

NOTICE. Land Office at Roseburg, Ore., June 3, 1881. To All Whom It May Concern: Notice is hereby given that I have designated the OREGON SENTINEL as the paper in which I shall hereafter publish all pre-emptions, homestead and applications for mining patents for lands lying near Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—John Benson will lecture to-morrow in Holt's Hall at half past two on Ingersoll's reasons for being an infidel, and some reasons for being a Christian. At 8 o'clock, P. M. on the prevention inherited evil.

FAILED TO AGREE.—After delib- rating for a long time the jury in the case of Bybee vs. Hawke, et al, tried in the U. S. Circuit Court, failed to agree. As there were uncompromising differences the Court discharged the jurors yesterday morning.—Oregonian, June 9th.

A WORK OF PATIENCE.—Mrs. Jane McCally, one of the early pioneers of Jackson county, is an indefatigable worker. She is now finishing a beautiful ribbon quilt, composed of fifty-six square blocks, each block containing forty-five different pieces of silk and ribbon. The quilt when finished will contain 2520 pieces, exclusive of the binding.

THE R. R. SURVEY.—Hurlbur's surveying party has suspended operations in the Canyon for a few days, but work will again be resumed about next Monday. Mr. Hurlbur is now in Portland. We are informed that our statement of last week, announcing that a line was being run on the south side of the Canyon, was an error, and instead they are still working on the other side.

BADLY BURNED.—Last Saturday week, Maggie, the nine year old daughter of J. W. Manning, met with quite an accident. She was at the cook stove when the sleeve of her dress caught fire instantly enveloping her arm in flame. Before the fire could be put out her right arm and hand were badly burned. The injured limb, although badly charred, is doing as well as can be expected under proper medical treatment.

RED MEN ELECTION.—At a regular council of Oregonian Pocatontas Tribe No. 1, Imp'd O. R. M., held on the sleep of the 7th sun, Hot Moon, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Saganem, T. T. McKernan; Junior Saganem, J. G. Birdsey; Senior Saganem, J. A. Caldwell; Chief of Records, Sol. Wise; Keeper of Wampum, H. Pope, Sr.; Prophet, Chas. Nickell. Re-Installation will occur on July 5th.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.—Our county jail, which has been without an occupant for many months, received an inmate last Monday in the person of one Hiram Parrish. He was arraigned before Justice Huffer on the charge of having committed a theft in a dwelling on Poorman's creek, and the evidence appearing strong against him, he was bound over in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next Circuit Court, in default of which he was lodged in jail.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—Banner Lodge No. 23, A. O. U. W., elected the following officers at a regular meeting held on the evening of June 5th: Master Workman, E. H. Auterith; General Foreman, T. B. Kent; Overseer, Henry Klippe; Recorder, S. Wise; Financier, Chas. Nickell; Receiver, K. Kubi; Guide, J. A. Wilson; Inside Watchman, Fred Lay; Outside Watchman, T. T. McKernan; Trustee, Max Muller; Medical Examiner, Dr. G. H. Aiken. Installation will take place on July 1st.

NOR GUILTY.—The case of Pilot Thomas Deig, indicted for manslaughter in wrecking the steamship Great Republic on Sand Island, at the mouth of the Columbia river, was tried on the 2d instant in the United States Court at Portland. The jury acquitted the prisoner on the charge of manslaughter, but censured him for his conduct after he got into the channel. Very light punishment this, for recklessly attempting to take such a large vessel into such a dangerous passage in the middle of the night.

THE STATE FAIR.—Secretary Waite will accept our thanks for a copy of the pamphlet of the State Fair, from which it can be seen that the 21st annual Fair of the Oregon State Agricultural Society will be held at the fair grounds, near Salem, commencing Wednesday, June 29th and continuing until the evening of Wednesday, July 6th. Half fare rates for passengers and freight are secured over all the rail road and steamer lines in this State and Washington Territory. An exhaustive list of premiums accompanies the pamphlet, holding out superior inducements to exhibitors.

LOOKS LIKE BUSINESS.—The saying is, "straws tell which way the wind blows." The San Francisco Call of June 7th publishes a telegram from Portland, announcing that J. C. Drain of Douglas county has taken the contract to furnish the Oregon & California Railroad Co. with 63,000 ties. This would indicate a purpose on the part of the company to commence at an early day the extension of the road toward California. That number of ties is sufficient to build 37 miles of road, which will extend the line to the summit of the mountain in the neighborhood of Leven's station, south of Canyonville.

LOCAL ITEMS. Fourth of July meeting to-day. Fruit cans! fruit cans! at Bilger & Maegly's. Miss Ada Horton is teaching the Rock Point school. John Houston of Sam's valley is seriously sick with dyspepsia. Rev. J. R. N. Bell is the happy father of another girl baby. Tickets for Nort Eddings' benefit can be had at J. R. Little's. Ladies button shoes worth $2.50 for $1.25 at the New York Store. The Klamath Minstrels expect to visit Jacksonville and Ashland soon. Carl Brown can hereafter be found at Ed. Smith's old place of business. Bilger & Maegly have just received an invoice of hay rakes and mowers. Birkhead has added another dining table to accommodate his "court" boarders. Rev. M. A. Williams will preach at the M. E. Church to-morrow at 11 A. M.

There is not quite as much grumbling among the farmers since the rain, as before. Several families have recently moved into the Butte creek country and taken up claims. Capt. J. N. T. Miller came in on Wednesday from Lake county with a band of horses. Stock is now being taken up in the store of Fisher & Cohn preparatory to a change in the firm. A number of miners are prospecting for minerals on Squaw creek, with fair prospects of finding it. Two of "Turk's" three year old colts brought $300 last week. G. W. Gridley was the purchaser. E. Manville proposes soon making application for pardon of Jas. Hart, now in the penitentiary. Benj. Eaton returned from Roseburg on Thursday with two wagonloads of goods for Jerry Nunan. Aunt Ganung, we regret to say, has been quite an invalid of late on account of neuralgia in her face. W. G. Kenny and Jake Ransport, two jolly knights of the whip, paid Jacksonville a visit last week. John Badollet, head of a prominent Astoria cannery, and an Oregon pioneer, died June 2d at Astoria. Agents for the Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine are now canvassing Jackson county with good success. The basket meeting at the grove near Central Point school house, promises to become one of great interest. Breckenfeld has just received another lot of new goods and is selling everything at his fine at the lowest prices. Mr. A. Fisher, an old time resident of Jacksonville, is here on a business visit. He will remain several weeks. Ham. Wolters of Ashland favored Jacksonville with a flying visit. Chas. his brother, is hotel clerk at the U. S. Col. C. H. Larrabee, of Seattle, W. T., is now visiting at his daughter's, Mrs. Capt. Burton, at Fort Klamath. Col. John E. Ross informs us that since the late copious rains his 25 acre field of corn and other grain look splendid. In one week from next Tuesday (June 21) the public schools of Jacksonville will close for the summer vacation. Wallace Bishop and John Norton came up from Redding on Thursday with two loads each of freight for G. Karewski. Chas. Griffith started for Fort Klamath this week with a load of produce. He was accompanied by Geo. W. Elliott. Fred Wickwire started north last week to be in attendance at the State Fair where he proposes taking part in the foot races. The rains on Monday and Tuesday have somewhat interfered with hay-making; some of the hay ready to be put up got wet. J. L. Wilder, of Josephine county, expects shortly to start for his old home in Stouhen county, N. Y., to be gone all summer. B. B. Beckman, Frank Huffer and W. W. Cardwell are expected home from the State University next week for a short vacation. Robert A. Miller is studying law at Portland with Robert Bybee and expects to be admitted at the next term of the Supreme Court. The work of repairing the building lately purchased to be used as a Methodist parsonage is progressing. W. H. Wertz has charge of the work. The surprise party given to Dr. Veit Schutz one night last week proved a grand success. The attendance was not very large but quite select. At sunrise Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the thermometer ranged between 42 and 50 deg. The atmosphere has been quite chilly ever since. Manning & Webb have sold their stable property in this place to G. Karewski, who will use it for storing machinery, hay, grain, etc. Consideration, $2,000. John Van Horn has been appointed postmaster at Pioneer, Jackson county, Oregon. William Q. Brown is the new P. M. at Althouse, Josephine county. The Ladies' Bazaar in the big brick corner is the attraction of the gentler sex. Everything in the line of ladies' and children's ware can be had at this establishment.

The familiar countenances of Judge E. B. Watson and Dr. Will Jackson are once more frequently greeted on our city thoroughfares. They look as natural as ever. J. A. Gridley of Eden precinct sold his eighty-acre farm in that locality to Wm. Smith for $1,800. Mr. G. expects to go into the cattle business east of the mountains. Ashland Lodge, A. F. & A. M., will be represented at the Grand Lodge by W. H. Atkinson. Mr. A., accompanied by his wife, left Ashland last Saturday for Portland. The Circuit Court of Jackson county will meet next Monday, when some of our fellow citizens will come to town to get justice. The sessions will commence with a light docket. The Yreka Journal, as a semi-weekly, commenced its second volume with last issue. Bro. Nixon makes the Journal a live paper and we are pleased to see him prosper. The firm of Penn & Maddux, dealer in stoves and tinware, Portland, is composed of Mrs. M. A. Penn and F. Maddux, and not J. H. Penn, as erroneously stated in our last. C. Coleman returned from Portland last Saturday. The matter of the judgment against the Jeremiah Elliott farm, of which he is now proprietor, has been amicably arranged. E. D. Fouday, D. Cronmiller, John Cimboriski and Chas. Nickell will represent Oregonian Pocatontas Tribe of Red Men at the Great Council to meet at Portland next August. Rev. W. T. Chapman passed through Jacksonville last week on his way to Corvallis. He was returning from the Klamath Indian Agency where he had been holding a series of meetings. Mrs. Cynthia A. Applegate, wife of Hon. Jesse Applegate, one of the honored pioneers of this State, died at Yoncalla June 1st, 1881. She came to Oregon with her husband in 1843. The Jacksonville Minstrels will give a performance at Rock Point this evening for the benefit of Nort Eddings. The object is a worthy one and we hope to see a large attendance present. L. Richardson shot himself in the leg accidentally one night last week while trying to ascertain the cause of a commotion in his chicken house. His injuries are not serious, however. An examination into the condition of the flies took place this week under an order of the Board of Trustees of the town of Jacksonville. Marshal Helms was at the head of the committee. Sunday, June 5th, was the day of pentecost. Notwithstanding that it is one of the great festival days of the Christian Church, but few of the people of Jacksonville commemorated it as such. Thomas Martin, miller at the Eagle Mills, came near losing his life last week by falling on the wheel in the mill. He threw himself off the wheel however and escaped with slight injuries. Hon. N. Langell left here yesterday to represent Jacksonville Lodge of A. F. & A. M., in the Grand Lodge of the State, which meets at Portland next week. He is accompanied by Mrs. Langell. From remarks of the Albany Democrat it would appear that Bob Wilkinson of the Herald of that place had withdrawn from the publication of that paper. Robert Wilkinson was formerly of Jacksonville. J. C. Tolman, Surveyor General of Oregon, is now laying off The Dalles military reservation into town lots, in which shape it will be sold, and the old post of The Dalles will soon be thoroughly retired. The skull of an Indian, an arrow-head and a heavy mortar-like vase, worked out of a round gray boulder, came to light recently on the farm of Tom. Beall. Last winter's rains exposed them to view. The crops of Baker county are threatened with devastation from crickets, which have already destroyed all vegetation on several ranches along Burnt river, and on Willow creek have made a clean sweep. Efforts are making to revive the Legion of Honor. The committee who have the matter in hand assure us that there will be an entertainment by that body on Saturday night, June 18th, at Holt's Hall. Last Tuesday the mountains round about Nick Wright's on upper Applegate were favored with a new coat of snow, making everything look as wintry as can be. So says Geo. Schumpf, the mail carrier. Owing to the absence of the two county commissioners, inspecting the bridge at upper Rogue river, the commissioners court has not been in session since Tuesday. Court will again be in session next Monday. Superintendent Brandt, of the O. & C. Railroad, informs us that the fare from Roseburg to the fair grounds and return for the coming State Fair will be $6.25. A notice of the State Fair will be found in another column. The public hitching rack is one of the useful institutions of Jacksonville. Strangers who come to town with their teams are informed that the hitching rack is located on Third street, just two blocks north of the United States Hotel. William W. Williams, for a long time a resident of this place, but lately of Alturas, Cal., and Lakeview, Oregon, died at the latter place on May 27th after a lingering illness. He leaves a wife and family here to mourn his loss.

The Mt. Shasta Agricultural Association is already publishing its speed programme, although the races won't come off until the 12th of October. We understand that the races will come off at the same place they did last year. We had another good rain on Monday evening, followed by a cold, blustering wind—an unusual phenomenon for this valley. The atmosphere turned suddenly very cool after the rain, so much so that overcoats were not unacceptable. Pat. McMahon, the Butte creek mail carrier, the other day sold to the Ashland Woolen Mills 19,000 lbs. of wool. We did not learn the price he got for it. We understand Pat has 41,000 pounds more that he wishes to dispose of. The Port Orford Post says, one of Sol. Calver's cows gave birth to twin calves—one a snow white and the other a dark red, with not a white spot upon it. The feature of the rarity in this case consists in the opposite colors of the younglings. The Columbia river conference of the M. E. Church will meet Aug. 4th at Colfax, and not at Watsburg as erroneously stated in our last. The Southern M. E. conference meets Aug. 25th at Walla Walla, with Bishop Kavanaugh presiding. Hon. Silas Draper one of the prominent citizens and merchants of Foot's creek, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. He says the late copious rains were very acceptable, but otherwise everything else was mighty dry along Foot's creek. The new goods are rapidly being placed in position in Jerry Nunan's new store. He will keep a general assortment of dry goods, clothing, furnishing goods, boots and shoes, groceries, etc., and proposes selling as cheap as the very cheapest. Give him a trial. Mr. Linville, just in from Lake county, brought along a keg of nice mountain trout, which upon examination, were found to have spoiled on the way in. It seems fresh fish cannot stand being transported such a great distance with out running the risk of spoiling. Judge Hanna overruled the demurrer to the complaint in the case of F. M. Cheesman vs. R. B. Harton, and gave the defendant until the 20th inst. to answer. This is a fight over the office county clerk of Lake county and promises to go to the Supreme Court for a final decision. The venerable John Benson of Wag- on creek is still lecturing to empty benches on divi- subjects. The discourse on the prevention of inherited evil seems to be his favorite theme. As the audience failed to put in an appearance at the Court House the Madam has kindly granted the free use of her hall. Profs. Rogers and Boyd of Ashland College have returned from a trip over into California. The former lectured at Fort Jones on Saturday and preached there on Sunday, and Prof. Royal lectured in Yreka and Shasta valley the same time. Our California neighbors evince a deep interest in educational matters. Hon. Clemence Stadelaker, of South Bend, Ind., passed through Jacksonville on Wednesday, bound for Redding and the East. Mr. S. is one of the firm of the celebrated wagon manufacturing company bearing his name. He has been all through the Pacific Northwest, and finds a great opening for his wagons. Large numbers of emigrants are coming to Coos county from Finland. The latter country is now under the dominion of Russia, and the Government requires military service from the Finns. To escape this new oppression, the inhabitants are deserting their former homes and seeking refuge in Oregon and other lands. Rev. M. C. Miller, who held his quarterly meeting at Antioch school house last Saturday and Sunday, informs us that it was one of the best meetings he has had on this work since conference. The membership was greatly revived, three were converted and added to the church and six persons were dedicated to God in baptism. D. C. Courtney whose place of residence heretofore has been on the road to Sterling, moved to town with his family last week, and now resides in the house lately occupied by Mr. Dobell. The health of Mrs. Courtney is very poor, caused by a dangerous tumor on the breast, which is rapidly partaking of the nature of a cancer. The Plaiudealer of last week says: "Rumor has it that work on the Oregon and California Railroad beyond Roseburg will be begun in a very short time. And that Mr. Villard will himself be here about the middle or last of June. We can trace this rumor to no reliable source, and only give it as we hear it. We hope however, it is a fact."

A report gained circulation here this week that Conking had been re-elected Senator from New York and that he would hereafter act as an Independent with Senator Davis. Prominent Democrats here immediately gave him the nomination for the Presidency in 1884 on the Bourbon ticket. Their former watchword, "anything to beat Grant," must now be changed. S. B. Hull of Florence Rock precinct, finding the length of the bridge to be built across upper Rogue river much greater than the specifications called for, has thrown up the contract. County Commissioners Cook and Alfrod went up this week to take in the situation, and report progress next Monday. The new bridge is to be built 1 1/2 miles below Deskin's saw mill. The Lakeview papers say that Goose Lake valley is now sorely afflicted with grasshoppers and crickets. Myriads of these pests are devouring everything green in their line of travel. A band of crickets will march two to three miles a day, and leave the earth behind them destitute of the last vestige of vegetation. The settlers who are raising crops along the line of march have some idea how Kansas fared during the grasshopper raids. Kewanee, Henry county, Ill., was the scene of the golden wedding of Sullivan Howard and Elizabeth B. Little Howard, the aged parents of Jas. S. Howard, of Jacksonville. The ages of the venerable couple are given respectively as 73 years for the bride and 75 for the groom. Five out of six of the children of this old family were expected to be present at the old home- stead to participate in the golden wedding, the absent one being James S. of this place, who sent his congratulations by telegraph. On Tuesday afternoon one of the favorite avenues of Jacksonville was the scene of a terrific cock fight which was witnessed by an admiring multitude of men and boys. The two "kings of the dung-hill" fought and picked each other with a persistence and ferocity that put in the shade the most consummate pugilists of the more enlightened species. The bloody comb and blinded eyes of both and the entire exan-tion of one of the combatants, gave evidence that the cruel work was well put in. W. L. Record and R. S. Dunlap returned from Lake county where they have been for the past two weeks, the former canvassing for orders for marble work, and the latter moving the Linkville cemetery. Mr. Dunlap brought the remains of four of the victims of the Modoc war: Wm. Boddy, two sons and son-in-law, to be reinterred in the Jacksonville cemetery. Widow Boddy, of Tule Lake valley, has ordered a very fine monument of Mr. Record to be placed over the graves of her deceased family. A FISH STORY WITH A MORAL.—It seems hotel people have their troubles as well as other mortals. The other day Madame Holt of the U. S. Hotel bought a lot of fish, and was in the act of taking them from the wagon when a gentleman from the country stepped up and asked for a couple of them to take to his family, to which the Madam kindly consented. The country gentleman's wagon was in another part of town, and not wishing to soil his hands by carrying the fish, he requested the fish peddler to drive up to his wagon, which was promptly done. In the meantime the country gentleman took such a liking to the fish that he concluded to keep them all. The Madam, not suspecting anything wrong, remained in front of her hotel patiently waiting for the return of the fish wagon. But imagine her surprise when information reached her that the gentleman alluded to had kept all the fish. She went to his wagon and tried to persuade him to go "havers" with her; but her efforts were unavailing—the new possessor refusing to divide. The Madam says human nature is very unreliable; that she must still live and learn, and that it won't always do to be too accommodating.

ONE OF THE LORD'S POOR GONE.—Many an old settler of Jackson county will be interested to learn the particulars of the death of uncle William Wright, who for the past four years has been an invalid and in charge of the county. He died at the County Hospital at 3 o'clock in the morning, May 28th, after a wearisome and painful illness of four years, aged 82 years. He was a native of New York, where he had some relatives, who from time to time remembered him with small remittances. Mr. Wright was one of the old pioneer miners of this county, and previous to his great misfortune, when he was in the noon tide of his prosperity, he was highly respected as a good citizen and clever gentleman, and his memory will be especially cherished by the old-time miners on Sterling, where he resided when overwhelmed by the affliction which terminated his life. He was buried by the hospital authorities on the day of his death, with no one to shed a tear over his grave. His many acquaintances on Sterling and in Jacksonville knew nothing of his death until nearly two weeks after it had taken place. We understand it is the intention of his numerous acquaintances to find the place on pottersfield where rest the weary bones of William Wright and to erect a slab with appropriate inscription to his memory.

SENTENCES COMMUTED.—Gov. Thayer has recently granted the following commutations of sentence to convicts in the Oregon penitentiary: On Monday he commuted the sentence of Chas. Gilfoy, sent to the penitentiary Aug. 8, 1872, for life, from Multnomah county, for the crime of murder in the second degree. His sentence was commuted on petition signed by a large number of influential citizens of Multnomah county, including the district attorney and five of the jurors by whom Gilfoy was tried, and for the reason that the object of the legal restraint seems fully accomplished in this case. Gilfoy, it will be remembered, was convicted of the murder of one William Wales at Thompson's boarding house in this city. Mr. Gilfoy formerly lived in Jacksonville. The governor has also granted a full pardon to J. M. Crickett, sent to the penitentiary from Jackson county in November, 1880, convicted for the crime of larceny and sentenced to two years' imprisonment, there being grave doubts whether the proof of guilt as submitted to the jury was sufficient to warrant a conviction. He is therefore restored to all the rights and privileges heretofore enjoyed by him under the laws of the State.—Oregonian.

LET US BE THANKFUL.—The refreshed state of our gardens, fields and meadows, since the glorious rains is pleasing to behold. The exceedingly light rainfall so far during this spring, and the drooping appearance of the fields especially of the fields of grain sown late, began to fill the minds of our farmers with many loomy forebodings. But now everything is changed. To-day, the industrious agriculturist feels inspired at the thought that his labors will be rewarded with a bountiful crop. A good crop of wheat, oats, barley, amber cane, corn, potatoes, alfalfa, etc., seems now fully assured. Let us hope that no blighting frosts, nor other phenomenal disorders, will interfere with the outlook now so bright and full of promise!

HAIR.—During the storm on the afternoon of the 3d of June considerable hail fell in the neighborhood of Herd's saw mill on Poorman's creek. The ground was covered to the depth of two inches; a good deal of it remaining on the ground until next day. The hail stones were the size of partridge eggs, and they came down so fast and thick as to compel men working out doors to seek shelter under trees and in their houses. Fortunately the hail storm did not extend to this side of the mountain, if it had our orchards and vineyards would have been ruined.

MARRIED. McKEE—PENCE.—On Forest creek, June 3, 1881, by E. B. McKee, J. P., George McKee and Miss Mary E. Pence.

BORN. GARRETT.—In Jacksonville, June 7, 1881, to the wife of R. M. Garrett, a daughter. ROBINSON.—On Wagner creek, May 28, 1881, to the wife of Jos. Robinson, a daughter. HAMMOND.—In Ashland, June 3, 1881, to the wife of A. P. Hammond, a son. TUCKER.—In Ashland, June 2, 1881, to the wife of L. B. Tucker, a daughter.
