

NOTICE.
Land Office at Roseburg, Oreg., June 29, 1880.
To all whom it may Concern:
Notice is hereby given that I have deposited the OREGON SENTINEL as the paper in which I shall hereafter publish all pre-emptions, homesteads and applications for mining patents for lands lying near Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon.
W. F. BENJAMIN, Register.

WANTED.—A competent teacher to take charge of the second department of the Jacksonville District School. For particulars apply to the Board of Directors.

FAREWELL PARTY.—The friends of Richard H. Klippel will tender him a farewell party at the Club Room this (Saturday) evening. Everybody is invited to attend.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.—The fall term of St. Mary's Academy will commence on Monday next week. The teachers, some of whom spent vacation in the Willamette Valley, have returned to their several posts of duty, ready for the work. See advertisement.

WHO IS HE?—As our new heavenly visitor approaches our earth, his head and tail are plainly visible in the Northwestern heavens. Astronomers are still at sea as to the true identity of this comet. In his rapid flight through the realms of immense space, these thousands of years, this seems to be the first time he has made an exhibition of himself.

CEMENT PIPE.—The cement pipe-makers have just finished 1,300 feet of pipe for John Holt of Applegate. They also have the contract of making 3,500 feet for Mr. Schieffelin on Rogue river, 2,400 for C. C. Beckman, and some for St. Mary's Academy. The material the pipe is manufactured from is imperishable, and is bound to take as soon as its merits shall become known.

LAKEVIEW HERALD.—J. H. Evans has sold his interest in the State Line Herald to B. P. Watson, the change taking effect the 20th of this month. W. W. Watson, formerly of Ashland, will be editor and financial manager of the paper. Mr. Watson has, of late years, had considerable journalistic experience, and we have no doubt will make the Herald a choice medium of local intelligence. Here is our best for your success.

CHANGES.—L. R. Webster, who was appointed first assistant to Prof. Merritt in our public school, has accepted the position as clerk in Reames Bros' store, in place of Evan Reames, who goes to Linkville to take charge of the store formerly owned by Thatcher & Worden. It has not transpired who will succeed Mr. Webster at the school. Applicants for the position can address the school director of Jacksonville. A male teacher is wanted.

C. OF H.—The following officers of the Front Creek No. 13, C. of H., of Williams creek, were recently installed: J. N. Goocher, W. C. P. V. Shoemaker, M. C. Miss Lizzie Kincaid, L. C.; Jay Davidson, H. Miss Dora Godfrey, S. C. T. Davidson, F. S. M. M. Davidson, T.; Ira Spartin, W.; David John, U.; Miss Josie Gibson, M.; Miss Lola Layton, P.; A. Watts, P. W. C.; Miss Hannah McGee, Asst. S.; Mrs. Goocher and Miss Emma Nail, Aids to W. C.

WILL LEAVE US.—Mr. Adam Klippel, for a long time employed on the SENTINEL editorial staff, will leave for Portland next Tuesday where he goes to reside permanently. He has accepted the position of Business Manager for the Pacific Christian Advocate and will take charge at once. During his residence here Mr. K. has made many friends, who are sorry to see him leave, and all join in wishing him success in his new home. Mr. Klippel's family will also leave about the 3d of next month.

CRATER LAKE TOURISTS.—So far the season for visiting Crater or Sunken Lake, Oregon's greatest curiosity, has been remarkably favorable. Quite a number of mountain parties have been there, others are there now, and still others are on the eve of going to that wonder-land. Crater Lake is about 80 miles from Jacksonville in a northeasterly direction. Most of the parties who have gone to the lake this season have taken in Fort Klamath, and the falls of Rogue River, and the route chosen is that by way of Ashland, Linkville, the Klamath Indian reservation and the military road down Rogue river to Jacksonville. A party of 14 tourists left here yesterday consisting of Messrs. McDonough, Cooskey and Wright, and their respective families, to be gone several weeks. They took the Rogue river route via Bybee's ferry.

THE R. R. SURVEY.—The several surveying parties are still running their lines in search for the best route into this valley. Hurlburt's party completed the survey through the Grave creek country and they met the Howard party at Chavner's bridge. Howard ran two lines from this valley to Chavner's bridge, one across the low pass between Willow Springs and Gold Hill—distance three miles—necessitating a hundred foot grade to the mill; the other was run around by way of the windings of Rogue river to Chavner's bridge. The line down around the bend of the river, was run just above high water mark on a grade of 15 feet to the mile. The road around the bend is about six miles longer than by way of Gold Hill pass. The surveyors are waiting for instructions, and will probably examine the South Umpqua and Trail creek route next.

Our Lakeview exchanges are very hopeful of being speedily placed in railroad communication with the outside world. The rails are steadily growing toward the Oregon line—from Reno up.
Henry Judge will take barley at the highest market price in exchange for anything in his line. He keeps a large assortment of saddles, bridles, harness, whips, etc., and sells at bed-rock prices.
The walls of the new insane asylum, says the Statesman, are rapidly assuming shape and proportion. The entire structure will be under roof by the first of January if no untold circumstances intervene.
A petition has also been sent in from Ashland for the organization of a lodge of A. O. U. W. with thirty-one charter members, and the authorities from here will go up in about ten days to institute the same.
Nick Ficke's new barn was completed on Thursday. It is 44 by 75 feet, with a hay loft the entire length of the structure, with a capacity of storing 60 tons of hay and sheltering from 60 to 70 head of cattle.
Robert D. Hume, owner of the line of steamers running from San Francisco to Smith River and Ellensburg, is expected here soon to make arrangements with our merchants for shipping their goods via Smith River.
D. FEATHERS, Agent.

Surveyors Howard and Hurlburt's parties, who were working in opposite directions, met betwixt Rock Point and Chavner's bridge. It is expected that from here they will examine the South Umpqua and Trail creek routes.
Lieut. Schwatka, of Arctic exploration fame, is lecturing on that subject in different towns of the State at present, but we are not advised of his coming this far south. Lieut. Schwatka is an Oregon boy, his parents residing at Salem.
A number of parties at Linkville have made application to the Grand Lodge for a charter to organize a lodge of A. O. U. W. at that place. W. J. Plymouth, D. D. G. M. W., will institute the same after the necessary preliminaries are arranged.
Jas. G. Birdsey, who was one of the first white children born in our mountain-locked valley and was never far beyond it, took a spin to Roseburg last week to take a look at the cars. He was highly pleased with everything he saw and returned it safely.
Abe Bowman of Sterling lost his horse one night last week and came to the SENTINEL office to advertise for his recovery. Immediately after leaving the office the horse was found, which goes to prove that the pen is mightier than the sword. Advertise.
An error has been found in the boundary line between Wasco and Umatilla counties it is claimed, by a Portland firm who are getting up a map of Oregon for their own use. The error if corrected will give about thirty miles more territory to Wasco county.
In passing down Ashland Butte the other day President Koehler lost a surveyor's pocket level which he carried in his side pocket. In going through the brush the instrument must have dropped out. Its value is about $25. Some straggling mountaineer may find it.
Geo. McCormack who came over last week from Crescent City via the Howard road survey informs us that a large force of men are at work constructing the wagon road. The road will be built; let the citizens of Jackson county get ready with their subscriptions.
The Massachusetts National Greenback party met in State Convention on the 24th instant and nominated a full State ticket. The platform of principles adopted contains this plank: "Resolved, That suffrage is the right of all citizens without regard to race, color, sex or taxes."
John Smith, a man employed as sheep herder by John Sizemore for some time past, was arrested this week for selling a horse not his own, and after an examination before Justice Huffner was bound over with bail fixed at $50. The security was given and he is again at liberty.
Richard H. Klippel will start for Portland next Tuesday where he expects to take a position in one of the job offices of that city. We learn that D. W. Crosby and his sister Maggie will accompany him at the same time, on a visit to their mother, who is now at St. Vincent's hospital.
A lively runaway occurred to a teamster coming down the Green Spring mountain day before yesterday. The wagon was loaded with lumber at the time and the runaway was caused by the driver losing control of the brake. The wagon, horses, driver and cargo all went over the grade, but with what result we are not informed.
Capt. J. B. Moor and wife and J. H. Ross, the former engaged in the life insurance business and the latter the agent for a new style patent farm gate, arrived in town this week from Crescent City via the old wagon road. They report a rough trip over this route but reached here right side up. They expect to remain here a short time.
The Wheeler & Wilson new sewing machines are adapted to every grade of manufacture of stitched goods and every kind of domestic sewing. They are superior to all others in point of speed, durability, precision and ease of operation, regularity, strength, beauty of stitch, range of work, facility of management, perfection of construction and elegance of finish. They are declared by the highest authorities the best sewing apparatus in the world.
Gen. Irwin McDowell, of the U. S. Army of the Department of the Pacific, passed through Jackson county this week on his return to San Francisco, where he has been called by special messenger from the War Department. The General came over from Fort Klamath where he had been inspecting the Government military works, combining duty with pleasure. The President's precarious condition is supposed to have something to do with the General's hasty recall.
Mr. W. I. Nichols returned from Ashland last Sunday evening. He says he talked with Mr. Koehler, President of the O. & C. road, and the boss surveyor, who told him that no surveying parties had been over the coast route as stated in some of the papers. Some gentlemen had made the trip over the coast route to look at, on their own account. Mr. N. met Mr. Koehler this side of Cole's, on his tour of inspection as far as Klamath river, accompanied by Mr. Hurlburt, the surveyor.—[Yreka Journal.]

GIANNINI—At Lake City, Cal., August 10, 1881, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Giannini, a son.
CRENSHAW—Near Jacksonville, August 18, 1881, to Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Crenshaw, a son.

DIED.
PENINGER—At the family residence near Willow Springs, August 24, 1881, George Peninger, aged 8 years 4 months and 14 days.
THE OREGON CONFERENCE, M. E. CHURCH.—This body of ministers which met at East Portland on the 18th and closed its labors on the 23d, was presided over by Bishop W. H. Harris, of New York. The daily sessions attracted large numbers of visitors from the city and surrounding country. The report from the different presiding elder's districts showed a healthy state of progress in every branch of church work. The work of education came in for a considerable share of attention, and the several institutions of learning under church patronage received the endorsement of the conference. Among the appointments read by the Bishop are the following for Southern Oregon: Eugene City district, W. T. Chapman, Presiding Elder; Albany, Isaac Dillon; Ashland, to be supplied; Brownsville, D. A. Crowell; Corvallis, to be supplied; Drain, T. B. Goodpasture; Eugene, I. D. Driver; Jacksonville, B. J. Sharp; Klamath, L. M. Nickerson; Lebanon, to be supplied; Monroe, P. M. Starr; Roseburg, J. W. Miller; Shedd's, W. H. Hurlburt; Liberty, S. A. Starr; Springfield, J. H. Wood.
Ashland College, L. L. Rogers, President, LaDru Royal, Professor.
L. J. Powell, Superintendent of public instruction for State of Oregon.

Wilderville Items.
We hope soon to see Southern Oregon connected by rail with the outside world.
Orr Brown, has sent east for another fine sorghum mill with an entire full outfit for manufacturing syrup on the most improved process.
J. Q. Knight started this week to take charge of a gang of hands on the C. C. W. R. This looks some like they meant business after so much talk.
Zouave Council, No. 14, C. of H. now holds its regular meeting in June's Hall, in this place. Dr. D. S. Holton, P. W. C. of Defense Council, No. 15, legally installed the officers of Zouave Council, at a regular meeting of the Council, not long since.
Harvesting is progressing finely in Josephine county. Messrs. Thompson & Dimick, have been running their thrasher for sometime now. Grain crops are yielding moderately fair. There will be more grain threshed in this section, this season, than ever before.
Some careless persons are again starting fires in the mountains and elsewhere, destroying the forests and filling the atmosphere with smoke. A fire on the farm of Mrs. Noland near Wilderville, destroyed some 1500 or 2000 rails, around a field of growing grain. When will people learn to be more careful with fire!
There is said to be a boxum lass on Applegate, a minister's daughter, with the help of a younger brother, that has moved all of the hay on her father's place this season. Also turning a helping hand to various other things on the farm. It is said this minister has never been known to beg for money. Yet he attends regularly to his flocks.
The railroad survey, through this section, created considerable excitement at the time, but we believe everything is silent now. I learn that the railroad surveyors from the North have found a passable route over the Grave creek hills, and are now at work on Dutcher creek, Rogue river, on the old survey, as surveyed some years ago.
R.

THE PERILS OF COW CREEK HILL.
The wagon road leading over the divide between Cow creek and Wolf creek runs up and down the steepest grade on the stage route from Roseburg to Jacksonville, and is the terror of the freighting community. On the 11th of August a team and wagon loaded with 4,000 pounds of freight, in charge of Charles Logan son-in-law of B. F. Reaser of Ashland, came down this mountain in a hurry. Logan had fairly started down the grade when the breaks slid off the wheels, and the wagon and driver came down at lightning speed. In the awful descent one of the horses stumbled and fell, the wagon passing over him, and he was dragged along for quite a distance before the impetuosity of the wagon and remaining horses were checked by a resisting fire-tree. The way wagon and freight, harness and horses were stattered; a caution, and the only wonder is that the driver and horses were not killed outright. The track where the horse had been dragged was pointed out to the writer of these lines, who passed over this portion of the road a few days after the accident happened.

THE RAILROAD OFFICIALS.—Mr. Koehler, General Manager of the O. & C. R. R., made the ascent of Ashland Butte last Friday, for the purpose of obtaining a birdseye view of Southern Oregon and Northern California. Mr. Hurlburt was with him, and with the aid of a map of the country made by himself for the company nine years ago, gave the railroad magnate a complete understanding of the topography of the whole section in sight, from the Umpqua to Shasta, and from the eastern ranges of the Cascades to the Coast mountains. From the summit of the Butte it could be clearly seen that the toll road is through the lowest pass in the Siskiyoues. On Saturday morning Messrs. Koehler and Hurlburt started for Trail creek, intending to return to Douglas county by way of that stream, to view the route that would have to be followed in case it were decided to avoid Cow creek canyon. Both gentlemen intended to reach Portland this week. Should the Trail creek route be chosen, (which is not likely, however) the railroad would strike Rogue river above Eagle Point.—[Idings.]
