Washington, Jan. 4 .- The Finance Committee of the Senate yesterday virtually completed the bill which will bereported to the Senate to day. Two or three items remain to be finally acted upon. Important changes have been made by the Committee. The schedule and rates of duty are as follows: Chemical product duty of cents per pound on chemical and bichromate potash, reduced to 3 cents. Upon white lead when dry or in pulp and when ground or mixed or in oil, the Commission recommended the duty to be fixed at 2 and 21 cents respectively. The Committee advanced the duty to 21 and 3 cents.

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE. The duty on China porcelain and bisque including plaques, ornaments, charmes, vases and statutes, decerated or ornamented in any manner, has been filed at 60 ad valorem, in stead of 65 per cent., as recommended by the Tariff Commission. The same not ornamented, or decorated 55, instead of 60 per cent.; all other earthen stone or crockery ware not specially enumerated or provided for in this Act, 50 in stead of 55 per cent. Cost of pelished plate glass not exceeding 24x60 inches square, 20 instead of 25 per cent.; all above that size 40, instead of 50 per cent. A small reduction is made in all grades of iron, steel rails, etc. The committee make a reduction of 7 of a cent upon each grade of old copper, old brass and all composition metal of which copper is the component part. Material of chief value 11 cents per pound, instead of 31; upon lead, ore lead in bags and bars, old scrap lead and lead in sheets and pipes, the duty is fixed as at present.

IRON AND OTHER METALS. Respectively on nickel or ignots of iron or other forms of any metal plated nickle, 20 instead of 25 cents. On sugar the polorizcopic test is retained. The duty fixed on all sugars from 75 polorizcopic test of saccharine strength to No. 16 Dutch standard is 11 cents per pound instead of 11; from No. 16 to No. 20 Dutch standard, 3 cents instead of 37; all sugars above No. 20 Dutch standard, 31 instead of 31; molassess, 5 cents per gallon. On all tobacco valued at 40 cents per pound, on cigars, cheroots, oigarettes; etc. the present duty is retained. Rye and barley, 10 cents per bushel instead of 15, barley malt, 20 cents instead of 25; rice, 20 per cent. ad valorem. In liquers no changes have been made.

COTTON GOODS. In cetton and cotton goods, a few reductions from five to twenty per cent. below the commission's report. In hemp, jute and flax goods, the principal change is fixing a duty on jute butts at six dollars per ton. In wool and woolens the distinction between washed and unwashed is removed, and the duty is fixed at the same rate as that imposed upon washed wool by the present law. On woolen rags shoddy and waste, the duty is fixed at ten instead of twelve cents per pound. Upon woolen cloths of all grades the duty is fixed at forty cents per pound. In the schedule of books the committee fixed the duty upon all books, periodicals and pamphlets, bound or unbound, engravings, etchings, illuminated books, maps, etc., at twenty per cent ad val orem, instead of fifteen as recommended by the Commission. The above emproposed by the Finance Committee. After some further slight amendment, the bill will tomorrow be reported to the Senate for its consideration.

A Clewing Tribute to Cambetta

Paris, January 4 .- Duclere, Presi dent of the Council, in a letter to President Grevy, submitting the decree for a public funeral in honor of Gambetta, says: "A great misfortune has befallen France. She is in mourning for one of her most illustrious sons. The services he rendered are in the memory of all. In the days Roseburg land office for the three of the screet trials he bore the flag of months ending December 31st 1882: invaded France without despairing of 27 private entries embracing 3186 acres; her future. Gambetta being out of office at the time of his death, Great Britain will not be officially represented at the funeral. The British Ambassador may, however, attend in a private capacity. Gambetta's father demands a religious interment at Nice. The woright of Gambetta's brain is eleven porated for the purpose of dealing in hundred grammes.

POINTS DECIDED BY THE SUPREME

The Supreme court of this state has decided: That a will of any person cannot be admitted in evidence to support title to land founded upon it until after such will has been admitted to probate in the county court and therewills to be proven. Nearly all the other states which have probate courts with exclusive jurisdiction pertaining to the proof of wills have held the same
