

OREGON SENTINEL.

JACKSONVILLE WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1880.

NOTICES.

Land Office at Roseburg, Oreg., June 23, 1880. To all whom it may concern: Notice is hereby given that I have designated the OREGON SENTINEL as the paper in which I shall hereafter publish all pre-emptions, homesteads and applications for mining patents for lands lying near Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon.

New Year's Ball.—Madame Holt will give a grand ball on New Year's Eve, which will eclipse everything in this line heretofore furnished in Jacksonville. Tickets to the ball including supper, will be $2.50.

PREACHING.—Rev. D. A. Crowell will preach at the Baptist Church, Manzanita, at 11 A. M., Sunday, Dec. 13; and at Rock Point school house, at early candlelighting the same evening. Rev. M. A. Williams will preach at the M. E. Church, Jacksonville, at 11 A. M., next Sunday, Dec. 13th.

RETURN.—Wm. M. Turner, Esq., senior editor of the SENTINEL, came in on the stage Saturday forenoon, after an absence in Portland of some three weeks. As soon as he gets properly straitened around and entirely rested he will assume his duties as editor-in-chief, and the occupation of the "editor protemp" will be gone.

THE NEW HOTEL.—Holt's new hotel is nearing completion, and the Madame expects to occupy the same with her guests on or about the first of January. Her Chinese help having been discharged she will after this have only white cooks and waiters. The new hotel has been furnished by a large cooking range east at the Yreka foundry especially for the new hotel.

A CORRECTION.—In our issue of Nov. 24th, in detailing the circumstances of the judges of election throwing out a Democratic ticket with the Latin, "Sic Semper Tyrannis" inscribed upon it, our type made us say "Grant's Pass precinct" when it should have been Rock Point precinct. The item is true in every particular, except that it was credited to the wrong precinct.

AN OLD HERO.—Hosca Brown, who resides with his grand son, Orr Brown, near Murphy, in Josephine county, is perhaps the oldest man in that county, being in the 89th year of his age. He is an old veteran of the war of 1812 and draws a pension. Although greatly bent by the weight of years he is still quite active both mentally and physically. He makes be culturp a specialty.

THE 47TH MILE POST.—December 6th a number of relatives and friends gathered at the residence of Henry Klippel, Esq., to congratulate him on the attainment of his 47th birthday. The occasion was an enjoyable one, and if the good wishes of his friends have any influence with Destiny and Providence Henry will go beyond "three scores and ten," as did some of his ancestors.

RED MEN ELECTION.—At a stated council of Oregonian-Pocahontas Tribe No. 1, Improved Order of Red Men, held on the sleep of the 30th sun, Beaver Moon, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Sachem, Chas. Nickell; Senior Sagamore, T. T. McKennie; Junior Sagamore, Jas. G. Birdsey; Trustees, E. D. Fondray, Henry Pape, Sr., David Cronmiller.

WELCOMES TO THEIR NEW HOME.—Mr. and Mrs. Offenbacher, sister and brother-in-law to John Orth, and five children and a young man named Dietrich, arrived in Jacksonville on the stage last Monday. They hail from the Rhineland, Germany, and came by way of New York and overlaid by rail to Redding. They stood their trip of six thousand miles as well as could be expected, but are somewhat fatigued from the tediousness and length of the journey.

A PROFITABLE INDUSTRY.—Hog raising is one of the most profitable industries in Rogue River valley. One farmer alone, Wm. Bybee, has raised and taken to market in California (mostly to Happy Camp) within the past twenty years not less than 20,000 head of fat porkers. These, at $10 a head, would aggregate the snug sum of $200,000, most of which was returned and expended in this valley. Last Friday Mr. Bybee started with another lot of hogs, 117 head, for Happy Camp.

WINDMILLS TAKEN OUT.—Tom Keaton and Laines Klippel have finished taking out their windmills on Rogue river near Douden's last week. We did not learn the amount cleaved up by them. Mr. Keaton will mine on Poor-man's creek this winter. The windmill on Rogue river, half a mile above Chavner's bridge, run by Chinamen, was also taken out last week. Lumber and other material used in constructing the dam has all been placed in places beyond the reach of the winter freshets.

BAND OF STRAY HORSES.—Two weeks ago last Monday seven head of strange horses stopped at the farm of John Watson on Bear creek. Five have since left, but two, a pair of brown horses, about four years old, with a letter "J" marked on right shoulder retained, which the owner can have by calling at above premises and settling for hay bill. This item of news is published in the hope that the proper owner may soon find out the whereabouts of his horses and to take them away; also, to save the expense of posting according to law.

Down in Kingston, N. C., a fellow by the name of Spence tried to kiss Mrs. Waller, and couldn't, and the judge fined him $50. The fellow turned on his heel with the remark, "Darn the ex-Spence."

On an average it costs a Chinaman $150 a year for opium—or about twice as much than he would have to pay for other staples of life. A Celestial will sooner go without his grub than without his opium pipe.

It commenced to rain last Wednesday the 1st inst. The miners and farmers are gratified. However, the whitened mountainheads are an evidence that in those higher altitudes the rain turned into snow.

The "Golden Era" of San Francisco comes to us this week greatly improved and beautified. It is a 16-page quarto, filled with entertaining and useful reading matter, and is rapidly working its way up in popular favor.

M. S. Dean, school teacher at Williams creek, favored us with a pleasant call last Saturday. Mr. D. and our townman C. C. Beekman, hail from the same county in New York, and the two were schoolmates when boys.

The hours of pleasant sunshine on Monday and Tuesday disclosed to view for the first time in five days the thick snow seems to extend from the top to the base of the mountain.

G. W. Holt, has been in town a couple of days this week, getting castings of Lawton & Skinner, for the cooking range to be built in the new Franco-American Hotel at Jacksonville, and left with them last Wednesday.—Yreka Journal.

Missouri beats Indiana in population and in the increase of population, but it cannot equal it in the business of voting. The total number of votes cast in Missouri at the recent election will be about 410,000; the number cast in Indiana was 470,000.

John Goff was in town Friday and brought some very fine specimens of gold bearing quartz and gold dust, which he had taken out of his mine recently on Grave creek. Judging from his clean up last season we believe he has one of the best paying mines in the county.

The stages from the South have been a little behind time owing to the heavy roads in the Siskiyou. The storm and rains last week were much heavier in the mountains than in the valley making travel difficult. The stage encountered 18 inches of snow on the summit.

Mr. Franke and wife, and a Mr. Marquin arrived here last week from San Francisco, and have permanently engaged to Madame Holt; the former as cook and chambermaid, and the latter waiter in the new Franco-American hotel. These people have had much experience in the hotel business.

The following business was transacted at the Roseburg Land Office for the month of November: 18 homesteads embracing 2,581 acres; 11 final homesteads embracing 1,667 acres; 17 pre-emption filings; 1,013 acres sold for cash; one mineral entry embracing 150 acres; and 160 acres of timber land sold.

The Roseburg "Plaindealer" prints the following personal: "Mr. James W. Turner, editor of the Jacksonville SENTINEL, arrived in our city Wednesday evening from Portland, where he has been for several days on business." "Wm. M." who has not yet relieved the "protemp," will be amused to notice the change in his initials.

It is reported that Mr. Alonzo Umphlet has procured the contract from Wm. Barnett for carrying the mail between Waldo, Oregon and this place. His contract, we understand, begins next Monday, and is to continue until the 1st of July, 1882. Robt. Jenkins has been engaged by Mr. Umphlet as mail carrier.—[Dal Norte Record.]

The peribolion has struck the Sandwitch Islands, and already the Mauna Loa has erupted two rivers of molten lava, each thirty feet deep, 200 feet wide, running nearly parallel with each other for a distance of from thirty to fifty miles. It destroys everything it strikes. This is the greatest eruption the Sandwitch Islands have witnessed for years.

Mr. Healey, the telegraph operator, who has been here all summer, and introduced the duplex apparatus, started below last Monday morning and Geo. H. Peck has taken his place in the office. His gentlemanly courtesy and clever disposition has gained him a host of friends in Yreka, who hold him in the highest esteem, wishing him the greatest prosperity wherever he may locate.—[Yreka Journal.]

Orn Brow—Murphy creek, Josephine county, is per thanks for a sample of very fine amber cane molasses. There is no doubt of the entire adaptability of our soil and climate for the cultivation of the sorghum and amber cane, and that by a little more experience in the manufacture of the article we will not only supply the home market; but have plenty left for export.

A special agent of the census office has completed the investigation of the ownership and distribution of 4 and 4 1/2 per cent registered bonds. The total 4 per cents registered is $528,109,650; individuals hold $271,137,900; national banks, $136,306,700; banks and trust companies, $113,306,900; foreign holders, $6,831,150. Total 4 1/2 per cent registered bonds, $470,360,800; individuals hold $72,010,900; bank and trust companies, $53,530,400; national banks, $39,461,950; foreign holders, $5,887,550.

The jury which tried Dr. D. A. Covert on the charge of burning property, after sitting thirteen days and one night, were as nearly worn out as they possibly could be. Including the interim, Thanksgiving holiday, and Sunday, besides the two days that the jury had to adjourn on account of the sickness of the wife of one of the jurors the jury was entitled to seventeen days service. A "hung jury" necessitates either a nolle proes or a new trial, and the latter has been resolved upon by the authorities having charge of the case.

The vote on Congressman in St. Joseph (Mo.) district, between Ford (Republican Greenbacker) and Craig (Democrat) was so close that both sides claimed the Congressman. For two weeks after the election the count indicated that Ford had 19,618 votes and Craig 19,618, and that a new election would in all probability be necessary. But a careful recount brings out the fact that Ford is 3 votes ahead. A dispatch dated Nov. 28th says that candidate Craig has withdrawn all opposition to Mr. Ford and the probabilities are that the latter will receive the certificate of election.

DIED IN CALABOOSE.—Ned Healy, an unfortunate miser, died at the calaboose on the night of the 31st of Dec., where he had been taken by Marshal Crosby a few hours before. He had for some time been drinking and shown unmistakable signs of delirium tremens. On the 18th of November he came to town and took a room at the Franco-American, where he remained until the 29th of the same month. Since then he at times acted very strangely and finally became so annoying that he had to be ejected from the hotel, which he had threatened to burn on several occasions. On the morning of the 3d he complained to Dr. Yrwoman of violent pain in the head and that some one was going to murder him and wanted the Dr. to prescribe some medicine for him, which the Doctor did, Healy going to the City Drug Store to get the prescription filled. He was directed to take a teaspoonful every two hours, until sleep was produced; but instead of following the direction Healy took at one swallow, either inadvertently or with suicidal intent, 1/2 of the contents of the bottle, —a quantity equal to ten doses— from the effects of which he died in one hour. On the morning of the 4th Coroner Schutz summoned a jury who passed upon the cause of the death of the deceased. The verdict was substantially in accordance with the facts narrated above. The deceased was about 38 years of age, was unmarried and was an Englishman by birth.

LEONOR OF HONOR.—The following will be the programme of the entertainment to be given at the Court House by the Legion of Honor, next Friday night, Dec. 10th: 1. Music by the String Band; 2. Opening song by Society; 3. Reading by R. H. Klippel; 4. Duets by Misses Maggie Linn and Annie Little; 5. Recitation by Miss Rosa Cardwell; 6. Song by the little folks; 7. Address; 8. Music by the String Band; 9. Reces; 10. Quartette by Misses Kate Hoffman, Tillie Miller, Capt. Hyzer and John Boyer; 11. Comic speech by Wm. L. Bilger; 12. Song by the boys; 13. Select reading by Miss Kate Cronmiller; 14. Song by Misses Minnie Booth, Carrie Cronmiller and Susie Turner; 15. Select Reading by Miss Annie Little; 16. Song by little folks; 17. Poem by Mrs. W. Webster; 18. Closing song by Society.

S. S. CHRISTMAS TREE.—The preparations for celebrating Christmas with the scholars of the Union Sunday School, under the auspices of the teachers of the school, are progressing favorably. Among the leading features of the occasion will be a Christmas tree nicely decorated and brilliantly illuminated, singing, speaking, music and presentation of the presents. The Misses Cora Linn and Sally Cardwell have kindly consented to act as a finance committee, and they have met with good success in raising funds for defraying the expenditure of the undertaking. The proper committees are working on the programme, which will be published in due season.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE OF OREGON.—The "Statesman" says that on Wednesday last when the electoral vote of the State was cast at Salem there was no display of armed force at the state house and no unseemly parade. Gov. Thyer did not organize himself into a judicial tribunal, and there was no "Crown college." And we may add that Col. Kelly was not present this time, "fully endorsing" a call for money to buy an elector. On the whole the proceedings showed a remarkable improvement over those of four years ago. C. B. Watson was chosen messenger to convey the electoral vote to Washington.

SOCIETY ELECTIONS.—The following society elections will take place on the dates mentioned: Warren Lodge No. 10, F. & A. M., on Dec. 15; Oregon Chapter No. 4, Dec. 14; Adair Chapter No. 3, Dec. 17; Jacksonville Stamm No. 148, A. U. O. R. M., Dec. 16. Table Rock Encampment No. 10, I. O. O. F., Dec. 14; Ruth Rebekah Degree Lodge, No. 4, Dec. 27.

WOMAN DEFEND.—Even the women are not all agreed in wanting the ballot, and it is an open question whether if submitted to a vote of women alone, they would declare in favor of undertaking to discharge the grave duties and responsibilities of electors. But if the women of Oregon and Washington were called upon to vote for the best and most effectual remedy for lame backs and all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs, the vote would be unanimous for the Oregon Kidney Tea, which is sold everywhere.

Garfield is Our Next President.—The Jacksonville New York Store received last Saturday some $3,000 worth of goods which were damaged on the road between Roseburg and Jacksonville. He offers these goods for sale at half their cost for cash. Call and be convinced. M. MEYERSON.

COME HOME MR. HICK, COME HOME.—The Sacramento Bee publishes the following letter, dated Florin, Nov. 4, 1880. If Hick don't respond promptly to this earnest appeal of his lone Carrie we hope some smart Alick will jump his claim, and leave him out in the "cold, wet weather." "Editor Bee: As my husband is a constant reader of your paper, I thought perhaps this might meet his observation, or perhaps that of some one who might know of his whereabouts. He and Harvey Herriek went away about three months since, prospecting for gold. Cold wet weather is coming soon, and I think he had better come home, as I am entirely alone and want the company of my husband or a divorce.—CARRIE HICK."

DEMURRER INTERPOSED.—The defendants in the case of State of Oregon vs. Walter Moss and D. K. Henderson, under indictment for libel, were to plead on Thursday; but their attorneys, Messrs. Durban & Thompson, interposed a demurrer to the indictment, which will cause a delay. The demurrer will probably be argued to-day.—Oregonian, Dec. 4th.

THE COVERT TRIAL.

Tomorrow the trial of Dr. Covert for the alleged crime of arson is to be again commenced in the Circuit Court. At the regular term of the court, just ended, seventeen days were consumed in the trial of this case at an expense of twenty-seven hundred dollars to the county. A most extraordinary number of witnesses, sixty-seven, were summoned on both sides, and we are willing to concede that the case was fairly tried. The jury was composed of the best men in the county. The evidence on the part of the State was entirely circumstantial and that for the defense such as would leave a decided doubt of guilt on the mind of any conscientious man. The first ballot taken by the jury upon retiring was ~~acquit~~ acquittal, five for conviction and one blank, and after a deliberation of about thirty-six hours the jury stood six and six, and were discharged. Under these circumstances it seems to be worse than folly to call a special term of court to try the case again. It may be very pleasant and gratifying to the District Attorney to be permitted to display his forensic powers at the expense of the public, but as our Circuit Court is not organized simply as a law school for the instruction of district attorneys, we protest, on behalf of the tax-payers of this county, against the proposed opening of Court tomorrow for a new trial of this case. We have nothing to say as to the guilt or innocence of the accused. It is not the province of public journals to try cases or pre-empt them; but the extreme haste to convict this man certainly arouses a grave suspicion that persecution and prosecution are about evenly mixed. At all events the case should pass to the next regular term of court; as the talented District Attorney feeling himself able to cope at the expense of the tax-payers, with the ablest attorneys in the county did not see fit to enter a "nolle proesque" and so end it. A special venire means a special and extraordinary expense. Jurors must be summoned from a distance at an increased cost and there is no assurance that the county will not be saddled with a greater bill for a new trial than that just incurred. It has been suggested to us that this extraordinary expense is only a Democratic legacy from the June election, but we are not disposed to take this view of the case and only refer to it on behalf of tax-payers already too severely burdened.

LEAP YEAR PARTY.—A number of the young ladies of Jacksonville met at the residence of Judge Hanna last Monday evening, to make arrangements for a Leap year party, to take place at Holt's Hall on evening of Dec. 24th. Miss Kate Dorwin was elected President; Miss Ibbie McCully, Vice-President; Miss Sophie Nickell, Secretary; and Miss Ida Danforth, Treasurer. The price agreed upon was $1.00 per ticket. The following committees were then appointed: Committee on Arrangements—Misses Ibbie McCully, Sophie Nickell, Malie Feathers and Alice Hanley. Committee on Music—Misses Dora Reames, Mary Langill and Lizzie Helms. Floor Managers—Misses Minnie and Emma Pape, Flora and Celia Orth, Katie Cronmiller and Mary Brentano. Committee on Reception—Misses Ella Prim, Annie Miller, Emma Brown, Tillie Miller and Annie Little. Committee on Supper—Misses Effie Bybee, Aba Ross, Nettie Howard and Alice Berry. Ticket Seller—Aaron Barneburg. The following resolutions were then adopted and it is hoped that they be fully impressed on the memory of all: 1. Gentlemen are requested to conduct themselves in a lady-like manner. 2. Ladies are requested to pay special attention to their partners. 3. Gentlemen's choice but twice during the evening. 4. No clothes for the gentlemen. A cordial invitation is extended to all, both old and young. Ladies furnish the supper and it is expected that each will bring a well filled basket. The committee would ask of the ladies to be at the hall in time for the Grand Polonaise at 8 o'clock sharp, with their partners. SOPHIE NICKELL, Secretary.

BORN.—CALDWELL.—In Manzanita precinct November 23d, to the wife of Wm. S. Cardwell, a son. ROWE.—In Table Rock precinct, November 25th, to the wife of Marcellus Rowe, a daughter. BUNYARD.—Near Ashland, November 18th, to the wife of James Bunyard, a daughter. ROACH.—In Ashland, November 22d, to the wife of Richard Roach, a daughter.

DIED.—BRAWLEY.—In Phoenix, November 30, 1880, of lung fever, Geo. Brawley, aged about 17 years. WILLIAMS.—Near Ashland, December 1, 1880, of paralysis, Samuel Williams, aged about 70 years. TINKHAM.—Near Bybee's ferry, December 2, 1880, of hemorrhage of the lungs, Levi Tinkham, aged about 64 years.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Sheriff's Sale. BY VIRTUE OF AN EXECUTION duly issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Jackson, on the 16th day of November, 1880, upon a judgment received in said Circuit Court on the 3th day of January, 1878, which judgment, was duly enrolled and docketed in the Clerk's office of said Court on the 5th day of January, 1878, in favor of White and Martin, and against Thomas G.
