WASHINGTON NEWS.

Washington, Jan. 1-New Year's reception at the White House was brought to an abrupt termination by a most painful accident. At the conclusion of the reception to diplomatic corps, Hon. Elisha Allen, minister from the Hawaiian islands dropped dead from heart disease. Mr. Allen was the doyer or dean of the diplomatic corps. He had conducted the presentation of members of the corps to the President and when the ceremony was concluded walked to the cloak room and asked for his wraps. While waiting for a servant to bring them he fell, and instantly expired. Dr. Norris, of the navy, was immevisitors, and he pronounced death to have been instant and heart disease the cause. The President was receiv-Cheaper Than The Cheapest! ing members of the Grand Army of the Republic when the sad news was conveyed to him; and orders was immediately given to close the White House doors. Thousands of citizens who were waiting their turn to pay their respects were unable to gain admittance, and some time elapsed before the cause of the ending to the reception was known. Mr. Allen was born in Salem, Massachusetts, Jan. 28, 1803. He was a lawyer by profession and served in the Maine legislature from 1836 to 1841, and in 1846; in 1838, was speaker. He was elected Representative in Congress from Maine from 1841 to 1843, serving as a member of the committee of manufactures. In 1847 he moved to Boston and was a member c? the Massachusetts legislature in 1847. After the expiration of his term he was appointed consul to Henolulu, and soon after entered the employ of the Hawaiian government. chief justice of the Sandwich islands, which position he has held until 1854. ROAST TURKEY .- The secret in baying a good roast turkey is to stuff it palatably, to baste it often and to cook it long enough. A small turkey of seven or eight pounds should be roasted or baked three hours at least. A very large turkey should be cooked on hour longer. After the turkey is dressed season it well, sprinkling pepper and salt on the inside; stuff it and tie it well in shape; either lard the top or lay slices of bacon over it; wet the skin and sprinkle it well with pepper, salt and flour. It is well to allow a turkey water or stock; strain it, skim off every particle of fat and add the giblets; season with salt and pepper.

Feeding Pigs.

There is a popular idea that almost anything will do to feed pigs with, refuse of every kind being thrown to the pig stys. The wisdom of this course was illustrated in an action tried at the Swindon County Court, Eng. Lord Bolingbroke's head keeper kept two pigs, two of which he sold through an he resided. The flesh-the pigs were "Nothing of this kind," growled the sold dead, by the carcass appeared perfectly satisfactorily, and was cured in a manner which was admitted to be proper, but when converted into bacon that the pigs had been well fed, and it was proved that they had been fattened on barley meal, but it was also admitted that the haunches of a large number of rabbits had been thrown or a bale of hay, to show that I hadn't to them, the result being that the flesh was impregnated with a peculiar odor "Take this," roared the cashier, attached to rabbits and ground game tearing the nesegay from his button- generally. trade, as exchange says that four years ago not to exceed 4,000 or 6,000 head of cattle came out of Montana and sought eastern markets via the Northern Pacific and its connections. This season the Northern Pacific handled 18,000 head of Montana cattle between the 11th of September and the 11th of October. The daily average now coming out of the Territory is, practically, all that the railroad has facilities for handling, and will make an aggregate for the present month of nearly or quite equal to that of the four weeks above recorded. During the season up to the 1st of September about 10,000 head came out, so that to the present time it may be es ed in round numbers that the ern Pacific has brought out of tana not less than 32,000 hes the season not over two thir These figures very clearly des that the tide of shipment eas
