead are adorned with a number of nice pieces of marble work. We learn that a number of new monuments are shortly to be placed on the graves of deceased friends, that will go far in beautifying this city of the dead. W. L. Record, of the California Marble Works, 1112 Mission St., San Francisco, who is now in our midst, has already secured over $2,000 worth of fine marble work, to be erected here early in the Spring.

THE INDEPENDENT PARTIES.—Among the members of the legislature on the train yesterday from the South was Col. John E. Ross. The Colonel is usually good humored, but this time he was short in his answers. All allowed for the fact that the Colonel had not slept since the night before, and rode on the stage ninety miles during a part of the time, but feeling there must be something else in the way they asked him what was his trouble. The answer was: "Dem John Burnett. He resigned the position of Senator to run for Judge, when if he had remained, the Senate would have been a tie, and I would have had the casting vote," slapping his hand upon his stomach, with a twinkle in his eye, the Colonel continued, "then you'd have seen what we, us and the Independent party, would have done." We would have ruled the State." This is all true, since Col. Ross would have held the deciding vote.—[Salem Statesman.]

THE HIGH WATERS OF 1880 Did not reach a point equal to that of 1876, but it was high enough to do a deal of damage. Time, however, will repair this, but time only makes worse every case of disease of the kidneys and urinary organs which a single box of Oregon Kidney Tea would cure. Sold by all Druggists.
