The National Republican contains the eloquent oration delivered by Oregon's young representative, M. C. George, at Ball's Bluff on Decoration day. It is a beautiful tribute to Sonator Baker of Oregon who gave his life W. R. No choice had been made for the Democratic nomination for the Governorship of California up to the time of going to press last evening. A number of ballots had been taken with Stoneman and Hearst in the lead, The last ballot stood 198 for Stonemar and 177 for Hearst with the balance scattering. Later.—Late last evening we learned by telegraph that Stoneman re-eived the nomination for the Governorship on the 14th ballot and he will be their standard bearer in the coming campaign. Stoneman repre-sents the anti-railroad sentiment in California and will be handsomely defeated next September if the Republicans make a good nomination for that office, which they are sure to do.

Horse THIEVES AROUND .- Another successful attempt was made last Sunlay night the Singer Sewing Machine Co. losing two borses and David Payne one. The horses were taken from the barns owned by E. E.
