

OREGON SENTINEL.

JACKSONVILLE SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1881.

NOTICE.

Land Office at Roseburg, Ore., June 30, 1880. To all Whom it may Concern: Notice is hereby given that I have designated the OREGON SENTINEL as the paper in which I shall hereafter publish all pre-emptions, homestead and applications for mining patents for lands lying near Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon.

NOTICE.—Dr. J. W. Robinson will leave here to-morrow morning to attend his father who is lying quite low at Gervais. The Dr. will return as soon as it is possible for him to do so.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.—The following deeds have been recorded since our last report: G. W. Letherow to John Sexton, property in Leland precinct, consideration, $400.

E. K. Anderson to C. Crawford, property in Ashland. Consideration, $900.

APPOINTING BOARD.—Capt John Q. Adams, Lieut F. A. Bontelle and Lieut Long passed through town this week on their way to Yreka where they go to purchase horses and mules for the government service. These officers will be in Jacksonville on the 27th inst., when all who have horses or mules to sell should be on hand.

LIABLE TO LOSE HIS SIGHT.—Letters received from San Francisco state that E. H. Autenrieth's eyes are no better, and the chances are that he will lose his eyesight. No operation has yet been performed, however, and there are still some hopes. We wish Ed. the good fortune that the operation will be successful and his sight restored.

WANTS TO MARRY.—A rich miner from Happy Camp is now in the valley who offers $500 to any one who will get him a wife. He came very near getting married at Rock Point last Thursday, the engagement having taken place by telegraph, but it was broken off by the young lady starting for Jacksonville as soon as she seen the would-be-groom arrive on the stage.

SENTENCE COMMUTED.—James Hart, who was sentenced to the penitentiary from Baker county for rape, was pardoned out by Governor Thayer on the 18th inst. He was sent for eight years and had been there since Oct. 23, 1880. The reasons assigned by the Governor was the receipt of petitions numerous signed by the citizens of both Baker and Jackson counties, and on account of a doubt as to his guilt.

PATENT CASTING.—Mr. A. Barneburg has taken the agency for Sloan's patent sewing machine casters, for Jackson county. The machine will stand perfectly still and will not move while in use with these casters on, and they do not raise the machine one-half an inch. This attachment can also be used for chairs, stands, tables, or any kind of furniture, and can be taken from one piece of furniture and placed on another on short notice.

RAILROAD PROSPECTS.—Chas. A. F. Morris, Chief Engineer of the O. & C. R. R., passed through town last Thursday on his way to Cottonwood, Cal., where he is to meet Chief Engineer Montague of the C. P. R. Co. The object of the meeting is to decide on the junction of the two roads, which goes to prove that our item of last week was about correct and the road will go through Rogue river valley. Look out for the locomotive when the whistle blows.

RIFLE SHOOTING.—From Corporal George Foster, who has just returned from Vancouver, where he was to take part in the department target shooting as the representative from Klamath, but failed to do so on account of arriving there too late, we receive the following list of successful competitors, who will go to the Presidio and enter in the contest there: P. Peterson, D. O'Keefe, H. Wiseman, G. H. Thair, J. C. Cheweth, W. Moore, J. D. Garber, J. G. C. Sullivan, E. P. Wells, J. B. Denny, J. Metz, Sargent P. Peterson won the Department medal.

RETURNED.—James Elliott, who has returned from an investigating expedition to the Puget Sound country, informs us that business is thriving in that section and everybody apparently happy. While absent he met A. C. Jones at Seattle, where that gentleman has already secured a lucrative law practice, and he also reports F. Breckenfeld as having rented a store building at that place where he expected to open out a stock of general merchandise in a few days after Mr. Elliott left. He thinks the general prospects of that section were never brighter.

NOTICE TO TAX-PAYERS.—The undersigned, Sheriff of Jackson County, Oregon, will meet the Tax-Payers of said County, for the purpose of receiving taxes for 1881, on the following days in their respective precincts, at their usual places of voting, and will remain in each precinct from nine o'clock a. m. until 4 o'clock p. m. of each day, to-wit: Chimney Rock, Nov. 21, Big Butte, Nov. 22, Eagle Point, Nov. 23, Floures Rock, Nov. 25, Table Rock, Nov. 26, Willow Springs, Nov. 28, Fooths Creek, Nov. 29, Rock Point, Nov. 30, Evans Creek, Dec. 1, Grants Pass, Dec. 2, Leland, Dec. 3, Pleasant Creek, Dec. 5, Jacksonville, Dec. 7, Eden, Dec. 8, Ashland, Dec. 9, Manzanita, Dec. 10, Sterling, Dec. 12, Union Town, Dec. 13, Applegate, Dec. 14.

For the past six years the Democrats have controlled the House of Representatives of the United States and for the past four years both senate and house; yet during this long period not one bill has been passed to check the evils of the spoils system. The real reason is that the Democrats were always going to elect the "next" President, and wanted full swing to make a clean sweep.—Oregonian.

Weather are We Drifting? Sometimes during the silent hours of Thursday night, there was a general transmigration of terrestrial things all over our usually quiet and orderly town. Objects inanimate seemed to have possessed themselves of the power of locomotion and changed places, as it were. Articles in front of stores were found blocks away, a wicked and adroit generation were seen seeking after signs, but there were no signs found. The chain in front of the Odd Fellows building had meandered across the street in a vain attempt to surround the sleeping populace with its protecting links, but the morning sunshine, dancing on the golden leaves of autumn, and crowning them with a tain of dazzling jewels after the night's rain, reflected into faces of blank astonishment as to the motive power that had wrought the change. Order loving citizens with wheelbarrow and hammer set about to replace and repair the main lay of the wild bird was answered back with outbursts of profanity, and undercurrents of lips pent up wickedness fell from the lips of overburdened humanity and lost themselves in the muddy waters of the sewers. The average hoodlum surveyed the desolation and smiled serenely, while the householder fumbled in his pocket to assure himself of the safety of his nightguy, and everyone heaved a sigh of thankfulness that the tranquil slumbers of the night-walk had not been disturbed by the sleep-destroying vision.

Hyde. A. Langell, of Langell valley, Oregon, named y. G. Tyler, and Wm. Glendinning, of Scott valley, named bk. g. Black Frank. Pools about even. For positions Tyler drew inside, Frank 2d. Won by Tyler, owned by J. N. T. Miller, in two straight heats; best time three minutes.

Trotting race, free for all, two mile heats, purse $200, entrance, $15 added. James Sutherland, of Etna, named by m. Nellie, Jay Beach, of Linkville, Oregon, named b. m. Maggie Arnold; Wm. Glendinning, of Scott valley, named s. m. Lady Clyde. In the pools, Maggie Arnold sold for $10. Nellie $8 50 and Lady Clyde $3, and nearly same ratio in most of pools before race. For positions, Lady Clyde won inside, Maggie Arnold 2d, and Nellie 3d. Won by Nellie in two straight heats. Time, 5:38; 5:24.

Running race, single dash of one mile, free for all horses that did not win a race at this meeting, purse $50, entrance $5 added to purse, 3 or more to enter, 3 to start. E. Flitner named b. m. Foot Race.—James A. Cardwell and Steve Booth had a foot race over the Siskiyou mountains white on the way to Yreka last week, and Cardwell came out winner. It was a purely go-as-you-please match, and it pleased Booth to start out "brash," and heartlessly leave his little friend toiling on behind. About half-way up the mountain Booth reached the end of his distance, while Cardwell, who is blooded, had just got warm and loosened for business, and tossing his coat to Booth, to carry, he kept on to the summit and was striking it down the other side toward Oble's when the coach overtook him. He tried to arrange a fat man's race in Yreka after that but his achievement on the mountain was known, and the Yreka men were all afraid of him.—Tidings.

IRELAND.

The political complications in Ireland are indeed such as to demand the best efforts of the greatest statesmen.

The famine, which so lately set its withering hand upon this distressed country has disappeared, but it has left a long train of still increasing evils.

The Land Act, recently passed by the English Parliament, it was thought and hoped, would prove sufficient to right all the wrongs of which the people could justly complain. Recent events have much disturbed the operation of this measure, and it is to be feared that the English government has gone one step too far in its arrest of the Land Leaguers. It may be somewhat difficult for us on this side of the water, to form a just estimate of the character of Parnell and Dillon, and the other leaders of the Irish mal contents, but it is not difficult for any man with an ounce of humanity in his composition, to understand that some effective measure of relief ought to be adopted by the home government, in behalf of the Irish tenants. It should be remembered, too, that these poor, ignorant, under classes are not political economists, and they cannot be expected to understand the intricate workings of national machinery, or, pinched as they have been 'y wam', to be entirely free from prejudice against their wealthy neighbors. The peasantry should not be treated as upon an equality, in point of understanding, with the English Parliament, and some allowance should be made for the ardor of their leaders. Impulsiveness is a part of the Irish character, and this, joined to a generous bravery and an intense love of home, may as it has often done in the past, lead these men to extremes, inconsistent with good government. But for all this, it should not lead them to any great harm at the hands of the English government. Of course every absolute violation of law must be punished, but England can certainly afford to be generous as well as just with these men. The arrest and imprisonment of Parnell and Dillon was a great surprise, and foreshadows a policy that may prove rather serious and expensive. Parnell in prison may prove a greater incentive to action among the discontented Irish than Parnell out of prison, in which case his arrest would record it self as a gigantic blunder on the part of the British Ministry.

Legal business at this term of Court is undoubtedly dull, as we understand one of the fraternity has conducted himself in such a manner as to give his wife cause for a divorce, facts reversed.

Court is in session this week and Roseburg once more presents a lively appearance. The place, under the reign of fogynism, is dying an easy death and in a few years we shall see Jacksonville the metropolis of Southern Oregon.

What will become of Roseburg? In one instance one of our Chief Magistrates manipulated the billiard cue for 12 long hours at $5 a game, and in an other, one of our city officials manipulated a "cold-deck" to the tune of $30. Roseburg officials against the world.

The lecture in your last issue, to the paste and scissors editor of the Plaindealer was to the point, and the people here are in hopes the young man will profit thereby; but when we consider that he is also stage agent at this place; and should the R. R. go south it would shut off his bread and butter, we do not blame him so much for writing the article "Why."
