

TO ENGLAND.

We hail thee great and glorious Isle, Mother of the brave and free; From thy shores the pilgrim fathers Sought this wild America.

NEWS.

Another of those terrible calamities which sicken ones very soul and send a thrill of horror over the whole country has just occurred at Milwaukee Wisconsin.

The memorable "fifteen puzzle" is being revived. As our insane asylum is not yet completed and our present facilities for taking care of incurable lunatics is somewhat limited, it would be well for beginners to emigrate to some other state in the early stages of the disease.

The House has passed the pension bill which appropriates $85,000,000 for the payment of pensions. Now brother Democrats, sharpen your pencils and sail in.

Democratic tariff-for-revenue-only, politicians are industriously engaged in patching up Sam Randall's high tariff opinions to make them consist with their stock of political capital on the tariff question.

The King of Burmah has four queens and he is considered on the high road to prosperity, says an exchange. Now what's the use of going away off to some out of the way corner of the world for such an item as that.

The recent abduction of a St. Louis belle has caused great excitement in that city. The young lady was first chloroformed and then carried off by a couple of ruffians who concealed her in a room in the city.

As a matter of news, we may remark that the Presidential stew is still simmering. McDonald of Indiana is being par-boiled over a slow Democratic fire.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

San Francisco is seriously threatened with a water famine.

Gladstone's health it is said is so seriously affected as to necessitate his early retirement from politics.
