STOCK FOR THE GOVERNMENT. - Capt. J. Q. Adams and Lieuts F. A. Boutelle and O. F. Long, have been here for about a week past purchasing horses and mules for government service. They secured about 25 head of horses and mules in Siskiyou county and 34 head in this valley-the numher they required. The average price paid for the mules was $150 per head and for the horses $125 each. This will bring some new money into circulation

RETURNED.-After an absence of several months; visiting relatives in Missouri, T. L. Beck returned to his home at Willow Springs on Monday last, perfectly content to make this his permanent home. He was Humbug, where he has mining interaccompanied on his return by E. D. ests. Woolsey and family, his brother inlaw, and two other gentlemen, who come here to locate.

JAIL BURNED.-By telegraph we learn of the burning of the county jail at Roseburg on the morning of the 3d inst, at twenty minutes past four o'clock. There was one prisoner in the jail at the time by the name of Charles Williams, probably the same man who called himself Fisher here, and who was suspected of robbing Judge Watson's house, who perished in the flames and his charred remains recovered yesterday. It is supposed that Williams set the jail on fire himself, hoping thereby to affect his escape. Klamath. Loss about $2,000, no insurance.

THE RAILROAD. - We had the pleasure of meeting John A. Huriburt, of town yesterday with Huriburt's surthe O. & C. R. Mr. Hurlburt and party will work from the divide to the Klamath river, and as soon as the chief of party arrives, J. S. and C. J. Howard will be employed in locating it from the divide this way. Just where the road will run is still unsettled, and, of course, is liable to vary some from the original survey, but we think it is settled that the road will run near Jacksonville.
