

THE ANTI MONOPOLY PARTY.

It is true that Anti-Monopoly is one of the principal dogmas of Democratic faith, and so is Free Trade, yet Monopolist Democrats oppose these teachings quite as numerous as Republicans defend them.—"Portland Standard."

THE LAND GRANT.

Representative George will endeavor, in the present congress, to prevent the forfeiture of all "unearned" railroad grants until January 1885. This includes the grant of the N. P. and O. & C. railroads neither of which have been earned; on account of the financial embarrassments of the respective companies and their consequent inability to build. So far as the O. & C. is concerned, no loss will be sustained by the government, or by the settler, in consequence of a three years extension of the grant which, at least, can have only a prospective value.

It is reported that the new steamer Walla Walla will be sent from Portland to Hongkong with flour, and return with 1,000 Chinese to work on the North Pacific railroad.

That Old Land Steal.

A communication from Mr. Jay Beach points to the probable object of a bill, introduced in Congress, to change the boundaries of the Klamath Indian reservation. The bill is evidently drawn in the interest of the "Oregon Central Military Road Company, and if it does not contain a clause specially excluding that company from its benefits it should not become a law. That company are not entitled to any land from the Klamath marsh to the eastern boundary of the state for the very simple reason that they never built any road but merely mapped it, after running a chain over the ground they desired granted.

Match Monopoly.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat has discovered that the "Diamond Match Co." a corporation next to the "Standard Oil Co." has quietly purchased all the match factories in the United States and now enjoys an exclusive monopoly. So great is their business that in 1881, this company paid the government $4,500,000 for stamps. Now what is to be done about it? It must be apparent that every household in this free land is at the mercy of a "cruel and grasping monopoly" that, at any moment, might quench the fire on every American hearth and through the right to purchase and the money to purchase with, force man to pay an additional half cent per box for his matches or become a non cooking animal.

Not True.

An exchange says: "There is but one thing in all the universe to which a man is always faithful and which he never forgets, and that is himself." There was never a greater mistake than this often repeated statement. Two-thirds of the sickness, poverty, want and misery of human family are the result of forgetting to be faithful to one-self. Many people who are faithful to others; habitually expose themselves to wet and cold, to all manner of needless hardships, and squander their own means, sowing the seeds of sickness, misery and poverty. Man always faithful to himself and mindful of his interests! Nonsense. Hospitals, poorhouses and jails, in every land and in every age, are standing witnesses that he is not. It would be better for humanity if the statement were true, but unfortunately it is not.—"State Journal."

The total cost of the St. Gothard tunnel, which was opened last Sunday for the regular passage of trains, is $6,808,620 francs, something over $11,000,000.

LAKE COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

The "Rural Spirit," of a recent date, referring to the introduction into Congress of a bill proposing to restore a portion of Klamath Indian Reservation to settlement, says: "it should be approved," and the writer, thinking, perhaps, that the editor has said this much without a proper knowledge of facts upon which to base a decision, asks the privilege of presenting to the readers of the "Spirit" such facts as may seem necessary to a fair statement of the question, and of adding a few opinions, which, it is believed, are substantially those of the best citizens of this section of country immediately joining the reservation. The views of these people have been neither asked nor sought, by the projectors of the bill in question, while the stealthy, underhand, manner in which the bill itself has been brought forward; has aroused within them the suspicion; that the Military Wagon Road Land Co., having failed in their former schemes, are again after these lands—working under a revised system of tactics. Now; as to whether this bill, as the "Spirit" says, "should be approved," depends entirely upon its provisions. This land was secured to the Indians, who have faithfully fulfilled their part of the compact, by treaty of 1864, and if it is now proposed to reclaim it upon terms not entirely satisfactory to the Indians themselves, then it is simply a paltry, inexcusable steal. That the bill contemplates no treaty of this kind, seems evident from the fact that no recent consultation, on the subject, has been held with the Indians—the last one, of a few years ago, having proven an entire failure. As to the M. W. R. Land Co., it has been amply proven by investigation, that the United States was defrauded of most of the large grant it owns; while the statement; that quite a large body of this grant lies in this portion of the reservation that is to be restored to "public domain," (M. W. R. L. Co) will more clearly show the relationship of this company to the proposed scheme of restoration. So much for the minor points of the case.

Now; for the justice of it. These Indians are, as a class, thrifty and industrious; are fencing portions of their lands, and engaging in raising stock, one individual with whom the writer is acquainted, having over 100 head of stock cattle after selling his beef steers. About 150 of these Indians under Scotchin, brother to the one hung with Captain Jack, are Modoc who refused to join Captain Jack in the Lava Beds, because they believed our government would reward them for their fidelity. Capt. Jack, in pleading for their co-operation, told them that the white man would take these lands, too, from them, and even now his prophecy seems on the verge of fulfillment. Thank heaven, he was hung for the treacherous betrayal, and murder of Gen. Canby, and not for a heroic struggle to preserve his people from the ignominious fate which even then appeared within the range of his keen prophetic vision, else what a tragic satire might have been recorded in the annals of our history. Capt. Jack, however, refused to live on lands he had in treaty stipulated to live upon, and is, therefore, not entitled to our sympathy, but the proposition to dispossess the remaining Modocs under Scotchin, ought to bring a flush of shame to the cheek of a brazen imager. Finally, all of the Indians on Klamath reservation have been loyal friends and faithful allies of the whites; their land—the mildest and most valuable portion of which is now sought to be taken from them—lies at an altitude of from 4,500 to 7000 ft. above sea-level, is too frosty for agriculture, and only adapted to stock-raising. Regarding the charge that too much land "per capita" is allowed them, I will only say that the reservation is, proportionately, as thickly settled as the balance of our country, and is producing about as much as it would under white settlement: All stock men, acquainted with our grazing country, realize the absurdity of attempting a living by raising stock within the narrow confines of a quarter section of land, and were these lands thrown open to settlement, they would soon be in the hands of a few. If an attempt be made to remove these Indians by force, the writer here registers the prediction that every acre will cost a hundred dollars to say nothing of a priceless sacrifice of blood; while the Indian, warned by our act of treachery, will be on the alert for new aggressions, till from a law-abiding ward of the government, he will become a dangerous, insidious foe, and a terror to our citizens. Our present Indian policy consists mainly in the attempt to christianize and civilize the Indian, in brief to encourage him to become like the white man, is the ruling motive of our government. That this unique and practical lesson in land grabbing, shall be withheld until he has reached a higher plane of civilization, is the earnest prayer of the subscriber.

JAY BEACH. Linkville, Jan. 8, 1882.

ORDINANCE NO. 75.

TO PROHIBIT MINORS FROM BEING ON THE STREETS AT NIGHT. The people of the Town of Jacksonville do ordain as follows: Sec. 1st. That it shall be unlawful for any person, or persons, under the age of eighteen years, to congregate, loiter, or be upon the streets of the Town of Jacksonville after the hour of nine o'clock P. M. from the first day of April to the first day of October; and after the hour of eight o'clock P. M., from the first of October to the first of April; unless said minor shall be, at such times, accompanied by their parents, or guardians; or sent by their parents or guardians, upon some errand or business which renders it necessary for them to be upon the street after the above mentioned hours. Sec. 2nd. That it shall be the duty of the marshal, deputy marshal or special policeman, to arrest all minors found violating the above section of this ordinance and; unless a sufficient excuse be given by said offender at the time of the arrest, he or they shall be taken in custody by said marshal, deputy marshal or special policeman and, upon complaint made by said marshal, deputy marshal or special policeman, or any other person; shall be tried by the Recorder, and upon conviction; shall be punished by fine not exceeding ten dollars and costs, in default of payment, imprisonment in the Town jail not exceeding ten days. Sec. 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage. T. G. REAMES, President of Board. Attest, J. Nunan, Recorder. Jacksonville, January 17, 1882.

G. KAREWSKI, DEALER IN STOVES, TINWARE, HARDWARE, DRY GOODS, Agricultural Implements, MACHINERY, GROCERIES, ETC.

Also Local Agent for the justly Celebrated Fish Bro's Wagon, The best Wagon on Wheels for the following reasons:

- 1. More care is taken in the selection of stock; only good, solid butt-cut timber being used. 2. The Wheels are all soaked in Boiling Lined Oil. 3. Every part is strongly braced; and instead of being bolted, is clipped so that the full strength of the wood is secured. 4. The Tires are securely bolted, after being thoroughly and carefully set. 5. The Skains are heated before driven on, and set in White Lead; consequently, when cooled, contract, making a perfect fit and impossible to work loose. It is the only Wagon upon which "Holmes' Patent Self-Oiling Skains" are used, the whole right and tide having been purchased. The principal points of superiority over all other Skains, are: 1st. Bearings are perfectly straight, which does away with side draught. 2d. Has a perfect fitting and Band. 3d. Unnecessary to remove the wheel to oil. 4th. Will retain oil longer, having an oil chamber, and so constructed that oil cannot run out at the point. 5th. Houd Brake is clipped on. Bringing the purchase near the wheels. And many others, too numerous to mention, but which can be readily seen upon examination; and we cordially invite our many customers and all others who contemplate purchasing a first-class Wagon, to call and get prices before going elsewhere.

OFFICE OF SCHULTZ & VON BARON, 129 California Street, cor. Front, San Francisco. JOHN L. BRUSS, Agent. TO THE TRADE:—Practical experience has demonstrated to us that the trade requires a choice old Bourbon for immediate use. For it is well known that straight whisky that is absolutely pure requires age, great care and attention, and our old Davenport whisky possesses all the above qualities. The grain used in the distillation of our J. H. Davenport whisky is carefully selected from the finest, richest and very best grown in the state of Kentucky. The water is drawn from one of the finest limestone springs in the state, the peculiar properties of which have gained for Kentucky whiskies such world-wide celebrity. This process makes our J. H. Davenport a pure, hand made, sour mash whisky, and we claim that for delicacy of flavor, purity and medicinal qualities, it stands unequalled. Yours truly SCHULTZ & VON BARON. From and after this date J. P. McDaniel & Co. Jacksonville, will keep the justly celebrated Davenport, pure straight whisky exclusively.
