

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

Supreme Judge, W. P. LORD, of Marion. Representative, M. C. GEORGE, of Multnomah. Governor, E. F. MOODY, of Wasco. Secretary of State, R. P. EARHART, of Multnomah. State Treasurer, ED. HIRSCH, of Marion. State Printer, W. H. BYARS, of Douglas. Supt. Public Instruction, E. B. McLEROY, of Benton.

As an independent candidate for District Attorney, I have a right to my name on the tickets of each and every party in this judicial district. Democrats of Jackson, Josephine and Lake will be supplied with tickets on which, as a matter of right and convenience, my name will appear instead of T. B. Kent's. The charge of bitter and uncompromising partisanship is refuted by the fact that I have supported Democrats not only for local but also for State offices. An office, the duties of which relate directly to the rights of the people, should be free from political sentiment or subserviency. J. W. MERRITT.

Difference of Opinion.

Our neighbor of the Times asserts that the new Chinese bill signed by the President is not near so good as the one he vetoed. This is really too bad and we are awful sorry to hear it. Small papers like the "Bulletin," "Chronicle," "Alta" and "Call" have surely been lying about the Chinese bill, for they all concur that it is the identical bill, except that the period of its operation is reduced to ten years and "passports" are called "certificates." Now that the "Democratic Times" is heard from and it is ascertained that the bill is only a worthless shadow of its former self what fools the people of California were for wasting so much powder over the signing of the bill. We now venture the opinion that our neighbor never read either bill, don't know what is in them, and, if we remember right, that his sage opinion was stolen from the "Yamhill Reporter" or "Albany Democrat" and palmed off as an original and truthful. When we see such contemptible and puerile efforts to mislead the public we can only say with uncle "Toby" "Good Lord how this world is given to lying."

Pay No More Toll.

The decision of the Supreme Court in the Canyonville toll road case has wiped away all shadow of right, or pretended right, that Gately and Fink have been extorting tolls under. The whole road through the Canyon is now by virtue of the decision a "free" public road and all persons should refuse to pay a single cent of toll and any attempt to collect it is the same as petty larceny. We advise all teamsters and travelers accordingly to refuse to pay tolls and, should any trouble ensue, we are authorized to say that Judge Willie of Roseburg will defend any and all persons free of charge and at his own expense. If teamsters are sensible they will club together and make a test case which will compel these illegal toll collectors to tear down the toll gate which, under the decision of the Supreme Court, is now a public nuisance and an obstruction on the highway. This is probably the last that will be heard of this celebrated case, as its whole essence has been settled by this last decision.

The Committee on Judiciary have almost unanimously decided to report adversely that section of Cobbs' bill declaring land grants of the Northern Pacific Railroad had been forfeited. The law governing Pacific roads, namely, the Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific and the Atlantic and Pacific, is different from the statutes governing grants to other roads. The Northern Pacific act does not provide for forfeiture of lands; but in the event of non-compliance with its provisions by the company, allows the Government to take the road and further its construction in any way possible.

The "Standard" hits the nail square on the head when it tells the "Oregonian" that the next United States Senator will either be John H. Mitchell or a Democrat, if the Legislature is Republican. Mitchell will be elected and the "Oregonian" will go out of the race a badly "hipped" and spavined old "dog."

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

From the Washington City "Sunday Chronicle" of May 6th, we take the following: Perhaps no more beautiful and graphic description of the great Northwest was ever made than that of Hon. M. C. George, of Oregon, in the House of Representatives last Tuesday. Mr. George was peculiarly happy in his reference to the fertility, resources, and extent of that great country, which he stated, embraced an area of 300,000 square miles. Oregon alone, according to Mr. George, is "equal to all New England, and two-thirds of the Empire State thrown in. It is larger than the great States of New York and Pennsylvania combined, and is much larger than either Ohio and Pennsylvania, or Indiana and Illinois, laid side by side. Oregon is half as large as old England, over six times as large as Switzerland, and about eight times the size of Holland, and nearly nine times as large as Belgium. Were Oregon settled as thickly as Ohio, our population would be over seven and one-half millions; or as Pennsylvania, we would have over eight and one-half millions; or New York, over ten millions; or Switzerland, over thirteen millions; or France, about eighteen millions; or Holland, about twenty-seven millions; or our mother country, England, probably over fifty millions, or as many as are now in all of the United States of America." Besides a vast extent of country, Oregon, says Mr. George, "has the three essential conditions: first, a climate warm enough to ripen crops and secure the comfort of man and beast; second a soil of natural fertility; and third and last, sufficient moisture to render the soil productive." Mr. George elaborates as to these essentials, and shows a country well "capable of furnishing sustenance and capable of happy homes for the teeming millions of the future." We do not remember to have seen a more graphic grouping of facts illustrative of the resources and capabilities of any country than this of Mr. George, which is made for the purpose of showing the importance of improving the natural water courses of that country. Certain Congress should be liberal in making appropriations for a country blessed with so many natural advantages, and capable of sustaining so great a population. If the people of Oregon do not get from Congress what they want in this respect, it will assuredly be no fault of their able and faithful Representative.

Match It.

The latest complaint of the Democratic Times is that Mr. George has been flooding the State with his speeches. Mr. George has mailed many copies of his speech delivered in the House of Representatives on the "Development of the Great Northwest," and, if the editor of the Times were competent to judge and possessed of the slightest fairness, he would say it was an honor to Oregon to have a man in Congress who could so eloquently and forcibly present her resources and advocate her claims. This speech, so complete in all its statistical details, so graphic in its description of Oregon and the Northwest, so convincing in its logic, arrested the attention of congress and elicited encomiums from members who had grown gray in the public service. We now challenge the Times, any of its friends, any Democrat or Republican to produce a speech made in congress at the present session equal to Mr. George's in vigor, eloquence, research and logic. This is saying a good deal, but we boldly challenge comparison. Those who have read Mr. George's speeches are quite able to determine on their merits, however, far more so than the "Times" is, and the general opinion happens to be that they are creditable both to Mr. George and the State he has the honor to represent. We will moreover be the editor of the Times that he never read one of them, that he don't even know what they are about and could not appreciate nor understand them if he did read them. Match them if you can, or shut up.

The Jacksonville "Times" has the reputation of paying less regard to truth and facts than any other newspaper in Oregon.—Ashland Tidings.

The Ashland editor forgets two things when he enunciates the above truth. First, that the trash should not always be spoken; second, that truth ought not to be expected from the "Times" when it has had a standing "lie" in its columns for the last three years. If the "Times" desires proof let it ask us and we will give full satisfaction. Spit it out, neighbor!

Hon. J. K. Weatherford, Democrat candidate for secretary of state and acting governor, while speaker of the house in 1876, voted against a bill for reform in the office of state printer as proposed by Gen. M. V. Brown. He voted against the law prohibiting the sale of liquor on election days. He voted against the bill to permit a majority vote of a precinct deciding the question whether liquor should be sold in the precinct, better known as the "legal option law."—Salem Statesman.

RAILROAD NEWS.

Work is again being pushed on the tunnels that are to pierce the Cow creek and Grays creek divides. Iron for the tunnel tracks is being hauled from Roseburg and a large amount of the necessary machinery has been delivered at each end of the tunnels. Track laying will begin at Roseburg, next week the first seven miles being graded and ready for the iron.

The contract for clearing right of way, furnishing ties, cordwood, piling, hewing square timber, etc., for the second division of the O. & C. R. R. extension, from Upper Cow creek to the Grays creek tunnel, has been awarded to Antone Lefever. Work will be commenced at once, and Mr. Lefever is prepared to furnish employment to all of his former hands who may apply. Within a few weeks the company will be able to transport their material and supplies quite a distance out from Roseburg and a difficulty heretofore experienced will be overcome.

This is a sample of the stuff dealt out by the Democratic "Times" and is as far from the truth as usual. "Congressman George has proven himself an excellent representative for Portland but he has shamefully neglected the greater portion of the State."
