

OREGON SENTINEL.

JACKSONVILLE
WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1880.

NOTICE.

Land Office, Roseburg, Ore.,
June 30, 1880.
To All Whom it may Concern: Notice is hereby given that I have designed the OREGON SENTINEL as the paper in which I shall hereafter publish all prescriptions, homestead and applications for mining patents for lands lying near Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon.
W. F. BENJAMIN, Register.

VACATION.—When the public school in this district closes Friday it will not be re-opened until Monday January 3d, a vacation being during the holidays.

TURKEY SHOOTING.—Willie Bilger has arranged for several dozen turkeys which will be put up for a turkey shooting match on Christmas day at twenty-five cents a shot. Good shots need not purchase holiday turkeys now as they can get them a great deal cheaper at this shooting match.

CHRISTMAS BALL.—A social dance will be given at Phoenix on Christmas eve by Mrs. Dan Lavenburg to which everybody is invited. Good music has been secured and every one knows that the supper furnished by Mrs. La-venburg cannot be excelled anywhere.
Tickets $2.50.

ODD FELLOW'S INSTALLATION.—The newly elected officers of Jacksonville Lodge No. 10 will be installed by D.
D. G. M. Helman on Saturday, Jan.
8, 1880, when the new work of the order will also be exemplified and degrees conferred. All the brothers are requested to be present at that time.

ENCAMPMENT ELECTION.—Table Rock Encampment, I. O. O. F., elected the following officers at the last regular meeting:
K. Kubli, Chief Patriarch; Silas J.
Day, High Priest; Herman Helms, Senior Warden; F. Luy, Junior Warden; J. A. Boyer, Scribe; John Miller, Treasurer; Silas J. Day, K. Kubli, Herman Helms, Trustees.

COURT.—We will follow the court from the Roseburg Pleistadale:
State of Oregon vs. Ex Rel W. F.
Benjamin, vs. the Douglas county Road Co., action to annul the charter of a corporation. Motion to dismiss overruled, on trial.

B. F. Dowell vs. Jesse Applegate, buit in equity to aid execution. Continued.

J. M. Courtney vs. K. Kubli, et al, injunction. Continued.

ONE BY ONE.—On Monday night Geo. L. Thompson crossed the three fold of eternity and another of the familiar faces of Jacksonville is gone.
Mr. Thompson was born in Toronto, Canada, in 1818, and at one time was in the shipping business in Belfast, Ireland. He was in the employ of Morris Menor of this city as a clerk for nearly twenty years, and regarded as a faithful employee and a quiet, unobtrusive citizen. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. Menor to-day—Peace to his ashes.

USELESS BRIDGE.—The bridge built across Cow creek last summer by the authority of Douglas county is said to be a very safe and substantial structure and no doubt intended to supply a want long felt by the travelling public.
At present the bridge is quite useless as it is impossible to approach it, and it is a matter of conjecture whether the County Court of that County desire the public to derive benefit from it or not. If they are afraid the bridge will be worn out by travel the Court is pursuing an excellent course to save it. Where is Strickland!

FROM SILVER CREEK.—Mr. Thomas F. Rogers of Silver Creek, in Josephine county, called on his last week and showed us some very handsome gold recently taken out of his mining claim on that creek. The specimens are heavy smooth gold, such as is called "lead" gold by miners as it is thought to indicate a lead or continued pay streak, and weighing from one to four dollars. A nugget was taken out a few weeks since weighing $51 and Mr.
Rogers says half ounce pieces are quite common. He estimates the average wages of the miners at $5 per day and says that only about eight will remain in the camp during the winter, the balance being already two and a half feet deep.

MEMORIAL NOTICE.—The old and young leave us. This time it is Mrs.
Emeline Cameron who departed this life at the family residence in Uniontown, Jackson county, Or., Dec. 16, 1880, aged 71 years, 5 months and 15 days. She was a native of Madison county, New York, where in early life she was reared and educated under the auspices of the Presbyterian Church, and the moral and religious influences thus received did much in shaping her course in life. About eleven years ago she with her husband and youngest son immigrated to this state, and settled in this county, where resided three of her sons and one daughter, and here she resided ever since. Nearly three years ago she was called upon to mourn the loss of her husband, James Cameron, whom she now follows to the spirit land. Feeble in body, the result of the weight of years, she was sick but a few moments, and her dissolution took place, apparently, without a struggle. Thus has passed from among us one of the oldest and most respected of our matrons. The remains were followed by her sorrowing children and a large number of friends, and laid beside those of her husband in the beautiful Masonic cemetery, on Saturday morning, at the Catholic Church.
The singing and music by the young ladies' amateur choir.

outs at his lively stable.

Ducks are said by sportsmen to be unusually scarce in this valley owing, probably, to the mildness of the winter at their breeding grounds.

There is a great demand for hogs on Klamath and in Scott's valley but they are scarce in this market and but few can be gathered for export.

The New Town Hall is nearly ready to be occupied. The "Calaboose" is to needed.

The Metropolitan hotel in Roseburg caught fire Thursday morning, but through the prompt action of Mr.
Canan and others it was soon extinguished.

Have you an invitation to the "Leap Year?" is what wives ask their husbands. The answer is universally "no mum," but how some men will twist the truth.

After being out 69 hours the jury in the case against Schroeder for the murder of Dr. Leveque of Oakland, Cal., a short time since returned a verdict of not guilty.

Clerk Huffer of the Jacksonville school district announces that unless

No matter if E. Jacobs did loose his their wants known, and they can have all their wants supplied there.

The ladies having charge of the Leap Year ball request us to ask those who intend furnishing enables for the supper to bring them to Holt's hall early in the afternoon of Friday next.

Kargewski invites his customers to look at his stock. Would there be anything nicer than a first class stove for a Christmas present? And stoves are only a small part of his stock.

Geo. Frey of Little Butte reports the range in that section better than it has been during the winter for many years. Grass is springing up finely on the sunny slopes and cattle are doing well.

Some handy person stole eight fine turkeys from E. Jacobs on Sunday night. To steal turkeys just on the eve of the holidays just when the owner most needs them is downright mean.

A. H. Carson of Josephine county called on us last evening and reports times flourishing in that section. He has some intention of moving here to give his children the advantage of our school.

A very boom in the matter of improvements in Jackson county is noted. In respect to many points of advantage, (climate not the least), Jackson is the best county in Oregon.
—Port Orford Post.

A sham duel between two Jacksonville bloods at Veit's brewery last Saturday night demonstrated the fact that nine able-bodied men can get out of harm's way at the same time by squatting behind the stove.

Quit talking about game law as it is useless. Soon there will be no game to protect and then the lazy set who are subsisting on its slaughter will have to go to work and earn enough to keep their worthless carcasses alive.

Sheriff Bybee returned from Happy Camp last Friday, but we are sorry to note that his health is not much improved. We learn that he contemplates making a sea voyage soon with the hope of benefiting his health.

Mrs. Berry offers very handsome

The tidings tickles the court with the straw of inconsistency which is absolutely worse than its declination to accord veneration for anything earthly. To say that a court is inconsistent is the most contemptuous treason.

R. B. Loos has sold his interest in the Yreka Tribune to his partner Rudolph Remus. It will no longer be a loos publication and, Bro. Remus, here's luck, and a hope that the Tribune ceasing to be "loos" will never get tight.

The press of the country has been busy since the election of President Garfield in forming his cabinet but we ing with beautiful holiday presents and the urbane junior of the firm will be delighted to wait on you, no matter whether you want pills, perfume, prescriptions or pretty things for your weakness or your little ones.

Judging from the number of deer skins being brought to town since the advance in prices it is more than likely that the law making it a punishable offense for slaughtering deer for their hides only is not being enforced. Some one will get caught yet, however.

Oregon's population.—The population of the State of Oregon, according to the schedules returned to the Census Office by the enumerators, is as follows: Males, 103,383; females, 71, 379; total, 174,762; native, 144,322; foreign born, 30,440; white, 163,082; colored, 11,680.

A man named Bajer got into a row in a saloon at Harriburg last week, drew a pistol and shot himself in the leg. Served him right, and if all draw-fights who make a practice of drawing weapons without occasion were to shoot themselves it would be a blessing to every community.

Wm. Kenney commenced handling the ribbons to-day for the O. & C.
Stage Co. He has the stock from Grant's Pass to Levens, an ugly winter drive, but "Billy" will be a good careful driver and no doubt will acquit himself with credit. To be Martin drives the swing between Rock Point and Grants Pass.

Liturgical writers assign to the three masses on Christmas day the following mystic meaning: First, the eternal birth of the Son of God in the bosom of his father; second, his birth in time in the womb of his immaculate mother; third, his spiritual birth in the hearts of the faithful by a worthy reception of the Holy Communion.

Speaking of the signal service Secretary of War Ramsey says: Cautionary signals have been made systematically on occasions of supposed danger at one hundred and two different sea and lake ports and cities. Of the total number of cautionary signals this displayed, eighty-three and four tenths per cent have been justified.

After the verdict in the Covert case, the SENTINEL office was besieged by the jury, curious to see the article they had been forbidden to read. The unanimous opinion was that any one who thought a juror would be swayed from his duty by it was guilty of contempt and ought to be pun-ished, and "that's what's the matter with Hannah."

The Indians of the Yakima reservation last year raised 34,000 bushels of wheat, besides various other products including 1000 tons of hay. They have built a handsome church and many other comfortable farm houses, and less than ten per cent. of their wants are supplied by the government.

Ex. And still be told that the reservation system is a lamentable failure.

We are informed that the County Judge says that $3000 must be subscribed and paid into the county treasury by those interested in the proposed bridge across Rogue river before the County Court will appropriate a like sum. The cost of the bridge is estimated at $6000 and if the people of Sam's valley want a bridge they know just what to do.

Hon. Jno. H. Moore, one of the oldest and most influential citizens of Salem died in this city on Thursday, Dec. 16th. Mr. Moore was several times a member of the Legislative Assembly and a brother of L. R. Moore, once Speaker of the House. He was universally respected for his purity of character and leaves behind him that which is better than all—a good name.

The verdict in the Schroeder case in California has aroused universal comment and the press are handling Judge and jury without kids. It is openly charged that Judge Green showed shameless partiality for the murderer, and that his rulings were universally against the prosecution. So it seems that in California the courts are not hedged about with that special divinity with which the little "lickspittle" or-ganettes of Oregon, having no opinion of their own, would invest them.

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Patrons and friends and fellow toilers through this vale of sorrow, again we give you Christmas greeting.
Old time has marked another cycle in his tireless round. Gentle Spring with her warm and fragrant breath and flowery footsteps—slumberous Summer laden with the full fruition of Spring's promises—Autumn with thrift and plenty and well filled garner have come and passed away and in a few days Merry Christmas, too will have been reckoned with the past. There are few spots on earth where the natal day of our Savior possesses so deep an interest as where the moaning tide of the great Pacific says to the swelling surges of civilization—"No farther!" for among us there are still thousands who remember the happy Christmas days of yore that brought with them the pleasant reunions, the loving, kindly greetings of kindred and that are recalled with hallowed and sacred reverence. How many more Christmas greetings may pass between us none may say. Since the last many familiar faces have gone beyond the "further shores," are the anniversary of this great Nazarine comes again many more will follow. For the sake of Him, in whose honor the day is kept, let it be one of cordial fellowship, of real and heartfelt Christian charity for our mutual weaknesses, of forgiveness for our mutual wrongs, of relief from the petty spites and grudges of humanity, of reconciliation for our mutual enemies and there will be few who will not bless the single day in the year that softens the thorns that beset the feet of humanity. May the Christmas holly always be green and may the day come as of old; with its hallowed springs of real unalloyed happiness is our cordial wish to all mankind.

A cold day.
We are indebted to Wm. Savage for the following curious facts with regard to the late jury, collected during their term of imprisonment: James Tufts months; Wm. Harper 158 lbs., age 64 years 3 months; Jno. Ashmead 172 lbs., months; Wm. Savage 150 lbs., age 26 lbs., age 64 years 3 months; Richard Collins 147 lbs., age 47 years 3 months. Average weight 163 lbs., average age 48 years; average height 5 feet 9 inches. Who says this was not a solid jury and one that had reached the years of discretion?

sold out his interest in the saloon business at Kerbyville to his old partner,

Four Through Lines of Railroad.
Are now pointing toward Oregon—the Northern Pacific, the Utah Northern, the Winnemucca, and one from Reno. When all these are completed, the rush of population to this northern section will be wonderful, and in anticipation of it, Messrs. Hodge, Davis & Co. have enlarged their facilities for the manufacture of the Oregon Kidney Tea, which has never been known to fail in curing the worst cases of backache or any disease of the kidneys or urinary organs of either sex. Sold all over.
