

OREGON SENTINEL.

JACKSONVILLE: SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1882.

MRS. STOW.

Mrs. J. W. Stow is the editor of a publication called the "Woman's Herald of Industry," published in San Francisco.

- 1st, Give Woman the ballot. 2d, Retire the Chinese. 3d, Make honesty profitable. 4th, Season law with justice. 5th, Put a snaffle bit in the mouth of Monopoly.

Some people are so stupid as to pretend that they don't believe Mrs. Stow will redeem these pledges. They say she can't. But we doubt this, for "If a woman will, she will, you may depend on it; and if she won't, she won't, and there's the end on it."

The English squadron has accomplished the destruction of the Alexandrian forts with that completeness and dispatch, which in a military point of view, leaves nothing to be desired.

The Senate, in perfecting the river and harbor bill, refused to agree to a provision authorizing the Secretary of War to expend the appropriation of $150,000 made by the act of 1879 for a harbor of refuge on the Pacific coast.

Secretary Folger is likely to close the present Government fiscal year with a debt reduction of an even $150,000,000. That seems to be the figure he is aiming at.

There has been more or less trouble with the Indians in Arizona for a year or two past, and there is good reason for believing that it is due to the absence of a strong restraining hand.

PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICANS.

The Stalwart and Independent wings of the Republican party in Pennsylvania have been making mutual overtures towards an adjustment of differences. None of the plans so far proposed have succeeded.

The Democratic party Pennsylvania declares it is "in favor of the industrial interests of Pennsylvania." In view of the fact that the tariff question is somewhat prominent just at present, that utterance is very significant.

STAR ROUTE CASES.

It does seem as though the star-route thieves are not to be convicted after all. But it is idle to declaim against the judge presiding at the trial of these cases, because there are no convictions.

It is true, and there is no need to disguise the fact, that the people are very much dissatisfied with the course of these cases. A fraud, enormous in amount and gigantic in audacity, has been perpetrated against the government.
