Noter Died of Salt Rheum. J. W. Adams, Newark, Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest medicines on earth. Had the worst case Salt Rheum in this country. We had a friend say to us a few days ago: "I never do anything for a cold; just wear it off." That is exceedingly dangerous; one might do that 19 times and the 20th time the cold would settle on the lungs and lead to consumption, and thus cut one's life short many years. Is it not better, and more sensible, to go to your druggist and get a bottle of Ammen's Cough Syrup than run any risk at all!

The capital stock of the O. R. & N. Co. has been increased from 180,000 shares to 240,000—$100 each. Corvallis Dec. 25.—Last Saturday night at 12 o'clock the lodging house at Human's mill, in the mountain twelve miles west of Monroe, was destroyed by fire, and two of the inmates, Frank Leonard and George Blake, lost their lives, and another, Joseph Shepherd, was so badly burned that his recovery is doubtful. They had procured a supply of whisky for the holidays of which they drank freely during the evening and went to bed drunk, leaving a blazing fire in the fire place, which communicated with the adjacent woodwork. Ernest Holgate, a sober young man who occupied a room in the building, was awakened by the flames in time to escape without injury. After getting outside and giving the alarm he found that the others were still in the building. He again entered and rescued Shepherd, who is badly burned about the head, neck and arms. Leonard and Blake were burned to a crisp and unrecognizable.

JACKSON COUNTY FRUIT.—The following, says the Ashland "Timings," is a clip from the Rockford (Ill.) paper. The Mrs. Woodruff mentioned in Mr. Fraley's daughter, who was in Ashland through the summer: "Everyone who makes a visit to the Golden State or vicinity comes home with marvelous tales of monster pears, mammoth apples and other wonders from the vegetable world and now Mrs. V. D. Woodruff relates almost incredible stories of Oregon and its products but substantiates her assertions by showing the fruit itself. She brought home with her a number of large apples the largest of which measured over 17 inches in circumference and would just comfortably set in the crown of a man's hat. A pear measuring 17 inches one way and 13 the other also excites the wonder of visitors. Besides the fruit she gathered many relics from places of note and interest which she will treasure as mementoes of this most pleasant trip."

AYER'S PILLS.—Never Despair. "I have never failed—Fever done. To the sick it is of little consequence how they are cured, but from a rational view of the disease and the rules defined for the guidance of the profession, so long as the cure is certain and expeditious. To a suffering man the question on the relative merits of quinine or calomel is uninteresting. The faculty may wrangle and discuss their various theories, but Dr. Holloway's treatment dispels doubt ere the disciples of Esculapius have finished the first stage. Holloway's Pills are the only remedies which effect a speedy and radical cure without danger of a relapse. Read the advertisement elsewhere.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the signature of J. HAYBROOK, surrounds each box of Pills and Ointment. Boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each. There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes. HOLLOWAY & Co., New York.
