Piles! Piles! Piles! A SURE CURE FOUND AT LAST! NO ONE NEED SUFFER!

A sure Cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William's Indian Remedy, called Dr. William's Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and ointments do more harm than good. William's Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed) acts as a poultice, gives instant relief and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts, and for nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry of Cleveland says about Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment: I have used scores of Pile Cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. William's Indian Ointment.

RAILROAD WORK.

Work on the extension of the rail- road south is being pushed forward with all possible dispatch. There are now employed on the line between this place and Redfields, sixty five miles south, something above 4000 Chinamen and not a minute is being lost from work on the grade. The grade is finished or very nearly so to the head of Cow Creek Valley, there being nothing left undone between here and there except a small amount of light grading, and the work of completing the bridge across the south Umqua at Myrtle Creek. When this is done the road bed will be ready for the ties and rails to a point nearly 40 miles south. All hands except a few that are needed to finish up this side, have been moved up into Cow Creek canyon and are hard at work on the grade, rock cuts, tunnels, etc. and some too, are at work making a temporary road through the canyon, that will be used by the company for light work during the process of construction. It is not expected that the bridge at Myrtle Creek will be done before the 15th of September, and by that time work in the Canyon beyond which is very heavy, will have advanced so far that the graders will be able to keep out of the way of the track layers, until Redfields is reached, as we said before, 65 miles south where they will hang up for the winter, in consequence of the tunnel work stopping them. The track is now laid to within a few miles of Myrtle Creek, and will be there in a few days which is 22 miles south of Roseburg. The work of ballasting has begun and by the time the track is ballasted to the bridge on the south Umqua, that structure will be finished, and the work of track laying will go on without interruption until Redfields is reached which we are informed will be, as per the company's intention, sometime in October.

GIRLS. Bill Arr.'s Opinion of the Female Gender.

A nice, pretty, sweet girl can tell a man a long ways off sometimes, and make him sacrifice a power of time and comfort, and money, and horseflesh and when she does it all a purpose and then throws him off, I shall always think she hadnt order. I never was in favor of a young girl turning up her nose at a clever fellow who was raised in her neighborhood and running off after an airy chap from away yonder; but when hede comes I think she ought to let him go back quick and cheap or take him. I've always noticed that when young men go slipping away to parts unknown for a wife its because those girls he was raised with know him too well and dont want him. I didnt go a half-mile for my pard and that showed my good sense, and she didnt go no further than I did and that showed her, and if I was a sensible young girl and was waiting for a husband I would set my cap for somebody I had known a long time, but if I was a young fool I wouldn't. The happiest marriages I know of are those where the folks know all about one another for a good while and nary one was fooled. Romance in love affairs is mighty pretty, and a solitary horseman getting thrown from his horse is just splendid, but all this plays out in a few months and then comes the fact—the hard pan. The earth that is earthy, and the heavenly vanishes, and the baby has to be nursed of nights, and the fire gets low, and the diamond wedding ring won't bring color to the poor wife's cheeks, and she is away from her mother and wants sympathy and love and kind attention, and a good deal of it. As Mr. Longfellow said: Life is real life is earnest, And the baby wants a nurse.

It is well that all persons who are in the habit of sending newspapers through the post office, should know they must be properly stamped or they will not go. A one-cent stamp will carry one newspaper of ordinary size, but will not carry two or three. A single three-cent stamp will carry a letter, though it be over-weight, but there is no such regulation in regard to newspapers. Papers not covered with the proper amount in stamps are never sent, nor are they advertised—they are simply thrown away. Persons frequently roll up three or four papers, stick a one-cent stamp on them and dump them into the post office, thinking they are bound to go, but they never go—except into the waste pile. All who do this lose their stamp. Occasionally there are dumped into the post office rolls of papers that would weigh a pound or two, with but a single one-cent stamp attached. It is the last of the roll of papers so far as the sender or the person to whom it is addressed is concerned.
