

NOTICE.

Land Office at Roseburg, Ogn. June 30, 1882. To all whom it may concern: Notice is hereby given that I have designated the OREGON SENTINEL as the paper in which I shall hereafter publish all pre-emption, homestead and applications for mining patents for lands lying near Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon.

MONEY TO LOAN.—The undersigned has three or four thousand dollars to loan on first class real estate security. FRED OTTEN, Footh Creek.

One of the men employed with Finn's telegraph repairing crew fell from the top of a telegraph pole last Tuesday while at work in town but luckily had no bones broken.

DIED.—James Riley of Little Butte precinct received injuries by being thrown from a horse on Monday last from which he died on the following Wednesday. He was a young man unmarried.

PUBLIC NOTICE.—All persons in Rogue River valley, having stock running on the commons, and being desirous of forming a protective society, are requested to meet at Eagle Point Saturday Sept. 30, 1882. Many Citizens.

THE TERMINUS.—Messrs. Bilger & Massey received the following dispatch from E. P. Rogers, general passenger agent for the O. & C. R. R. Co. at Portland yesterday: "We will run into Riddleburg next Monday. Please notify your merchants."

STAGE ROBBERY.—The south-bound stage last Saturday night was stopped again by robbers near Redding but the highwaymen got small recompense for their work as there was very little bullion on at the time. No clue of the robbers has yet been found.

GOOD RUN.—From Wallace Bishop, who has been running the Bybee Bishop threshing during the past season, we learn the following as to the season's run: Bushel of wheat threshed, 187, 233 cuts, 9538, barley, 8513. This was done in 42 days and can well be considered good work.

GONE FROM OUR GAZE.—The old court house was put up at public auction last Saturday and was purchased by G. Karewski for $116. Since that time the building has been torn down and nearly all the old lumber moved away, and everything will be in readiness for building the new house as soon as the contracts are let on October 4th.

RELIGIOUS.—Elder M. Peterson preaches at Eagle Point Sunday morning next. Elder M. Peterson will preach H. A. Miller's funeral sermon at Heber grove school house on the first Sunday in October, at 11 o'clock A. M. Rev. B. J. Sharp will preach at Phoenix Sunday morning at eleven o'clock and at Jacksonville in the evening.

WHY.—How is it that our neighbor of the "Times" always "pines" certain items at certain times and never fails in fitting the certain localities where the certain papers are sent? Although never invited we learn that our contemporary has given "pie parties" before—sweet pie to some and sour to others. We feel slighted and would ask why are things thusly.

BOUND OVER.—Wm. S. Colwell and Charles Dodson had their preliminary examination before Justice Huffer this week and were bound over to appear before the grand jury at the November term of court. The justice refused to accept bail in the case of Dodson, at least until Hanna could be considered out of danger, and Colwell's bail was fixed at $1,000, which he has failed to furnish at this time, and both of the prisoners are now in jail.

NEW BIDS.—Bids for excavating and building the foundation for the new court house were opened last Saturday when the following bids were found: Geo. W. Holt, $6,500; N. A. Steadman, $7,700; Geo. H. Young, $11,500. The contract was awarded to Mr. Holt, he being the lowest bidder, but for some reason he has declined to accept it and new bids are now asked to be opened October 4th. A bond will be required at this letting.

Why does not the proprietor of Ammen's Cough Syrup publish testimonials from those who have been cured or relieved by this medicine? The answer is, the greater the humbug the more testimonials they publish. Ammen's Cough Syrup is no humbug, but to prove that and let it stand on its own merits, a 15-cent sample bottle is prepared, which is certainly more convincing than a testimonial from a stranger. Large bottles, $1.00. Ask your druggists for it.

The Red Bluff "People's Cause" says a railroad employe informs us that a sufficient number of railroad ties have already been shipped to Redding to build fifty miles of road. Several car loads of rails, spikes, etc., have also been shipped there and put under cover, ready to be laid down when grading shall have been commenced, which will not be many days hence. The work of culvert and bridge building is to be pushed forward rapidly, and it will not be many weeks before sixty to seventy-five miles of the road will be completed so far as that part of the work is concerned. Redding is a lively place now, and will continue to be so while it is the depot for the Oregon extension.

John Doe got it in the neck in Lake county last week, the grand jury having found indictments against him for murder and larceny. Mr. Doe is a hard case and we would be glad to hear of his being hung or at least sent to the penitentiary for life.

Two holes were dug in the Court House square some time since to see what kind of soil there was below. One of our citizens in answer to inquiries as to their uses, pronounced during the Pioneer's Re-union stated that they were graves for Day and Cook.

We learn that a meeting of citizens opposed to building a new Court House will be held at Central Point to-day. They surely cannot doubt the necessity of one now as we have none at all at present and depend on the city authorities for the use of the city hall for court purposes.

In bidding for the old court house last Saturday the two highest bids were found to be exactly alike—G. G. Karewski and Fred Grab—$100 each. In order to settle this matter it was afterwards put up at public auction when it was bid in by G. Karewski for the sum of $116.

In answer to our Butte Creek correspondent we will say that we publish only one edition each week, and that it is neither semi-weekly, tri-weekly nor weekly on the Court House or any other public question that affects the interests of our country. We never have but one opinion, and that is expressed alike to all.

Send your birth and marriage notices. We often hear accidentally of marriages, births and sometimes of deaths, but are unable to find out dates and particulars sufficient to warrant the publication of the same. Those notices should be published, and we are anxious to insert them if interested parties will send in the notices.

From Arthur Langell of Lake county we learn that black leg is killing cattle by the wholesale in his section. He has already lost about twenty head, mostly calves and yearlings and the disease seems to be spreading still. Mr. Langell passed through town this week on his way to the State Fair at Salem. Mrs. J. S. Howard and Miss Bertha Moore accompanied him.

Engineer John A. Hulbert intended to go to Portland this week with the maps of the preliminary surveys made by his party from the summit of the Siskiyou to the valley. It is expected that the general route will be decided upon by the company after consideration of his reports, and it is likely the location of the Siskiyou tunnel will be determined within a short time and the contract let for excavating it. Mr. Hulbert will in all probability be continued here as engineer of the locating survey of the line from the summit northward.—"Tidings."

The Roseburg "Plaintiff" says: "Two ladies of Looking Glass precinct circulated a remonstrance against a certain petition to obtain license at the present term of court to sell liquor, and beat it two to one. It should be well for other women of communities to make note of this and follow this example, for their efforts will be crowned with success almost invariably. If the class who are continually howling and making so much fuss about saloons, would put in a little of their time in working as those women did, they might prove a blessing instead of a curse. If you don't work keep your everlasting racket to yourself!"

The postal department has issued blanks to the various postmasters to be used by them in informing letter writers or addressers that matter dropped in the mail has been insufficiently stamped. The effect of the new regulation is to make local postoffices perform part of the labor heretofore devolving on the dead letter office. Formerly an insufficiently stamped letter was sent direct to the dead letter office; now a card is sent to the addressee, informing him that a letter to him is held for postage, or, if the name of the sender appears in print or otherwise on the envelope, a card is mailed to him, and on receipt of the postage the letter is sent to its destination. On this coast the regulation will save three weeks in the delivery of unstamped letters, and no one, unless he handles them, can imagine how many improperly stamped letters are mailed in the course of a week.

JAMES FACED.

The following, from the Ashland "Tidings" of yesterday, we believe, will express the feelings of large numbers of the "immense circulation" of our contemporary, and we reproduce it in full:

Courage always commands respect. Even a bold audacity in lying often wins a kind of admiration. Cowardice is sometimes pitiable, but when coupled with knavish deceit it is utterly contemptible and universally condemned. The editor of the Jacksonville "Times" will appreciate the force of these truisms more keenly than ever before when the complete record of his remarkable course in the court house controversy becomes generally known. At first people were rather inclined to pity him in his "hard row." He was between two hot fires; and it "hurt him so" to lose a subscriber. He was pretty well scorched on both sides before he was forced to move. Then he attempted the difficult feat of keeping his face in two opposite directions. In fact, he was found to have editorially two faces—one turned toward the new court house, the other turned away from it, and the pity he had provoked turned to disgust. In his edition of Sept. 8th the Jacksonville people read an editorial endorsement of the course of Day and Cook; but the country people who oppose the court house ring did not find it in the paper as it came to them. The matter in question (about a third of a column) was left out and replaced by something else in the country mail. This is the shallowest trick he has been guilty of to date. Ordinary sagacity would have warned him that on its exposure it would cost him twice as much as a "square deal" all around.

Wednesday, October 4, 1882. at 12 o'clock noon, for excavating and building the foundation for the new court house to be built in Jacksonville. The contractor to furnish all the materials necessary and to construct said foundation according to the plans and specifications in said Clerk's office. The party to whom the contract will be awarded is to have the privilege of using all the stone under the foundation of the old court house, and also all the stone in the walls of the old jail that is suitable to be used in accordance with the plans and specifications of the supervising architect.

All the material used in and the work done on said foundation must be done under the inspection and supervision of said architect, who can be consulted at his office in Jacksonville, with reference to all the plans and specifications. No bid will be considered unless accompanied by a bond executed by good and sufficient sureties in the sum of one thousand dollars, to be void upon the condition that the bidder, if the contract is awarded to him, will forthwith enter into an agreement and give a bond to be approved by the court to the amount of two-thirds of the bid for the faithful performance of the contract.

The sealed bids will be publicly opened at said Clerk's office at one o'clock P. M. on October 4th, 1882, and if deemed expedient the contract will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. The court reserves the right to reject any and all bids. HENRY KLIPPEL, County Clerk

Cuticura

Geo. W. Brown, 48 Marshall St., Providence, R. I. cured by Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cure) of a Kingworm Humor got at the barber's, which spread all over his ears, neck and face, and for six years resisted all kinds of treatment.

Skin Humor. F. H. Drake, Esq., agent for Harper & Bros., Detroit, Mich., gives an astonishing account of his case (eczema rodent), which had been treated by a consultation of physicians without benefit, and which specifically yielded to the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cure) externally.

Scald Head. H. A. Raymond, Auditor F. W. J. & S. R. R., Jackson, Mich., was cured of Scald Head of nine years duration by the Cuticura Remedies.

Eczema. Hon. Wm. Taylor, Boston, Mass. permanently cured of a humor of the face and scalp (eczema) that had been treated unsuccessfully for twelve years by many of Boston's best physicians and most noted specialists, as well as European authorities.

Milk Crust. Miss Bonner, 143 Clinton St., Cincinnati, speaks of her sister's child, who was cured of milk crust which resisted all remedies for two years. Now a fine healthy boy, with a beautiful head of hair.

Falling Hair. Frank A. Bean, Steam Fire Engine Co., Boston, was cured of Alopecia, or falling of the hair, by the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cure) externally, which completely restored his hair when all said he would lose it.

Treatment. The Cuticura treatment consists in the internal use of the Cuticura Resolvent, the new blood purifier, and the external use of Cuticura and Cuticura Soap, the great skin cure.

Cuticura Remedies are
