

OREGON SENTINEL.

JACKSONVILLE: SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1882. JULY THE FOURTH.

Another Fourth has come and gone and with it the usual aimless din and turmoil and drunkenness; young America has fired his crackers and eaten his candy and old America has looked at him and grumbled, forgetful of the few years that separate them.

A writer for the "Sunday Herald," of Washington, tells the following good story about Senator Miller, of Cal. Miller bought a fine horse the other day for $1,200, and got stuck badly by one of the Washington horse dealers.

Rogue river, Oregon, whose name so aptly applies to the character of the roguish Indians that once inhabited its borders, was discovered by a French vessel, long anterior to its discovery by Americans.

It is reported that over one hundred excursionists from Bloomington, Ill., are now on their way to California and Oregon. The rapidity of our future development will depend very much upon the impression carried away by Eastern tourists who visit us and we should be careful to see that any who come shall return with a proper appreciation of the advantages of our valley.

During the month of June last the public debt was reduced $12,560,696. From present appearances it seems almost certain that the receipts from the postoffice business of the country will be equal to, if not in excess of, the expenditure; but once before since 1851 has this happened.

Odd Fellow's Home.

The Odd Fellows of this jurisdiction have inaugurated the project of building a home for the orphans of members of the order, as well as the widows, aged and indigent members.

The trustees who have the matter of "The Home" in charge, are among the best citizens of our State who are elected annually by the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of Oregon.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between Louis Solomon and Max Muller is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

At the recent election in Iowa the vote upon the constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture or sale of intoxicating beverages was carried by a majority of 29,000.

The telegraphic correspondent of the "Oregonian" at Linkville, under date of the 29th ult., sends the following to that paper: Joe Laws, the boy shot in the thigh at the time his brother Lee was killed, last Saturday, died and was buried here to-day.

One of the most celebrated criminal cases of recent date in this country was that of the Malley boys for the murder of Jennie Cramer.

COMMISSIONER'S COURT.—This body met on the 5th inst. a full board present. The following are the proceedings: Jail limits were established as usual without any particular change.

Thos. E. Nichol filed his official bond in the sum of $5,000 with N. Fisher, Chas. Nickell and W. J. Plymale as sureties.

School Supt. Fountain submitted his financial report for the past year which we will publish next week.

Henry Klippel filed his official bond as County Clerk in the sum of $10,000 with John Orth, T. G. Reames T. E. Beall and Thos. Chavner as sureties.

Henry Pape County Treasurer gave bonds in the sum of $20,000 with David Peninger, Joseph Robinson, H. Amy, John Orth, John Tupper, J. A. Crain, Veit Schutz and Chas. Nickell as sureties.

A. S. Jacobs, Sheriff elect filed his official bonds in the sum of $10,000 with W. H. Atkinson, Jas. Helms, Hiram Farlow, Thos. Smith, C. W. Wilshire, J. O. C. Wimer, I. W. Burris, Dan Chapman, J. D. Fountain, E. DePeatt and E. D. Foudray as sureties.
