JACKSONVILLE, ORE.

SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1882.

NOTICE.

To all Persons who may care to tender a Bond, will be open for subscription, at the office of

J. G. W. STARR & CO.,

Located at 101 Main St., Jacksonville, Oreg., on the 4th.

Jug at the Wine.

J. B. BROWN.

Fourth of July.

Fourth of July will be observed in Jacksonville this year with all the festive spirit of the occasion.

Jacksonville will celebrate the Fourth of July.

Fourth, 8th, and 11th, a real poetical review, as Cassatt's Journeymen's Band will present their program.

The Liver

Sheriff Fisher of Jacksonville county is to be congratulated on the fine condition of the liver of the horse in which he is interested.

The letters are now being prepared for a kind of printing that will be found to be of great advantage to the newspaper business.

The Treasurer of Jacksonville Lodge, No. 157, F. & A. M., in the rear of the Old Folks' Home, Jackson- ville, Oreg., has been in receipt of the amount of ten dollars, which has been deposited in the bank at Oregon.

The subject of the present paper will be a discussion of the various points of view taken by the brethren on the subject of the great fire of 1871.

The meeting was held at 8 A.M. on Monday, April 10th, and was attended by a large number of brethren.

The New Chariton Post Office has been opened. It is located on the line of the Chariton and Jackson Valley Railroad, and will be supplied with the necessary apparatus for the transaction of business.

The postmaster was presented with a handsome set of keys, and the officers of the post office were given a cordial welcome.

The chariot was driven to the meeting house, and a large number of brethren were present to attend the business of the evening.

The committee on the subject of the fire of the old post office, which was held at 9 A.M. on Monday, April 17th, were present, and the business of the evening was transacted.

The meeting was held at 8 A.M. on Monday, April 10th, and was attended by a large number of brethren.

The postmaster was presented with a handsome set of keys, and the officers of the post office were given a cordial welcome.

The chariot was driven to the meeting house, and a large number of brethren were present to attend the business of the evening.

The committee on the subject of the fire of the old post office, which was held at 9 A.M. on Monday, April 17th, were present, and the business of the evening was transacted.

The postmaster was presented with a handsome set of keys, and the officers of the post office were given a cordial welcome.

The chariot was driven to the meeting house, and a large number of brethren were present to attend the business of the evening.

The committee on the subject of the fire of the old post office, which was held at 9 A.M. on Monday, April 17th, were present, and the business of the evening was transacted.

The postmaster was presented with a handsome set of keys, and the officers of the post office were given a cordial welcome.