

NOTICE.

Land Office, Roseburg, Oreg., June 30, 1881. Notice is hereby given that I have designated the OREGON SENTINEL as the paper in which I shall hereafter publish all pre-emptions, homestead and applications for mining patents for lands lying near Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon.

To RETURN.—Dr. Will Jackson, who has been north on a dental trip will return next week and will be on hand to attend any branch of dentistry. The Dr. will be welcomed by the unfortunate victims of toothache.

PROSPERING.—Messrs. J. H. Penn & F. L. Maddux are now running a tin shop and stove store at the corner of 6th and Washington streets, Portland, and, we are pleased to say, are doing a good business. Any one visiting Portland will always do well by giving them a call.

RACES ON THE FOURTH.—Providing the citizens of Jacksonville decide on having the Fourth of July celebration at the Court House square James A. Cardwell will hang up several purses to be contested for on that day by the running and trotting horses of this valley.

GOING TO LINKVILLE.—We regret to note the loss of one of our best physicians, Dr. Martin Vrooman, who has gone to Linkville to locate, there being no practitioner there. Dr. Vrooman is a regular graduate and a man of ripe experience and sound judgment and is not one of the "guessing" school of physicians.

THE RAILROAD SURVEY.—Col. Hurlburt's party of railroad surveyors, having succeeded in establishing a practical line for a road north are now surveying south of the summit of the canyon. It is said that the surveyors will find less difficulty in establishing a grade on this than on the other side of the summit.

PIONEER MEETING.—A meeting of this society was held at the Town Hall last Thursday for the purpose of electing officers with the following result: President, Wm. Hoffman; Vice Presidents, J. M. McCall and Jasper Houck; Secretary, Silas J. Davis; Treasurer, George Knoll. Asman was as the place for holding the fifth annual reunion of this society, and Thursday, Sept. 15th is the day set.

A NEW RESIDENCE.—John Orth on Wednesday moved his old dwelling house to the rear of the lot, and has everything in readiness for commencing to build a new brick residence on the premises of the old. The dimensions of the structure will be 36 by 60 feet, two stories high, with rock cellar underneath, and the whole to be set off by a handsome porch. Mr. O. is one of our most substantial citizens and he generally "makes everything go" what he undertakes.

SUNDAY LECTURES.—John Beeson will give a lecture in the Court House, next Sunday at half past two o'clock. Subject, "Laws of heredity, or the influence of antidual education." Only gentlemen, no women nor boys under fifteen years are invited. At half past seven p. m., the same day he will speak at Holt's Hall on the recently formed "Institute of heredity." Ladies as well as gentlemen are respectfully invited and an opportunity will be given for those who wish, to become patrons of the Institute.

BASKET MEETING.—I will hold a basket meeting at the school house at Central Point on Sunday the 12th of June. Prof. L. L. Rogers and Ludru Royal of Ashland College, and other ministers will be present to entertain the people. The occasion will be one of great interest. Two services will be held; one at 11 a. m. and the other at 2 p. m. One of the services will be devoted to the cause of education, a subject in which every body is interested. Every body should be present, and all are requested to bring their dinner and stay for the afternoon service. The meeting will be held in the open air under the trees near the school house. All are invited to come and have a good time. D. A. CROWELL, Pastor.

THE STORM.—A heavy south wind visited Jacksonville and vicinity yesterday morning between five and six o'clock, which shook up the trees pretty generally, twisting off some saplings and the limbs of fruit and shade trees, also shaking up the folks who reside in rickety buildings exposed to the wind. The sky was overcast with a dense coat of clouds and the distant rumbling of thunder could be plainly heard. A glorious rain ensued allaying the dust and refreshing vegetation which had for some time been drooping for the want of moisture. The barometer had for some days pointed to the stormy side of the compass, and the thermometer, which for a week had danced among the eights sank down to fifty. It was evident that other parts of the valley besides our own were sharers in the outpouring, which lasted most of the afternoon and is still raining as we go to press.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Let us celebrate! Ashland will celebrate the Fourth also.

Dr. Ed. Robinson passed through Jacksonville the other day on his way to Portland, where he goes to attend the Bybee-Hockett suit.

The proceedings of the Teacher's Institute held at Ashland have been unavoidably crowded out this week, but will appear in our next.

P. Finrock and John Frauenknecht started last week for Idaho to seek their fortunes in the Wood river mines. Hope they may strike it.

The undertakers of a number of the Missouri valley towns advertise that they will bury printers at half price. Generous souls, whose undertakers!

Wm. Spangler came in Thursday from Redding with an immense load of freight for G. Karewski. A lot of agricultural implements came along.

We understand several excursion parties are forming in this county to visit Crater Lake this summer. Prof. Merritt of this city, expects to be in one of them.

The quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church South for this circuit will take place to-day and to-morrow (June 4th and 5th) at the Antioch school house, Sam's valley.

All the teachers of Jackson county who attended the Institute, speak of it in terms of highest praise. It certainly was an occasion of great profit to all who participated.

The Jacksonville Amateur minstrels who performed at Holt's Hall Friday night of last week, propose soon to give another entertainment of which due notice will be given.

The Jacksonville Circuit Court will convene on the second Monday of this month being the 13th of June. The appearances indicate that the docket will be light.

From Henry Pech and J. Tunn, who reside on Little Butte creek, we learn that the grasshoppers are preying on the gardens and alfalfa fields in that neighborhood.

Last Wednesday was a sultry day. In the afternoon a passing cloud treated us to a few darts of lightning, some thunder and a few drops of rain. Good enough for a starter.

Gen. T. G. Reames and W. J. Plymouth have been chosen to represent Banner Lodge No. 23, A. O. U. W., in the Grand Lodge which meets at Portland on July 13th.

A lawn festival and concert by the Jacksonville Brass Band, at the Court House Park, one of these fine moonlight evenings, is one of the possibilities of the near future.

Nort Eddings, an account of whose accident we published last week, is at the New State Hotel of this place and is steadily improving. He expects soon to be "out of the woods."

Robt. Cameron of Uniontown informs us that that section of the county was visited by several severe frosts last week. The mildew killed some of the tender plants in the gardens.

Geo. Schumpf, carrier of the Wright, Sterling and Uniontown mail, on Wednesday brought to town a nice lot of fish. They were mostly salmon caught in the Applegate near Uniontown.

The Lakeview Herald of May 21st contains the following personal notice: Dr. L. Danforth and Ladd Savage, of Jacksonville, were in town this week. They are en route to Boise City, Idaho.

The cases of diptheria heretofore reported from Wagner creek, are not of the malignant type. A system of preventive treatment seems to have been sufficient to control the disease.

The letter of H. Gasquet in another part of this paper will furnish the reader with the latest phase of the Crescent City wagon road question. It will be seen Mr. G. means business.

The colts from Robt. Westrop's horse Turk, seem to be the favorites now. We have seen several stock raisers who have colts from this horse who claim to have the finest in the valley.

The Patala Spirit has seen a three legged chicken. The extra leg is to do the scraping when a new pullet comes along. Another leg would be convenient to many human roosters—don't it.

On Monday we were visited by a light rain, which barely laid the dust. Judging from appearances it rained more in the mountains. Small favors thankfully received, and greater ones in proportion.

Goose Lake as well as Big Klamath Lake are soon to have a steamboat each on them. At the former lake the proprietors expect to have the vessel ready to celebrate a portion of the 4th of July.

James Sutherland took C. W. Kahler's trotting mare "Nelly" and a two year old filly belonging to James McDonough to Yreka this week where he is proposing entering them for the Yreka races at the Fair.

Prof. L. J. Powell passed through here on last Sunday's stage bound for his home in Albany. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Lucas, of California, who goes to the Willamette to attend school.

D. M. McMenamy, formerly Deputy Sheriff of this county, and Byron Terrill of Little Butte, left here on Monday for Idaho, taking with them a number of horses and mules. They go by way of Linkville.

W. H. Byars of the Plaindealer passed through here on Monday's stage en route for the Goose Lake country where he has a government surveying contract. We only saw his pleasant face for a few minutes.

The cherry season which has been a very prosperous one, is drawing to a close. The past two weeks many of our housekeepers have been engaged canning this delicious fruit. The birds are also putting up with them.

Nick Ficke will next week commence the erection of a spacious new barn, 20 by 50 feet and 16 feet high. He intends putting up a large amount of hay for feeding his sheep, when they come in from the mountains next winter.

The M. E. pulpit in this place was filled by Rev. S. S. Caldwell, formerly of the Ashland Presbyterian church. We understand Mr. Caldwell will shortly assume the pastorate of a congregation at some point north of here.

We this week publish the third and last article descriptive of a trip to Crater Lake from the Lakeview Herald. These articles will be of especial benefit to those of our citizens who propose visiting shortly this continental wonder.

J. L. Wilder of Josephine county spent a few days in town this week. He says the outlook for a good crop in Josephine is anything but flattering, owing to the fact that the reasonable spring rains failed to come to time. Sorry to hear it.

Wagons loaded with huge bales of marketable wool may now be seen passing through town and county bound for the railroad station. The wool product of the Rogue river country goes partly to Redding and partly to Roseburg.

D. R. White of Griffin creek passed through town on Tuesday with two loads of building lumber from the Williams creek saw mill. Mr. W. has planned a number of useful improvements about his farm which will take considerable lumber.

We have received a copy of the Arizona Daily Star, an excellent 28-column paper published by L. C. Hughes. It is a sprightly, newsy publication, and gives evidence of the astonishing development of that interesting part of our common country.

Wm. M. Turner, editor in chief of this paper, left here yesterday for the Sprague river country to survey a lot of Governmental land which will be done about four months hence, which time the editorial tripod will be occupied by Adam Klippel, Esq.

The Oregon Conference of the M. E. Church will meet in East Portland, Thursday August 18th, Bishop B. O. Haven presiding. The Columbia river conference of the same church will convene at Waitsburg, W. T., on the 4th of the same month, same Bishop to preside.

Two bottles of the genuine Budweiser beer were received at this office this week accompanied by the compliments of J. Gripp, travelling agent for Bach, Meese & Co., of San Francisco. The beer was excellent and we hope the company will never lose their Grip.

Geo. L. Bailey of New York advertising agent for Perry Davis vegetable painkiller, was in town Monday and Tuesday. The past sixteen years, Mr. B. says, he has visited nearly every portion of the habitable world, and everywhere Perry Davis painkiller is used.

According to our suggestions of last week a meeting of the citizens of Jacksonville is called to meet at the Court House to-morrow at half past two o'clock to make arrangements for celebrating the coming Fourth of July. Turn out everybody and help make it a success.

J. K. Gill, Esq., book dealer of Portland, passed through Jacksonville last Saturday on his way to New York. He missed the steamer at Portland for San Francisco and not having time to wait for the next steamer he was compelled to take the overland stage to Redding.

A distressed western motor relieves his mind thusly: "Government is going to discontinue the coinage of nickels. If that is done we are a goner. How does the government intend to provide for the editors? Such legislation is a direct stab at the liberty of the press—give us nickels or give us death."

The Postmaster General on May 19th established the following post offices in this State: Crowley, Polk county, route 44,004, between McCoy 4 miles north, and Rickard 4 miles south; Langlois, Curry county, route 44,144, between Bandon 14 miles north, and Port Orford 15 miles south.

We learn that quite a number of cattle were poisoned last week on the range in the vicinity of Silver Lake. They were grazing where there was an abundance of wild parsnip and the herdsmen discovered it only after a number had eaten of the fatal bane and had succumbed to its deadly effect.—State Line Herald.

Nick Wright, the clever dispenser of Uncle Sam's mails on Upper Applegate, came to town on Thursday accompanied by his family. Uncle Nick is one of the appointees of President Hayes' administration, and his successful management will no doubt result securing him the position during President Garfield's term.

Prof. A. L. Johnson's second lecture on the decay of nations, or rise and fall of the Chinese empire, will take place at Holt's hall to-night. Each lecture is splendidly illustrated with a fine collection of emblematic paintings, covering more than 10,000 feet of canvas. It pays to attend these lectures. Admission only 25cts.

The venerable John Beeson, of Wagner creek, lectured in the Court House last Sunday afternoon, to a small audience of men and one lady. His subject: "causes and cure of evil." He was not exhausted by considerable, and he promised to lecture again as soon as he should hear the particulars of a convention of scientists now deliberating in one of the cities of the East.

The Tidings says: Last week three different individuals of a bilious tendency tumbled into the creek that runs through town. They had been in the habit of crossing a gang plank leading into the rear of an establishment for their "bitters" when the accident happened. Somehow of a scare and a good ducking, resulting in "sobering up" the parties was the result.

On Tuesday the 24th of May, Mrs. Inans, living at the saw mill opposite the Cascades on the Washington Territory side of the Columbia, while walking in advance of her husband and carrying a child, was attacked by a wild steer. The child was thrown down and badly hurt and Mrs. Inans was gored in the abdomen, one horn being thrust the full length into her body, inflicting a horrible wound. She lies in a precarious condition.

THE LAST DAY'S RACES.—The last day of the races, the other two days having been reported in last issue, proved the most interesting of any that had been previously held. A large attendance was present and considerable money found its way into the pool box on the different races of the day. The first was a match race of 300 yards between Ellison's "Capt. Jinks" and Kendrick's "Skedaddle," $40 a side, which was won by the former. The next was a single dash of one mile between James Drum's "Gray Dick" and the Baley mare; won by the former in 2:05. After this came the foot race, which proved the event of the day. The entries were Henry Menser, Fred Wickwire and George Dunlap, distance, 80 yards and repeat. Menser proved the favorite in the pools and also won the race easily in two straight heats. For the trotting race there were two entries, C. W. Kahler's, "Nelly" and Jas. A. Cardwell's "Aleck" won by the former in two straight heats, time 3:01. The track was very heavy during the continuation of the races, which accounts for the slow time made, but the proprietor promises to do considerable work on it before the next races occur.

RAILROAD WORK.—Since the withdrawal of the suits by Villard complete harmony has been restored between the Oregon Railway and Navigation and the Northern Pacific railroad companies, and the work of construction on both roads is now being vigorously pushed. Speaking of the acquisition of the C. & O. R. R., the Chicago Tribune of a recent date says: Mr. Villard and his friends have recently acquired the Oregon and California lines running south from Portland in the valley of the Willamette river, and they are to be extended southward to connect with the California and Oregon railroad so as to form a connection with San Francisco by rail. This system has already 300 miles of railway in operation—200 on the east bank and 100 on the west bank. Under the plan of reorganization adopted at Frankfurt-on-the-Main a few days ago, a new loan of $6,000,000 was obtained on the security of these 300 miles in operation and of the extension proposed to be built, and work will be proceeded with immediately.

DANGERS OF THE FOOT LOG.—The long foot log spanning Big Applegate between the Squaw Lake company's diggings and the Grand Applegate mines on Wednesday last was the scene of an exciting accident. Mrs. Geo. Schumpf, who was visiting the mines, whilst endeavoring to cross the foot log and when near the center of the log, lost her balance and being overcome by a sense of dizziness, fell into the stream dragging with her Dan Silva, who was assisting her across. As the waters of Applegate at that point are very swift and deep a scene ensued that beggars description. The heroic struggle for dear life was witnessed by the helpless spectators on shore, and Dan Silva after intense application succeeded in rescuing himself and charge from a watery grave. It was a close call for Mrs. Schumpf, but all the injuries she sustained consisted in a big scare and a thorough wetting.

FROM WOOD RIVER.—Samuel S. Bowden of this city has received a letter from the Wood river mines, written by Jos. Parkhurst and dated May 22d, at Ketchum, Idaho, conveying the following information about that country: I believe this to be a good country. Mining men say that there is more ore in sight than in any country in America. Many capitalists are coming and making purchases of mining property, but little machinery is here yet. In July several mills will be erected; three saw mills are just being put up. There is plenty of work for carpenters, and all other laborers desiring employment, at good wages. I have never encouraged persons to go to new countries, which this is. But the Wood river country will remind you of California in 1850, only that money is not plenty as then. Nothing has, as yet, been realized from the mines.

CONQUERING A GRIZZLY.—A good story is told of a trapper and a grizzly had, said to have taken place only a short time ago in the Cascade mountains near Spencer's ranch. The trapper was out in the woods with a sharp axe blazing trees for a trail into a dense section of the forest, when he saw a huge grizzly coming rapidly toward him. Running away from him was out of the question, and being without gun his only show was to stand his ground with his axe and go for his assailant with that weapon. He succeeded in getting in a lick just back of the grizzly's shoulders, burying the axe so deep that it stuck fast. Dodging the struggling grizzly the trapper finally got in the finishing stroke, and his hide was the only trophy he carried off from the field of battle.

CLEAN UP.—The warm days of summer as well as the time to clean up, are upon us. Begin with your cellar, then the dooryard and be sure not to stop until the gutter in front of your house and the alley back of it are in a good sanitary condition. Decaying vegetables left over winter in the cellars and outhouses should be removed, for if left they will generate malaria, diptheria and a doctor's bill, and possibly undertake, gravedigger and tombstone expenses.

SUGAR CANE SEED.—Hon. M. C. George, our Congressman, has caused to have forwarded to our address eight packages of sorghum sugar cane seed of white Liberian species, from the Department of Agriculture, which are for distribution to such of our farmers who are willing to experiment with it. Those wishing to try the experiment raising sugar cane from this seed are welcome to come and get some.

ASHLAND COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

The closing exercises of this young institution, including class examinations, occupied the first three days of last week, May 23, 24 and 25. The annual sermon by Rev. W. T. Chapman was delivered on Sunday evening in the M. E. Church. The examinations occupying three school days, were both oral and written, giving ample opportunity for visitors to participate in the exercises, and to judge intelligently concerning the attainments of pupils. Prominent among the visitors and ample form was our State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Prof. L. J. Powell. Also that of County Superintendent, J. D. Fountain, scarcely less ample.

On Monday evening the public were treated to a feast of good things in the shape of a literary entertainment, in which, had it been a contest for honors the prize would have fallen to the Primary Department, where "marching song" and other performances were executed with such perfection to not only delight but surprise those who expected good things from there under the training of Mrs. Rogers. The recitations by those of the higher grades were excellent.

Tuesday evening came the musical entertainment, which was patronized by a large audience filling the spacious chapel. Among the pieces rendered with special excellence were the "Hallelujah chorus" and the "Hunters Glee." Miss Ella Scott, of San Francisco, had charge of the musical department during the past year. She is succeeded by Miss Weber of Chicago, Ill. Wednesday evening brought the crowning success of the entire programme, it being the occasion of the institution awarding its first diplomas. Two undergraduates represented the lower grades; John T. Gore of Phoenix, presenting an original oration of much merit and Miss Maria Merriman of Jacksonville an essay. Prof. Powell, who sat near the writer, applauded them warmly, and whispered the suggestion that we should not hear them excelled this evening.

The graduating class consisted of Miss Kate A. Thornton, Mr. William H. Gore and Miss Nettie Wagner, all of Jackson county. The productions of these were full of thought and evinced excellent rhetorical training. Marks of undoubted originality, independent expression, earnest and graceful diction characterized them. Each was so excellent in itself and so admirably performed that when Prof. Powell was called out for some remarks at the close, he responded with more than his accustomed warmth; speaking in highest terms of the school and of all that he had seen of its work and workers, closing with the remark that he had "never on graduating occasions in Oregon or in any other State, seen the performances of this evening excelled." Others who had in the eastern states witnessed commencements, asserted the same. The address to the graduating class was given by Prof. Ludru Royal, after which President Rogers presented the diplomas which are the first awarded by the school.

The audience was large and intelligent, leading citizens not only of Jackson county, but of Lake and Josephine and of Northern California being present, and manifested an eager and admiring interest. We predict for Ashland College and Normal School continued success. It has already won a warm and seeming permanent place in the sympathies of the people. A future of great usefulness and honor is before it. The friends of the institution are much pleased that President Rogers remains in his present position, and that Rev. Ludru Royal has been elected Vice President and Professor of natural science. Miss Kate Thornton remains as assistant teacher, and Mrs. Rogers who is popular with all the pupils has consented to continue as preceptress of the College and principal of the preparatory department. As before noted, Miss A. Weber of Chicago, was elected teacher of Instrumental Music.

CIRCUIT COURT JURORS.—The following is the list of jurors drawn for the June term of Circuit Court to convene on the 13th: J. W. Manning, J. H. Whipple, P. Donegan, Thos. Kahler, Arthur Wilson, Arthur Pool, John Cardwell, John O'Brien, I. J. Phipps, John W. Mills, Oscar Ganiard, James Helms, Thos. Wright, J. W. Smith, C. S. Sergeant, Wm. P. Hillis, Danl. Chapman, Wm. Sonson, John Slegle, John Sizemore, J. P. True, T. A. Newman, John Miller, H. F. Barron, John Neuthammer, Orlando Rose, J. A. Ashpole, J. M. McCall, Wm. Peninger, T. J. Kenney, Wm. Cameron.

DOWN THE EMBANKMENT.—Quite an accident befel Al. Sturges last Tuesday night as he was endeavoring to find his way home in the dark from Jackass creek. Walking along what he supposed to be the road he missed his step and fell over a 20-foot embankment onto a pile of rocks. He came down, he hardly knows how but very much like a bag of meal—altogether. A few bruises and a broken upper rib were the sum total of the injuries, and Al is doing well under the care of Dr. Aiken.

GRAPES AND PEACHES.—The season so far has been very favorable to the growth of orchards and vineyards. At no previous season have the peach trees been so heavily loaded as now. The "thinning out" process is being resorted to by many orchard men to prevent the trees from breaking down. The vineyards also promise to yield more bountifully than ever.

AN "ONPLEASANTNESS."—The monotony of our village was somewhat disturbed the other night, by a street fight or two. The next day, the eyes, face and nose of one of the participants were seen in deep mourning. Bad whisky, as usual, was at the bottom of the fracas.
