The New York "Graphic" believes that the president's term of office should in all directions flying in wild flight than 8 per centum interest and not exbe ten years instead of four, because elections are expensive and altogether too frequent. But what would supply the fraud howlers with subjects?

The city has a bonded debt of $136,406,933, and a floating debt of $6,039,966 more. . The long deferred suit against Samuel J. Tilden to recover income tax will be brought to trial in a short time. Government officials express belief that the treasury will gain $100,000 by the suit, The prosecution was ready a long time ago but Mr. Tilden's counsel secured postponement.

The New York "Sun" suggests that Barnum ought to bring the perpetrators of the Morey forged letter to justice. It is apparent that the most proper way for him to do this would be to go into court and plead guilty himself. But then he is no Jean Valjean to plead guilty as a matter of conscience and take the consequences.

Again the vote for the Democratic candidate for justice of the court of appeals was only 113,039. These figures show how much stronger Gen. Hancock was than his party, and they serve to show also that if the people would not trust him they would trust his party still less.

The vote of the Pacific States shows that the people were nearly equally divided in sentiment at the late Presidential election. The official count of Oregon shows a majority of 763 for Garfield; Nevada foots up a majority of 771 for Hancock, while the plurality of the five Democratic Electors chosen in California will not exceed 150. Such an even division of political strength is a matter of congratulation, for it will put legislators on their good behavior in the enactment of laws demanded in the interest of the people. - S. F. "Chronicle."

A San Francisco letter quoted in the Boston "Traveller" of Nov. 17th, gives the following rather alarming picture of the Bay City. It says: There has been a great falling off in the population of that city, and estimates the decresse at more than 60,000. The opinion is expressed that not less than 40,-000 more will be compelled to leave for want of industrial employment. An effort is making to erect a monment over the remains of Christopher Columbus. These remains are now epultured near the ancient cathedral of Havana, in the Island of Cuba. A dispatch dated San Domingo, West India, Nov. 6, and Havana, Nov. 17th, says that the Dominican Congress has passed a decree that considering the proof sufficient that the remains found in the cathredral, Sept. 10, 1877, are the remains of Christopher Columbus, a monument to enshrine them shall be erected at the capitol. Abuse Does not Win.

The result of the late election, all over the country, should teach editors and politicians that abuse does not win The Democratic canvass against Gar field was the most outrageous in the way of personal defamation that has occurred since the good old days of the fathers, when Washington was slandered werse than any man since his day. The time has gone by when denuncia tion can control popular opinion. Here at home the same policy was pursued, and not a vote was made by it. Some editors cannot oppose a man except by abusive epithets, but it is a good sign of the times that they are becoming scarcer every year. The Republicans criticized Hancock's military orders, and their press corrected the exaggerated counts of his military exploits put forth by a partisan press, but in all the campaign we cannot recall where his personal character or his real actions in war were assailed, but on the contrary there has never been a Presidential candidate since the nation was who was treated with such marked final and complete, and it will never courtesy by his opponents. What a vast amount of food for the mind does the student of history find in perusing the back numbers of the Jacksonville "Times," Portland "Standard," Roseburg "Star" and other Democratic papers, published previous to the late October and November elections?
